A Short History of Mt. Carmel
Crisp County, Ga.

Contributed by J. T. Nipper

The Mt. Carmel area is located in the southeast corner of Crisp Co., Ga. Mt. Carmel School was located on Floyd Rd. between its intersections with GA Hwy 90 to the east and Muller Rd. to the west. Mt. Carmel School was probably closed in the 1940's. For years after the building was gone, the only sign of its past existence in the wooded area was the old hand operated pump that stood toward the front of where the school building was located. The water pump disappeared about 20 years ago. The Musselwhite home was about a mile east of the school on the south side of Floyd Rd. My family lived within sight of the Musselwhite home, about another half-mile on the north side of Floyd Rd. My family moved to Macon in 1939 when I was four years old. The following two documents provide some history of this area. The first is an essay written by Ira Musselwhite as a ninth grade student. The sources of Ira's information are not named but the little history provides some nice stories of the area and people. Ira's essay won second place in the contest he entered. First place was awarded to Elah Prevatte. The second document is a letter to Ira from Mr. W. H. Lasseter who taught school at Mt. Carmel in 1898. Ira was the son of one of Mr. Lasseter's former pupils, Vashie Stewart (M. C.) Musselwhite.

The History of Mt. Carmel
By Ira Musselwhite

As we study the history of Mt. Carmel, asking the older people questions about it, we are told many interesting facts. We find that what is now known as Mt. Carmel was begun about the time or just before the Civil War. This war was the war that set the slaves of the South free, and broke up the large plantations that were all over the south. Mr. T.A. Musslewhite was the first one to build a house and settle here. Then a few more came settling here and there. These settlers came pushing on southward hunting for sites to build homes and raise cattle, hogs, and make their farms.

These settlers had dangers to face even then, for the Seminole Indians still roamed the woods, traveling from Florida north and then back to Florida each year, hunting and stealing the settlers' hogs. It was about the time of the end of the Civil War: two or three men who had been losing hogs started out to look for them. They had traveled for some time when they came upon an Indian with a hog on his back. When he saw them he ran and they followed. When he came to a branch about a mile from the present site of Mt. Carmel schoolhouse, he turned to shoot at the men but they fired first and killed him. The branch where he was killed has been called Indian Branch ever since. The other Indians who were some piece off, immediately started north. They were scouts of the Seminole Tribe, and as they went they murdered, robbed, and burned all that was in their path. When they came to the old schoolhouse, which was located about halfway between here and Penia, Mr. Whitney, the school teacher, was still there. He had sent the school children to hide, for the warning had already been spread abroad that they Indians were coming. He had stayed at the schoolhouse to hold the Indians back as long as he could. When they arrived at the schoolhouse, they killed him and burned the school. The old men who lived around there gathered to follow the Indians, for the young men were gone to the war, but the Indians got away.

The first houses that were built have long been gone, some of them have burned down, and some torn down. Two of the oldest ones stood, one on the place where Mr. Barfield lives, and another on the place where Mr. Alec Nipper lived. These houses were built of logs that had been cut down and notched, and then put in place by the settlers. The floor was either boards, or there was no floor at all. For years the people kept coming and settling around here, until there were enough to start to school. Some of the settlers, seeing the need of a school, set to work to start one. Among the foremost of these we find Messrs. W. E. Bedgood, J.H. Stewart, Alec Nipper, G.W. Smith, and a few more who were living here then.

Mr. J.H. Stewart furnished the land, while the trees were gotten where ever they were found suited for the purposes. The house was built in 1883 and is the house where W.T. Stewart now lives. This house was used for a schoolhouse and church both until 1891 or 1892 when another house was built to be used. It is the Mt. Carmel Church, and school was taught here for several years.

In 1908, after the school districts were laid off, it was decided to move the schoolhouse nearer the center of the district. The house was built on land given by Mr. Jim Nipper. This place, however, proved to be unsuitable, and in 1915 another house was built on land given by Mr. D.C. Wade and Mr. J.H. Stewart, and is the present Mt. Carmel schoolhouse.

There have been very few business enterprises in this community. Agriculture is the leading industry, and began when the community started.

Mr. W. H. Lasseter's Letter

Fitzgerald, Ga. April 23rd, 1929

Mr Ira Musselwhite
Cordele, Ga.

Dear Sir:

The most I know of any history is the history of the people. I never cared much for houses and lands and stocks and bonds, but I have always been very much interested in people. I can tell you something of people and some close around you and if you can get anything from this I shall feel well paid for giving it to you. I taught school at Mt. Carmel in the summer of 1898 and while I worked hard at it, I have always thought I did more for the people there than at any other place where I have lived so short a time.

John Rumph, Dock Wade, and Jim Nipper were the trustees. They made a contract with me to teach the school three months and they lived up to it and I tried to live up to it too, whether I failed or not you may inquire of some of the boys and girls going to school at that time. An old man named Johnnie Stewart lived near the school at that time and in 1926 his youngest daughter lived at his old place and she has a picture of the school and you may find from this picture most of the children attending that school.

I boarded at Nelson Clemons'. When I requested board of him, others told me that he would not send his children to school and would not pay for them to go to school. I decided that if I could get him to board me, then I would be able to get the children to attend school. He promptly told me that he was not running a boarding house, but if I could eat sheep, and Mary would cook it for me, I could stay at his house because he would be gone most of the time. I asked her about it and she said she could cook for me when she cooked for the children and that they had a spare room and if I desired I may stay there. I very promptly accepted and made my home with them during the three months I taught at Mt. Carmel.

At the end of the first month I had five of their children going to school regularly and I asked her how much I owed her for board and she sent me to Nelson. Nelson told me that I did not owe him anything that he hadn't missed anything I had eaten. She then told me that she would charge me whatever I charged them for sending their children to school. So I told her it would be $1.00 each, making $5.00 for the month and she said she would consider it even if I would just pay that amount, so I settled with the trustees for the children and that is all the board I paid.

My people lived near Findley up above Vienna and Friday afternoons I would walk from the school to Cordele which was about nine miles. Most of the times I would go through the woods. There were no very straight roads and I soon learned the general course, so I would just start off and go towards Cordele and usually come out right about town. Most of the lands were in the woods. There was only one field between Mr. Clemons and the school house and that was Mr. Wade. Mr. Clements had about 1000 cows and 3000 sheep in the woods at that time and his time was occupied tending them.

When I was a child my father was prominent in his community and you know Crisp County was then a part of Dooly County. My father would be a member of the Grand Jury and set with such men as Jesse Clements, Richmond Bedgood, John Whitsett, Zack Harden, Tom Royal, Bill Dowdy, Mark Rainey, Isaiah Williams and others. They would ride in buggies to Vienna and some of them would spend the entire week up there, going home with my father and others for the night. The roads were mere trails where there were no fields and mostly sand beds where fields.

I suggest that you talk with some of the older people around you and put something in your history about the old rock house. I remember hearing a number of mysterious things about it. Most of this I am telling you occurred when Crisp County was part of old Dooly County, but of course that was to be a part of the history of Crisp.

George Smith sent his boys to school with me and he made a living and really accumulated money growing corn field beans and carrying them to Cordele and peddling them on the streets. He would leave early before daylight and get back late in the afternoon, and he and his boys would gather a load for the next day and then in the winter he would carry sweet potatoes. If you could see him he could tell you lots of things way back about the county.

I hope you will win the prize and that some of these things will help you.
Yours truly, W. H. Lasseter (letter courtesy of Mrs. Vashie (M. C.) Musselwhite of Cordele)

Beyond the Letter Home

Contributed by Linda Ward Meadows

Analysis of an old letter written by a Confederate ancestor caused the writer to wonder what happened to all of the people mentioned in the letter written by her Great Great Grandmother's brother. Edward Gamble's words led to an historical search that told more than what his fading brown script revealed.

Edward I Gamble

Edward I. Gamble was the brother of Elizabeth Gamble Lewis, and George Gamble, mentioned in the above letter. On page 270, entry #613 of the Dooly County, GA census of 1850, Elizabeth Gamble, aged 33, George Gamble, aged 16, and Edward Gamble, aged 10, are listed in the household of their parents, James and Mary Gamble. Other siblings in this listing include Mary A., James E., Frances A., David, and William. Another sister, Sarah Ann Gamble Ward, was married to David T. Ward, also living in Dooly County, as listed on page 279, entry #738 of the same census.

References to above-mentioned soldiers are found in Volume IV, Roster of Confederate Soldiers of Georgia 1861-1865, as entries on the Muster Roll of Company C, 45th Regiment GA Volunteer Infantry, Army of Northern Virginia. Allen Barton enlisted as a Private 4 March 1862. He died of disease 28 October 1864. Joseph A. Bullock also enlisted as a private 4 March 1862. He was admitted to Richmond, Virginia's Chimborazo Hospital suffering from pneumonia 2 May 1863. Bullock was transferred to Macon, GA 11 May 1863. No further record of him is listed in the Roster, but Joseph's Combined Military Records indicate his illness and subsequent discharge because of tuberculosis and pneumonia. He died intestate in Dooly County, GA on 25 July 1874, according to the Dooly Probate records of 1874. Joseph is buried beside his parents, Irwin and Ladufsia Pound Bullock, at Oak Grove Cemetery in Americus, GA.

Michael Dooling, another of Edward Gamble's friends from home who enlisted as a private on 4 March 1862, earned an appointment as 3d Sergeant in 1862. Dooling was wounded at Wilderness, VA 6 May 1864. He retired by virtue of General Order #34 on 2 November 1864.

According to Volume III of the Roster, the George that Edward mentioned to his sister was their brother, who served with CO F, 31st Regt., GA Vol. Infantry, Pulaski County. He attained the rank of 5th Sergeant October 27, 1861, and was appointed 1st Sergeant May 13, 1862. George was wounded at Fredericksburg, VA Dec. 13, 1862. Within a few short months, he faced the Boys in Blue on the bloody battleground hallowed at Gettysburg, PA where he was killed July 1, 1863.

Edward Gamble, the author of the letter to his sister, Elizabeth Gamble Lewis, enlisted as a Private with his friends on 4 March 1862. His days of service numbered little more than a month when he wrote Elizabeth that he expected them to be able to "drub the Yankees out And come home." Such was not the case. He may have visited home at some point, but he did not get to stay. He died of smallpox at Camp Gregg, VA. The date of Edward's death was not listed in the Roster.

Just one month after Edward wrote to his sister, their brother, David Gamble, enlisted as a private on 19 May 1862, also serving with the Dooly Volunteers. On that same day, David was appointed 4th Corporal. In a subsequent battle, he was wounded in the head, but served until the Confederate surrender at Appomattox, VA on 9 April 1865. David's military service records show that he was born in Screven County, GA on 28 September 1828, and died in Dooly County, GA in 1910.

Edward Gamble's letter found its way into the hands of this distant relative (GGG niece) who now knows more about the price that her kinsman and his friends paid on lonely battlefields far from home. Beyond the pain, hunger, suffering, and loneliness, this letter reveals an undaunted spirit that was loyal to the Southern cause. Edward Gamble and his friends are remembered because of his words written on a folded sheet of old paper. Though these brave GA boys are gone, they are not forgotten.

Sources Cited Herein. Edward Gamble's letter was transcribed and annotated by his GGG niece, Linda Ward Meadows, who is also the GGG niece of Joseph A. Bullock, mentioned as serving with Edward. [redacted]

The above photograph was edited using Adobe Photoshop Elements 2 software by Patty Marion. Patty has worked on her large collection of family photographs to repair scratches, tears in the paper or emulsion and blemishes. Photoshop Elements 2 (available from Office Depot for about $100.00) has nearly all of the capabilities for editing of Photoshop but cost much less. In sharing her experiences with Photoshop Elements 2, Patty described how the software allows the user to change from color to black and white to sepia tone. She was able to correct contrast, work with portions of the image or the whole image. One portion of a photograph can be "cloned" into another area of the photograph. For example, in the original print above of Patty's great grandfather there appears to be a gloved hand resting on the man's right shoulder. Patty used a feature that selected the left shoulder, reversed a portion of the image of the left shoulder, and moved it to the right shoulder to cover the gloved hand. The software allows one to whiten teeth, take red-eye out of an image, change hair color or add make-up. Patty found two books to be helpful in learning to use this software, The Photoshop Elements Book for Digital Photographs by Scott Kelby and Restoration and Retouching with Photoshop Elements 2 by Laurie Ulrich. Do you recognize these men? CGGS member Bob Bridger has identified the man in the upper left photo as James Everette Floyd (ca. 1900) but needs help to identify the other two. James Everette Floyd lived in Pulaski Co., Ga. He was the son of Amos Floyd. Ladufsia Pound Bullock:
A Georgia woman's story

Written by Linda Ward Meadows

Ladufsia Pound Bullock was like so many other women who faced the hardships of life during the uncertain days of the nineteenth century. Her roots were firmly planted in the rich, red clay of Middle Georgia. Perhaps that was what enabled Ladufsia to endure the trials and heartaches which came to her family during the latter months of 1853 and the years following.

Ladufsia Pound was born to Merryman and Clarissa Herndon Pound on 4 April 1800, probably in Washington or Hancock County, GA. Her father was a veteran of the Indian Wars and the War of 1812. Her mother was descended from the landed aristocratic Digges and Herndon families of Virginia. Her brothers and sisters numbered more than a dozen. Their descendants are scattered all over the United States.

Ladufsia was reared in Putnam County, where her father was a successful land owner on the banks of Murder Creek in the Devil's Half Acre District. On 29 August 1816, she married Irwin Bullock, who was the son of Daniel and Mary Whitehurst Bullock. Irwin was born in NC in 1794.

Surely the children from the union forged between Ladufsia and Irwin Bullock would have patriotic pride instilled within them. After all, both Great Grandfather Reuben Pound and Grandfather Daniel Bullock had paid a fair share during the American Revolution. Grandfather Merryman Pound had fought Indians on the rugged Georgia frontier, and was a veteran of the War of 1812. And, what stories Irwin Bullock must have told his children on a dark night as he regaled them with his experiences as a soldier in the War of 1812.

As Ladufsia and the children sat nearby, he probably recounted tales of his service under Captain William Varner, from Putnam County, in the Regiment of Colonel Alexander. He would tell how he had substituted in the place of Stephen Hall from 20 August 1813, until his discharge 28 January 1814, at Fort Hawkins. Irwin would share with his children experiences during his second enlistment under Captain William Harvey, from Baldwin County, in the Regiment of Colonel Ezekiel Wimberly. Therein he had served as a substitute for their uncle, Frederick Sims, at Camp Hope from 20 December 1814, until discharged at Darien, GA on 8 March 1815. He would tell his children of his loyal service to his country and of the pay of $8 a month.

Irwin would want his children to remember how the Americans stood up to the British and gained worldwide respect in this Second War for American Independence. He would express to them his love for their mother Ladufsia, whom he married only seventeen months after his final discharge.

Together, Ladufsia and Irwin Bullock would move their family to Dooly County, GA and prosper on land that was red GA clay. By 1850 the fifty-year-old Ladufsia would have only eight of her thirteen children living at home. Charles I., George C., Daniel Merryman, James R., Florida L., Victoria F., Joseph A., and Uriah B. must have been a great help on the family farm located in the 24th District of Dooly County.

Close family ties were obviously maintained with the four married daughters who lived nearby with families of their own. Mary J. had married Allen Waters. Eleanor C. was married to William Blackstone Johnston. Emsuetta was the wife of Isaac J. Newberry, and Sarah A. was wed to William B.F. Oliver. Another daughter, Virginia C., lived in a distant part of the county with her husband, John G. Waller, and their two children. All of these daughters and their spouses were later mentioned in Irwin Bullock's Last Will and Testament.

The Bullock family's prosperity was apparent from the property claims stated in the GA Agricultural Census of September 1850. Irwin's farm valued at $2000 included 300 acres of improved land, with another 300 unimproved. His livestock was valued at $815, and consisted primarily of swine. The previous year, the Bullock farm produced 1000 bushels of Indian corn. The farm yielded the necessities for a comfortable way of life. The milch cows (giving milk), slaughtered animals, peas, beans, and sweet potatoes all contributed to the family's daily diet.

Little did they know that within three short years their lives would be forever changed through tragedy. According to the Macon Messenger, Irwin and Ladufsia faced three heartbreaking deaths in 1853. Their granddaughter, Martha C. Newberry, died 13 September, at the age of seven. Their son, George C. Bullock, died 14 November, at the age of 23. Finally, their son, Uriah B. Bullock, died of congestion of the brain 28 December, at the age of 12 years and 7 months. Their agony must have been lessened only by their deep faith in a Power higher than any here on earth.

Perhaps Irwin dealt with the agony of loss by turning to farm work. By 1860, he had cleared another 50 acres of his growing 1215 acre farm. He had purchased additional horses and mules. His ownership of 27 sheep also reflects a diversity among his livestock, now valued at $1595. Forty-four pounds of wool were produced on the Bullock farm the previous year. Indian corn production had now reached 1500 bushels. Depicting the growing importance of the value of Southern cotton, Irwin produced 24 bales of ginned cotton weighing 400 pounds per bale. The $560 value of slaughtered animals probably represents those used to feed both family and slaves.

But winds of war were churning and times were about to change. Certainly their deep faith again helped the Bullocks to endure when their son Joseph enlisted with the Dooly Volunteers 4 March 1862. There were times when Ladufsia and Irwin must have lain awake at night worrying about their son's safety as he fought with the Army of Northern Virginia, and later when he was admitted to Richmond, Virginia's Chimborazo Hospital suffering from pneumonia 2 May 1863. His subsequent transfer to Macon, GA 11 May 1863, meant that he was close enough for his parents to visit.

Ladufsia faced the death of children, grandchildren, fears of war, and finally the loss of her husband of 48 years. Between Septemebr and November 1864, Irwin died. He left Ladufsia a home and 100 acres of land on lot #144 in the 7th District of Dooly County in his Last Will and Testament dated 24 September 1864. He attempted to provide for Ladufsia during her widowhood with slaves Henry, Biddy, and Ella, all of whom would shortly be freed by the Thirteenth Amendment at the close of the War Between the States. Other properties were bequeathed to children and grandchildren. The crops, livestock, buggy, and personal properties left to Ladufsia all endowed her with a measure of security. Nevertheless, Irwin's LWT also notes that another child, Mary J. Waters, had died by 1864.

According to the index of Oak Grove Cemetery, Americus, GA, compiled by Alan Anderson, Irwin was originally buried in Dooly County in the fall of 1864, but his remains were moved to Oak Grove on 6 Feb 1876. In the 1870 Federal Census Ladufsia is living in Dooly County in the household of her son Joseph A. Bullock (Household #126, Family #137). This was the last Dooly County Census listing for Ladufsia or Joseph A. Their names are next cited in the Oak Grove Cemetery index along with the dates of their burial and the re-interment of Irwin's remains in this historic cemetery in Sumter County.

Joseph A. Bullock died as a young man, possibly never having fully recovered from his war illnesses. His Military Service Compiled Records (Roll 471, GA 45th Infantry) detail the military service of this Dooly County man. Joseph was enlisted at Vienna, GA on 4 Mar 1862 by Captain James W. Carter. His term of enlistment was three years and he received $50 bounty pay upon enlistment. His pay vouchers indicate that Joseph was paid $11 per month until his disability discharge based on a Surgeon's Certificate. Joseph was admitted to Chimborazo Hospital, Richmond, VA with pneumonia on 2 May 1863, through transfer from Wayside Hospital (General Hospital #9, Richmond). From there, he was sent to Macon, GA on 11 May 1863. He was close to home once again.

Joseph A. Bullock's regiment had seen fighting in fierce battles during his time as a soldier: Hanover Courthouse (VA), Seven Days Battle (VA), Cedar Mt., Second Bull Run, Harper's Ferry (W.VA), Antietam (MD), Fredericksburg (VA), and Chancellorsville (VA). Joseph was probably not involved in some of the latter fighting because of his disability. Company C, 45th GA Regiment eventually surrendered at Appomattox, VA on 9 April 1865. (http://gacsa.cobbslegion.com/units/45th_gvi.htm)

Joseph's certificate of Disability Discharge signed by his brother-in-law, Captain John H. Baskin, on 29 Aug 1863, notes that Joseph was born in Bibb County, GA and that he was 23 years old at the time of his discharge. He was 5'10" tall and had a red complexion. His eyes were grey and his hair was light. He was a farmer prior to enlistment. Captain Baskin also wrote that Joseph had been unfit for duty 60 days of the last two months. He had been incapable of performing duties of a soldier because of phthisis (tuberculosis), and well-developed pulmonitis, or pneumonia. According to James Mercer, General Surgeon for the Board of Medical Examiners, Joseph had also been confined to his bed for a period of three months (Discharge signed by surgeon on 4 Sept 1863).

Even with these infirmities, Joseph faired better than his enlisting officer, Captain James W. Carter, who was killed at Weldon Railroad, VA on 22 June 1864. Carter had achieved the rank of Lt. Colonel. Likewise, Joseph A. Bullock's brother-in-law and his commanding officer, Captain John H. Baskin, Jr., was killed at Jericho Ford, VA on 23 May 1864. These brave men did not live to see the war's end, as Joseph did.

The Confederate government settled its debts to Joseph shortly after his discharge. Joseph's last pay covered the period from 28 Feb 1863 until Sept 1863, and was collected by his attorney, William A. Walton, on 30 Nov 1863. After repaying the CSA $5.25 for clothing he had received at Camp Gregg, Joseph A. Bullock received a total of $195.05, including money to offset his costs of returning home.

Dooly County was home and that is where Irwin and Ladufsia Bullock cared for their son, who eventually returned to his life as a farmer. After Irwin's death in the fall of 1864, caring for her son Joseph must have been even more important to Ladufsia. The 1870 Federal census found both of these middle Georgians as farmers, with Joseph owning $1000 worth of real and $1000 worth of personal property in Dooly County and his mother owning $500 worth of real and $150 worth of personal property. Biddy Bullock, aged 40, was listed as a black female living in the house next to Joseph and Ladufsia. This was the same Biddy who had been willed to Ladufsia by Irwin in his Last Will and Testament of Sept 1864. Now, 40-year-old Biddy had assumed the surname of Bullock and was living near her former mistress in 1870.

Alas, death came only four years later to 34-year-old Joseph A. Bullock. According to Dooly County Probate Court records for 1874, found in Book C, pages 123-124, his brother-in-law, Manuel Waller Jones, applied for and received letters of administration for Joseph A. Bullock's estate. Joseph died intestate on 25 July 1874, almost ten years after the death of his father. There has been no record found of Joseph's ever having married. Manuel Jones told the court that Joseph left behind "land, horses, cows, hogs, and crops in the field." Jones sought to protect these properties from "waste and destruction." He entered his petition only nine days after Joseph died.

Sarah Ann Bullock Oliver now cared for her mother and Sumter County, GA would become Ladufsia's home in her later years. It was Sarah Ann's daughter, Vasti (Vaslity) Oliver Holton (Mrs. Thomas B. Holton) who had her uncle Joseph's body transferred to Oak Grove Cemetery on 27 July 1874. Family took care of family, and so they should. Family also had Irwin's body reinterred at Oak Grove Cemetery on 6 Feb 1876. And, it was also here in this tranquil spot that Ladufsia would be laid to rest on 22 Nov 1879.

In looking at a portrait of Ladufsia made late in her life, one notices the lines on her face. Although they don't reveal all of the trials and tribulations she had endured in the nineteenth century, they do reflect a degree of sadness. But, when one knows Ladufsia Pound Bullock's story, one can read integrity and strength in the sad countenance of this Middle GA pioneer settler. Hers is a chronicle of endurance and faith nurtured by her love of God, her family, and the red GA clay that gave her a bedrock foundation from which to withstand the storms of life. Because Irwin and Ladufsia Pound Bullock lived, future generations would prosper. It is out of gratitude that we now gather to express our appreciation for the rich heritage that has been bequeathed to us. Let us hasten to remember and preserve that heritage for generations to come.

CGGS member Hunt Sanders has been reading microfilm of the early court records of Norfolk Co., Va. for several months. He shares the following court case as not only an example of the challenge the language of the period presents to the researcher but also proof that maybe people haven't changed in the intervening years to the extent that our language has.

The Account Books of Berry Wells

Contributed by Linda Ward Meadows

Berry Wells was a large plantation owner and dealer of dry goods. His home was located in the southwest corner of present day Cook Co., Ga. The ledger books maintained by Mr. Wells record transactions with neighbors in Telfair, Brooks and Berrien Counties in the years 1832-1871. The entries as printed below are not in exact chronological order because of the method Mr. Wells used to record the entries. He turned the ledgers upside down and sideways to record debits, credits and court proceedings. Linda Ward Meadows has edited and published the account books as, Berry Wells, Esquire: Plantation Accounts, Deeds and Private Papers. The book is available for purchase from Ms. Meadows. However, she has generously shared a portion of the book for publication in this issue of the quarterly. Ms. Meadows retained Well's spelling and punctuation but annotated many entries.

A Genealogical Imponderable

By Georgette Lipford

As a researcher, I consider federal census records one of the most important resources available to genealogists. I turn to the census time and time again. Yet, occasionally what I find in the census will raise more questions than can be answered. For example, I recently found an enumeration of a collateral ancestor in Alabama that has me wondering what circumstances could have produced or resulted in the information that was recorded. In the 1880 census, six year old Alice Parr is enumerated with her parents, Zack and Mary Parr in Macon Co., Alabama at Warrior Stand. By 1900 she is living in neighboring Elmore Co., Alabama as a boarder with the family of Martha Jolly and working in a cotton mill (as her proposed aunts and uncles had done for more than 40 years). She is recorded as a single, white female, born in May of 1875. Place of birth for herself and her parents is listed as Alabama. Comprising Martha Jolly's household on that enumerator's visit are three sons and three daughters, Vashti, Sallie and Fannie. Enumerated on the same page is William Healey (Alice's probable uncle) and his children. Ten years later, in the 1910 census of Elmore Co., Alice Parr appears to be living in the same house. She is again enumerated with the Jolly family, now listed next door to William Healy. In the Jolly household are Vashti (or Vashitsi), Sallie, Fannie, Maud and boarder Alice Parr. With the exception of Maud, these women were all listed in the household in 1900. Information in the 1910 census is given for the Jolly siblings, including age, martial status (all single), birthplace of self and parents and occupation. Obviously, Alice Parr was not present when the enumerator visited. She is listed as a white, female boarding in the household, and working in a cotton mill. Yet, her martial status is "unknown", her birthplace is "unknown" and the birthplace of her parents is "unknown". Perhaps the unknown information is the result of an error by the enumerator. But this researcher was left to ponder the sadness of a situation in which Alice, who had apparently been boarding with the Jolly family for ten years, was so "unknown" to her housemates.

Seeking information on my great grandfather, Dr. John L. Griffin. He practiced medicine in Dublin, Ga. in 1858 and 1859 (and possibly additional years). John Griffin married Rachel Penelope Ellington in 1858. She was a resident of Laurens Co. in what is now the Marie area, about 5 miles north of Dublin. They were divorced in 1859. John Griffin left the area and possibly went to Macon. He served as a surgeon in the Confederate army and on at least one occasion received pay of $80.00 during the war (See receipt for pay of one month's wages on next page). John L. Griffin was in Greenville, MS after the war providing medical care to victims of a yellow fever epidemic. He had remarried and had 3 children from this second marriage. William Johnston was among the earliest settlers in what is now Bibb County, GA. He owned land in the fourth district of original Houston, now Bibb County, located in lots 230, 231, and 232. In addition, lot 3 in square 24 in the city of Macon belonged to him, as did lot 183 in the fifth district of original Houston, now Bibb County. He left this legacy of land to his wife and 16 children who survived him. He also provided for the widow and child of his deceased son, Joel Mac. Johnston's lengthy last will and testament also contains numerous bequests of slaves and personal property to his heirs.

In addition to Johnston's last will and testament, his pension claim (VA-S31780), filed in Bibb County, provides further background information about the man. During the American Revolution, he entered service as a regular soldier at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania on 9 January 1777, enlisting in a company commanded by Captain William Lewis. His term of enlistment was for one year with the First VA Regiment, commanded by Colonel Richard Parker. Brigade commander was General Mecklenberg. Johnston was engaged in the Battle of Monmouth, where he was under the immediate command of Prussian leader Baron von Steuben. Following his first enlistment, Johnston was discharged by Captain Payne. Another term of duty involved him in the Battle of Cowpens, under the command of Captain Archer. He later guarded prisoners during a three-month term in Salisbury, North Carolina.

Johnston's youngest son, Morgan Parker, noted his father's Revolutionary service in his Confederate records filed August 26, 1904. He recalled how his father had often spoken of his experiences in the Continental Army. Morgan remembered "distinctly hearing him tell of being at the Cowpens and at the surrender of Cornwallis, and that he also saw Mollie Pitcher." Morgan Parker further recalled his father's references to William's brother James, who was in a different command, and who when last seen by a comrade, was wounded and leaning against a tree.

According to his own pension application, William Johnston resided in many places during his long life. He moved from Amelia County, VA to Prince Edward County; from there to Henrico County, VA. Then he moved to North Carolina; from there to South Carolina, then back to Guilford County, North Carolina. He then moved to Salisbury, within the same state. In the early 1800's, he moved to the state of GA, wherein he resided in the counties of Columbia, Washington, Hancock, Baldwin, and Bibb.

William Johnston was allowed a pension of $50.00 per annum, issued 15 February 1836, as provided for in an Act of Congress dated 7 June 1832. When he applied for the pension in 1835, he claimed to be 81 years of age. He died in Bibb County, GA on 26 October 1838, and was buried in the Johnston Family Cemetery, now located on GA Highway 129, between Warner Robins and Macon. Morgan Parker's Confederate papers mentioned his father's death. William "had been remarkably active and vigorous to within 4 years of his death when he became a victim of rheumatism, which finally resulted in his death. His home at that time was ten miles from Macon, Georgia." He stated that his father's age at the time of his death was 86.

Millison Johnston died at the age of 70 at her residence in Bibb County on 2 January 1861. She was a member of Sardis Primitive Baptist Church at the time, and had been a Primitive Baptist for over 45 years.

MERRYMAN POUND (1760-1843)

Putnam County, Georgia Pioneer

By Linda Ward Meadows

Merryman Pound was born in Virginia about 1760, the son of Revolutionary soldier, Reuben Pound, who served with the GA Continental Line. Merryman's wife was Clarissa Ladufsia Herndon, daughter of George Herndon, and descendant of William and Catherine Digges Herndon of Virginia. Family members have no proof as to who Merryman's or Clarissa's mother was.

Hancock County, Georgia deeds prove that Merryman and Clarissa were married by 1797. They had the following known children, order of birth unknown:

1. Sarah	md. Pelathia Whitehurst 5/6/1813
2. Richard	b. ca 1797 d. Miss. md. Cynthia Harkness 6/30/1818 Putnam Co.
3. John Bohannon	b. 5/4/1799 d.4/25/1876 md. 1st Amelia Gay 12/30/1823 Jones Co. 2nd Mary Gay Harris (sister of Amelia, & widow of Ezekiel Harris)
4. Ladufsia	b. 4/4/1800 d. GA md. Irwin Bullock 8/29/1816 Putnam Co.
5. Merryman, Jr.
6. Frances "Franky"	md. Abner Champion
7. Caroline	md. John Butler 1822 Putnam Co.
8. Newman	b. 1808 d. GA md. Martha Clara Murphey
9. James Jackson	b. 1810 d. Texas md. Eppsy Ann Veazey 12/3/1833
10. Catherine	md. William L. Worrell 3/24/1825 Putnam Co.
11. Mary Ann	b.1821 md. Andrew Jackson Bridges 2/3/1839
12. Clarissa	b.18__ md. John Morgan

There are several references to the military involvement of this Putnam County, Georgia pioneer. His story is an interesting one relating how a native Virginian came to live in the southwest corner of a Georgia county, carving for himself and his family a home on the banks of Murder Creek. His Devil's Half Acre Plantation was on the edge of white settlement, and was probably viewed as an encroachment onto what had rightfully belonged to the Creek Indians.

Military records of Washington County, GA, dated 1779-1839, show that Private MERRIMAN POUNDS from Rabon's District had one horse and served in Captain Joseph Carson's Troops of militia as a cavalryman. He served two terms of duty at Rock Landing on the Oconee River while Colonel John McKenzie served as fort commandant. A sworn statement from John Mckenzie given 14 May 1833, stated that said military service was around 1793-1795. Due to old age, McKenzie was unable to recall the exact year. MERRY POUND gave a sworn oath to the same service on 10 August 1833.

His name is also listed among those filing claims with the State of Georgia for property losses resulting from actions taken by the Creek Indians in 1799. By that time, he had purchased land in Hancock and Greene counties. He participated in the 1805 GA land Lottery from Greene Co, and was a jury member in Greene County in 1806.

As an early Putnam County settler, Merryman continued land and slave transactions. By 1826, he owned 669 acres in Putnam, land for which he paid $3265. His large family prospered on the banks of Murder Creek.

Merryman's Last Will and Testament was made 3 August 1842, and was proven in open court 22 March 1843. The only child mentioned was Clary Morgan. His wife Clarissa had been deeded 202 1/2 acres, 3 slaves, and other properties on 5 March 1840 for "ten dollars as well as for the love and affection I have for my wife Clary." Merryman's heirs sold to John Bohannon Pound their father's estate properties on 9 March 1843. Said property was "640 acres more or less." Heirs were paid $1200 for this property.

On 7 April 1990, descendants and Putnam County residents gathered to dedicate a government marker placed to honor Merryman Pound for his service during Georgia's Indian wars. Since that time, descendants have also learned that Merryman Pound was a War of 1812 veteran. Merryman and his wife, "Clary" Herndon Pound, are buried in the Pound Family Cemetery just off Highway 212 in southwest Putnam County.

Pound and other Pound descendants.

In the Civil War, Reese served in the 32nd Regiment of the Georgia Infantry. After the war, Reese moved to Twiggs Co. to be near his older sister, Nancy Barclay. In 1887 he married Hennie Land, the daughter of Henry and Rebecca Land. Hennie died in 1899 and Reese raised their 3 sons (Reese L., Sparks and Lendon) alone. Reese was a farmer and for a time served as the postmaster in Bullard. Reese died in 1914 and is buried at Beech Spring Methodist Church. This photo is ca. 1907. (Contributed by Georgette Lipford)

WEBB - SEAGLER

Seeking information on James E. Webb who appeared in the 1860 census as a resident of Hickory Grove District of Crawford County GA. James appears in the muster roll of the CSA in Crawford County, enlisting as a private on May 28, 1862. James died in VA on May 28, 1862, leaving behind his young wife who was pregnant. Their son (my grandfather) James E. Webb, Jr. was born Nov 1862 in Crawford Co. James' widow married a Seagler and her descendants (among them Wade H. Seagler) were still living in Crawford County in the 1970s. I am seeking information prior to the 1860 census.

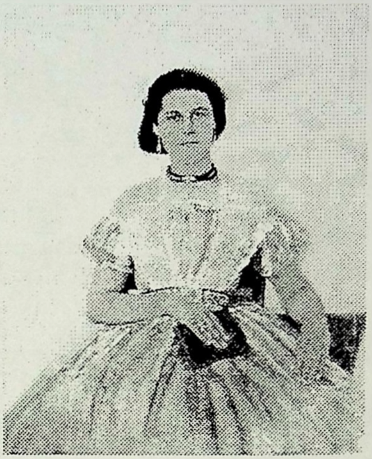
Can anyone identify this young lady???



This computer restored image of a daguerreotype print is from the estate of Georgia Hamlin Swanson, 1894-1981, Bibb Co. Ga.

Georgia Swanson's grandmother, Georgian Pratt, born 11 Sep. 1841 in Alabama, was the daughter of John Pratt and Catherine Blackstone. She married Jesse Whipple Callaway 1861 in Crawford Co. Ga. and died in Bibb Co. Ga. 20 Feb. 1890.

The daguerreotype photographic process was used between the years 1839-1870, which places her in this time frame. Could this possibly be Georgian Pratt?

Nathaniel remarried in 1856 to Cynthia Littleton. Believe B. F. Maples is NOT an only child. Debra is seeking additional details to prove this theory. GRAY- O'GLOVER – FREDERICK - GLOVER

I am up against a brick wall with two women in my family. The first, Emma Jane Gray, married Nathan O' Glover in Taylor county Feb. 1879. She had siblings named Davis Young, Mattie Young (believed to have married a Wolf) Cassie Young.

My other brick wall is Eleander (Penolepe) Frederick. Eleander married Thomas W. Glover in Warren county Georgia. They moved to Crawford county, then Stewart County and finally to Barbour County, Alabama where they remained until they died. I have not been able to find out a thing about Eleander other than she was a member of Mt. Paran Primitive Baptist Church. If anyone has any information on these ladies, I would greatly appreciate the help.

Randall and Emma met at the orphanage, married and made their home in Hawkinsville, Sylvania and Augusta. In their later years, they owned a community grocery named Mock's Grocery on Eve Street in Augusta, GA. Their children were Cleon E., Lillian, Arthur, and Clark, all born between 1900 and 1912. Editor's Note

As most of you are aware, genealogical research is a great deal "easier" today than 10, 20 or even 5 years ago. The census records, county records and Bible records needed to compile family history are much more accessible in 2005 than when most of us began to research. Often the available microfilm, journals, magazines and books are a little overwhelming, especially if one is researching at the Genealogy Room in Macon. I began "digging" on my Lipford lines in 1976. At the time, the Washington Memorial Library's Genealogy Room was indeed just a room. The book collection was a fraction of what is available there today. It has become one of the best genealogical libraries in the south. I am proud that CGGS has played a small part in the growth of the Genealogy Room and its rich collection of southern source material. In our role as "Friend", CGGS has supported the Genealogy Room with gifts that have included microfilm reader/printer, copier, newspapers on microfilm, book donations and annual monetary donations. The CGGS Board of Directors wanted to share a letter we recently received from library staff with our members. It appears on the following page.

Several CGGS members have made contributions or shared their research in this issue. Joyce Green has provided another installment of Bibb Co. wills. Helen Hudson has made available the late Bill Henry's work on Crawford Co. as well as a Bible record of the Peavy family. Two CGGS members, Glenn and Margaret Heck, have continued the work on Cedar Grove Cemetery in Laurens Co., Ga. begun by members M.L. Clark and the late John Daniel several years ago. This cemetery survey is complete in this issue. Hunt Sanders shares his research on the Janes family of Georgia beginning in this issue.

The sharing of information such as CGGS members have done here is perhaps the greatest joy of genealogy. The discovery of a new source or data can be magical, but is only half the joy. Sharing your prize is the other half. I hope you enjoy this issue of the quarterly.

Georgette Lipford

Message From CGGS President

I am excited at the opportunity to serve as President of CGGS again this year. The Board members and I are working on programs and a possible workshop for 2005. We want to encourage local members to volunteer with CGGS in some capacity this year and attend our monthly meetings to polish your research skills and network with other researchers. If you live outside the central Georgia area, or even outside Georgia, we'd like to invite you to Warner Robins and one of our regular Thursday night meetings, then stay over to research at the Genealogy Room of the Washington Memorial Library the next day, or two or three.

Thanks to all of you for your support and hard work in 2004 and good luck with your research in 2005!

Marsha Meyer

Ms. Marsha Meyer, President
Central Georgia Genealogical Society
Post Office Box 2024
Warner Robins, Georgia 31099-2024

Dear Ms. Meyer:

Again, we wish to thank Central Georgia Genealogical Society for your generosity. We are pleased to report the purchased microfilm records have been processed and are now ready for use. These records include:

Crawford County Deeds and Mortgages, Books F-3 (1853-1902)
Houston County Deeds, 1840-1901
Pike County Deeds and Mortgages, 1849-1903
Telfair County Deeds and Mortgages, 1875-1903

These records—fifty reels of microfilm—are a tremendous asset, the value of which far exceeds the fifteen-hundred-dollar cost generously funded by CGGS. Through the continuing support of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society, we are able to make these records available to our researchers. We very much appreciate this support and your interest in our library. With best wishes and many thanks, I am,

Very truly yours,

Survey conducted by
John Clayton Daniel and M. L. Clark, Jr.
July 1997
Transcribed by Alethea Clark Tillery

The survey was conducted in July, 1997 by John Clayton Daniel and M. L. Clark, Jr. As you readily know, the plots are not aligned in exact rows. We endeavored to record them as well as we could in rows.

Beginning in the southwest corner (nearest the church) the rows run alphabetically from "A" through "Z" and continuing with "AA", "BB" etc. unto the end

We tried to be as accurate as possible but there will probably be some errors which we hope family members will help us correct. Also you will note that there are many unmarked graves. These especially need to be identified. Please assist us in this by placing a marker or giving the information (in writing) to the pastor or other appropriate church member.

We hope this index will be helpful to families researching their relatives and will be a continuing record of those buried in these hallowed grounds.

Survey updated September 2004 by Glenn and Margaret Heck

The format of this updated survey has been condensed iin size to accomodate the requirements for printing in the CGGS Quarterly. Many additional burials had been added since the 1997 survey. The same numbering sequence was continued. When a new name was added, such as at the beginning of ROW C, the two new additions preceding C-1 were numbered 1a and 1b. This CGGS Quarterly printing of these 832 sites will provide a wider distribution of this research.

Historical Sketch

by Glenn and Margaret Stephens Heck

We owe much gratitude to M. L. Clark, Jr. and the late John Clayton Daniel for the 1997 survey of the Cedar Grove United Methodist Church and Cemetery. They spent many hours on this hallowed ground carefully recording names, dates of birth , and passing of so many of our ancestors who are at rest in this sacred soil. Those of us who are descendants of those buried in Cedar Grove Cemetery cherish our connections with and memories of these precious souls.

The Cedar Grove community is located in southwest Laurens County at the crossing of U.S. 441 and Georgia Highway 46, about 25 miles south from Dublin, Georgia.

In "History of Laurens County Vol I 1807-1941" by Bertha Shepard Hart, she wrote, "Midway between the Scotland and Telfair roads in Burch's District, is the little community of Cedar Grove, consisting of a few homes, two stores, and three school buildings grouped around a little white church.

"One looks for a cedar bordered avenue but not a cedar is to be seen. 'Twas thus the name originated: Some half century ago a wealthy church-loving man, Cornelius Clark, wanted a church built in his community. He chose a spot where cedar trees were growing in a graveyard and decided that the church should be built here and named Cedar Grove. But his choice met with opposition from neighbors who wanted it nearer the center of the community. B. L. and Lamar Lowery offered to build the church if placed on the present site. Mr. Clark consented to their choice of location, but insisted that the church carry the name he had chosen, Cedar Grove. This building was burned; a log church was built and it was burned. Later, Osford's Mill sawed the lumber and David and Warren Pope built the house now in use."

The church was organized by Cornelius Morgan Clark, Sam Harrelson, B. L. Lowery and Mrs. Mary Pharis. It was dedicated on May 4, 1886.

Driving east on Hwy 46 from its intersection with U.S. 441, turn right on Hwy 126, the road to Alamo. After a short distance, Sudie Pearle Jones Road crosses Hwy 126. Turn left. The church is on the right and the cemetery is across the street.

Through the years the church has been renovated and upgraded. In the late 50s and early 60s the church began to grow. Four Sunday School rooms and two restrooms were added and the ceiling was lowered. Gas heat and new windows were added. In the late 60s a social hall was added to the outside of the church.

M. L. Clark, Jr. and John Clayton Daniel are descendents of Cornelius Morgan Clark, one of the church's founding fathers. In the 1997 Homecoming booklet, M. L. remembers, "My earliest memories of Cedar Grove United Methodist Church was attending Sunday School and going to Mr. Gay's Singing School during summer vacations. I still remember the interior of the building with its high ceiling and the row of posts down the center aisle. Wires were strung up with sheets on them to section off the Sunday School classes. The altar and pulpit were of a simple but beautiful design and I can imagine the painstaking care that went into its building.

"Another memory I have is the Sunday sings that were held there and at other churches in the county. There was always a large crowd on these occasions and dinner on the grounds was a special treat. My grandfather was an avid singer and loved the old hymns and gospel music."

The Cedar Grove Cemetery has been well maintained over the years and each year it becomes the final resting place for many of the descendents of the early church members.

Carl Clifford Peavy & Gessie Valma Porter Bible

In the possession of Helen S. Hudson [redacted]

At a used book sale this Bible was pointed out to me and since it pertained to a family in the Central Georgia area, I purchased it hoping to find its family.

I did not find a copyright date but on the page titled Explanatory Note New York City 1913 is noted. Since the couple married December 20, 1920 according to the recorded information, it may have been a gift to the bride or part of her trousseau. If this is part of your family, please contact me. The inside pages are in perfect shape but the outside cover edges are broken.

The family information pages contains places for the marriage, births, other marriages, deaths and military services. There are only notations in the original marriage page, births and death pages.

This certifies that Carl Clifford Peavy and Gessie Velma Porter were united in Holy Matrimony on the 12 day of December in the year of our Lord 1920 at Lilly Georgia by Minister Not Listed

Deaths
Carl Clifford Peavy Died Dec. 6, 1954
Lena Gwendolyn Peavy Died February 11th 1924

According to the Georgia Death Index, Carl C Peavy who died 06 Dec 1954 at the age of 54 years, in Irwin County, Georgia while living in Irwin County, Georgia.

Carl's World War I Draft Registration Cards, 1917-1918, listed him as being a farmer and working for E. J. Peavy and lists his father as next of kin. The 1900 Federal Census for Dooly County, Georgia lists his parents as Eula and James Peavy. He has 4 siblings, Minnie Lou, Della May, Florence, James the baby and an aunt Della living with the family at this time. It also gives Carl's birth date as May 1891.

Gessie married Archie W. Weaver after Carl's death. She died 14 Nov 1970 at the age of 68 years in Irwin County, Georgia while living in Irwin County, Georgia. According to information that I found she was the daughter of James Uriah Porter and Annie Eliza Murray, Dooly County, Georgia.

Editor's Note: This article presents information on the William Janes family of Virginia and Georgia. CGGS member, Hunt Sanders descends from William's second son, Absalom. The estate records of Absalom follow this article. Information on Absalom's descendants will appear in the next issue of the quarterly. Hunt has found that the surname "Janes" is sometimes confused with and misrecorded as "Jones".

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, and digitizing books and Georgia county records. The society also makes an annual gift to the Genealogical and Historical Room at Washington Memorial Library in Macon, Ga. In recent years our gifts have included a Minolta RP606z Microfilm reader/printer and monetary gifts for the purchase of Georgia newspapers on microfilm.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way of accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. C.G.G.S. QUARTERLY SURNAME INDEX VOL. 26, FOR THE YEAR 2004

Compiled by Helen Shirah Hudson

Note: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 through No. 4 for the year 2004. Pages 1-56 are in No. 1, Pages 57-108 are in No. 2, Pages 109-160 are in No. 3 and Pages 161-232 are in No. 4. A dash between page numbers means that the name also appears on each page between such numbers. For example, 5-10 means that the name appears on pages 5,6,7, 8,9, and 10. Check very carefully for a name may appear more than one time per designated page. Surnames are spelled in many forms. Look for all imaginable spellings. Shirah appears as Shirey and Shira. Hammock/Hammack is the same family. There are times when the same document will have a surname spelled two different ways. A surname may be spelled the way the recorder heard it and be very different from the spelling that your family uses today. Also, the Crawford County records were abstracted by Mr. Henry. I have not checked spelling for the surnames that appear in these records. I suggest that you run down the complete index listing and see if any strange spellings show up for your surname.

BIBB COUNTY WILLS
BOOK B 1851-1871
Transcribed By Joyce green

Last Will and Testament of JAMES J. SNIDER
Bibb Co. Ga. 15 Jan 1869 1 Mar 1869
Pages 379-382

I James J. Snider of Macon, Ga., merchant, in feeble health but sound of mind make this my last will and testament.
I direct my just debts paid. I request my Executrix look well before paying anything, as I know of no debt except one note for which provisions have been made.
My house and lot where I reside with my wife and children in which John E, Jones is named trustee, I will and bequeath, as far as I have power, to my wife Eliza R. Snider as a home for my family. At her death, to be sold and proceeds equally divided between my children. If my dear wife should think best to dispose of this property, I am willing to leave it up to her good judgment.
I wish it distinctly understood, my wife has a life estate in this property, should circumstances render it best to be sold, proceeds to be invested in a house and comforts as before.
I give and bequeath balance of my estate, real and personal of every kind to my wife Eliza Snider, my 6 daughters and any child that may be born to me to be equally divided. As each child arrives at age or marries, my Executrix to give each child such portion of their share as she may think proper looking to the interest of the family and the minor children. My reason for giving so much power to my wife as Executrix is that the children are as near and dear to her as to me.
If my wife should marry, all my property, except that held by John E. Jones as Trustee, to be equally divided between my wife and children. If any child should die, leaving a child or children, such child to receive parents share.
I do not object to my wife marrying again, but I do not wish her husband to manage the property of my children. I wish my Executrix to appoint a fit and proper person to act as Trustee for each child as she receives her share of estate.
I desire the amount from several insurance policies I have on my life be invested in Railroad Bonds or other securities. I desire my building, now under lease to J.W. Burke and Co. until the first of Oct. 1870, situated on Second St. to remain a part of my estate and also $10,000.00 in Georgia State 6% Bonds, $10,000.00 in Macon City 7% Bonds, and $100.00 in Railroad Bonds. If circumstances shall render it necessary or expedient, I give my wife power to sell store, lot and change investments but I prefer they remain the same unless some urgent reason should exist for a change.
I appoint my dear wife Eliza R. Snider my sole Executrix. I wish no appraisement or inventory made of my furniture in my house as I dislike the privacy of my family interfered with. I have every confidence in the integrity and judgment of my wife.

We the Grand Jurors chosen and sworn for...present Term have reasons to congratulate our fellow citizens generally on the happy and peaceful state of the morals of our county not having to notice a single infraction of the peace and good order of society and nothing of a criminal character coming under our observation...we exceeding regret to witness the appearance of increased litigation on the civil side of the court which we think is mainly to be ascribed to the almost total failure of the cotton crop of the country and hence the Inability of the debtor to meet his contracts. We sympathize fully in the misfortunes and the ...embarrassment of our fellow citizens... and recommend a compassionate forbearance on the part of creditors to their debtors...

We recommend to our next Legislature the propriety of passing a law authorizing the chartered Banks of this State to issued Bills of less denomination than $5 which we think would be a source of much convenience and might prevent the great imposition of shinplasters (?) and bills of irresponsible Individuals which the country has been literally flooded with from necessity or want of better currency...

On examination of the books of the Clerk of the Inferior Court and those of the County Treasurer we find them correctly kept and after allowing the County Treasurer a credit of $65 for commissions we find in their hands $158 in favor of the county in cash and cash effects....We respectfully recommend to the proper authority a more vigilant enforcement of the patrol laws... We present THOMAS B. STOKES of this county for leading an idle profligate life, witnesses GREEN P. HARPE and THOMSS G. SMITH.. The Joel Cherry Family: An Annotated Record

About 1927 a member of the Cherry family recorded family information on letterhead stationary of the State Mutual Life Assurance Co. John M. Cherry was an agent for the company and his name appears as such on the stationary, however he may not have authored the family record. Since the record relates information on family members from the 1700's it is of great interest to the many descendants of these families. John M. Cherry III, of [redacted]., has corresponded with Cherry researchers across the United States and provides here an annotated version of the family record. Mr. Cherry attempts to clarify some of the entries and provide additional information of some family members named in the record. The original transcription of the family record is reproduced here exactly as it appeared in the typed version made about 1927. Mr. Cherry's annotations are in italics and follow the transcribed record.

Corrections and Additions to the Typed Record
By John M. Cherry III

John M. Cherry (1881-1946) was my grandfather. It appears that this letter was typed on his letterhead stationary sometime around 1927. It is not known exactly when he was an agent for this company, but on one of the copies of this letter, the information contained therein was handwritten by my father on the reverse, probably when he was in his late teens (he was born in 1910).

A daughter or son of Mary (Polly) Cherry was the apparent author of the typed record as notes following several of the names of the twelve children would indicate.

As this family record shows, John Allen was born July 14th, 1752. This agrees with his military pension application completed in 1832 when the Government granted Revolutionary War veterans a pension. The DAR indicates in their Report of Daughters of American Revolution that John Allen was born July 14, 1757. He lived in Chester District, Chester SC and was a Captain in the Virginia Militia. (DAR 59th Annual Report 4-1-1955 to 4-1-195.)

In the The Pension Roll of 1835, indexed edition, Vol. III, the Southern States, John Allen was listed as "Pri & Ens" and received an annual allowance of $40.00. According to this source, sums were granted to him totaling $120.00. A description of his service was given as: " North Carolina, placed on pension roll April 8, 1834". His pension commenced March 4, 1831. His age is shown as 82. John Allen was born in Culpepper County, Virginia. His Revolutionary War service was in the North Carolina Militia. His residence was Warren County, NC. The family apparently moved there in the 1760's.

The name given for John Allen's wife, Myrick Middleton Wilson, has caused some confusion. However, it is now believed by family researchers that her maiden name was actually Middleton Myrick. She was the daughter of William Myrick and Sarah Myrick and was probably born about 1763, which is the date purported to be the marriage date of her parents. I have not been able to locate a marriage record for this couple. He was from Brunswick County, Virginia and was a major landowner in Warren County, North Carolina. It is believed that Middleton was the maiden name of her grandmother, Rebecca Middleton, who married Francis Myrick II. William was one of their children. He also had a sister named Middleton who married John Fletcher. Their daughter was Middleton Fletcher. She would have been a cousin of Middleton Myrick.

Was she actually a Wilson? I have found no record that Middleton Myrick was ever married to a man named Wilson. Her first marriage was to John Christmas of Warren County. She had four children by John Christmas before his untimely death in 1781. Those children were Richard, Thomas, Sarah & Rebecca Christmas. Richard apparently died as a child. After she and John Allen married, he became guardian of her three surviving children. It is unknown what happened to Sarah and Rebecca. Thomas Christmas died in 1799 in Warren County. At that time, John and Middleton apparently moved to Chester, South Carolina. John Allen purchased 100 acres from Richard Allen in January, 1799 per Deed Book F, page 279.

Nancy Allen, described as "their oldest child" in the family record, was born July 5, 1783. Nancy is believed to actually have been the second child of this marriage. Her older brother, Myrick Allen was born in 1782 in Warren County. NC. Four other children were born to them: Mark Allen, Hugh Allen, Margaret Allen and George Allen. Myrick Allen married Sarah Porter and apparently moved to Tennessee. The four younger siblings moved to Chester County with the family. It is not believed that Nancy accompanied them, but rather remained behind with Myrick to tend to the family farm in Warren County. This area is known for tobacco and cotton, both of which were desirable in England and of course, the other states. It would seem natural that Nancy somehow ended up in Norfolk at least once a year taking goods to port. It is speculation on my part that this is probably how Nancy Allen met Joel Cherry. When they married she was 19 and he was 34.

Although it appears that this letter was typed sometime in the 1920's, it probably was copied from an earlier version. Of course, it is possible that the persons indicated as "living children" may well have been in their 60's or 70's at the time. My grandfather, John M. Cherry, was born in 1881. He lived his early years in Macon, Georgia. He went to the University of Maryland Pharmacy School and was in Baltimore in 1906. My father was born in Baltimore in 1910. I do not know when this family moved to Washington, DC.

Other Cherry family researchers have shared with me that the John M. Cherry listed in this family record died December 11, 1852 in Enville, Henderson County, Tennessee. His son Francis Marion Cherry was born June 24, 1836 in Enville. Francis has descendants today living in Colorado.

Other children born to John M. and Elizabeth Cherry were James L, born ca. 1825 and Joseph W. born ca. 1830, both in North Carolina. Children born to this couple while living in Tennessee include Thomas, born ca. 1833, Marcus Lafayette born August 5, 1834 and Nancy born ca. 1838. Elizabeth Eliot Cherry died in 1838. John then married Elizabeth Wingate and three more children were born: Jane ca. 1841, Mary ca. 1844 and John M. ca. 1848.

Mary (Polly) Cherry, who had married Adam Rushing Howell in 1826 according to the above typed record, died February 2, 1885.

The correct name of Joel Thomas Cherry's wife was Susan Council McCallum. She is believed to have been the daughter of Angus McCallum who moved to Bibb Co. Georgia from Roberson Co., North Carolina. Angus McCallum died in Bibb Co., Georgia in 1841. Joel Thomas and Susan Cherry are buried at Liberty Methodist Church Cemetery in Macon, Georgia. They have many descendants living in the central Georgia area today through their six children: Catherine Ann (b. 29 April 1840), Jane Elizabeth (b. 27 September 1842), Mary Eliza (b. 4 December 1845), John Myrick (b. 7 November 1848), Susan Margaret (b. 10 December 1851) and William Archibald (b. 2 February 1855). John Myrick Cherry was my great grandfather. Other members of the family are also buried in the Liberty Methodist Church Cemetery directly behind the church in an enclosed ground. It is believed that Joel Thomas Cherry was a founding member of this church. His home, built ca. 1851, is about one mile down the road from the church and owned today by his great-great grandson.

An interesting note: My grandfather (also J. M. Cherry) was born on October 30, 1881. His father died on October 31, 1881 at the age of 31.

After the death of his wife, Elizabeth Middleton Cherry (or Betsy as she is referred to in the above record), John Wherry married his wife's niece, Nancy Martha Howell. Betsy may have died after the birth of her second child as she is not listed in the 1850 Census. The Noxubee County, Mississippi Census for 1850 shows:

John A. Wherry	48	m	$2500 Real Estate	Born SC
Martha	21	f		Born NC
Samuel	5	m		Born MS
Mary JP	4	f		Born MS

John and Martha Wherry had at least one son, Joel Anderson Wherry born December 18, 1863.

Hilliard and Martha Cherry are buried in Rose Hill Cemetery in Macon. Ga. Hilliard was born in Chester County, SC. He died in Macon, Ga. January 27, 1891. Martha Wright Cherry died March 23, 1878. They had several children. He appears in several Macon city directories of the time and his occupation was listed as "drayman". It is believed that the Medical Center of Central Georgia in Macon, Ga. sits on the site of his former home.

After the death of Joel Cherry, Nancy Cherry lived with her daughter and son-in-law. The family was enumerated together in the 1850 Census for Union County, North Carolina (page 14, household #189) and it appears that Harriett and her husband, Thomas L Kirk moved in with Nancy.

Nancy Cherry	60	f	$1000 Real Estate	Born: Warren Co., NC
Thomas L. Kirk	26	m	farmer	Born: Manly Co., NC
Harriet	25	f		Born: Union Co., NC

Their marriage was listed in the Union County Book of Marriages 1843-1899 although Harriet's name is misspelled: "Thomas L Kirk m. Harriett N. Chaney on November 20, 1849". J. G. Draffin served as a bondsman for their marriage.

Both Joel and Nancy Cherry are buried in the Six Mile Creek Burying Ground located in Lancaster County, South Carolina. In 1842 Union County was formed from Mecklenburg and Anson Counties. It borders that part of Lancaster County where the cemetery is. Their homestead was probably not much further than walking distance.

Joel's tombstone reads: " In Memory of Joel Cherry, died Jan. 10th, 1848, in the 79th year of his age, AN HONEST MAN". Nancy's tombstone reads: "In memory of Mrs. Nancy Cherry, died June 24th, 1859, 75 years, 11 mo., 20 days. There is a world above, where parting is unknown, a long eternity of love, form'd for the good alone, and faith behold the dying here, translated that glorious sphere".

Several Cherry researchers have stated that it was Adam Rushing Howell who wrote the information concerning Middleton Myrick and her marriage to "Wilson". Howell was a Methodist Preacher and wrote a biographical note and placed it in his Bible. He and John A. Wherry moved to Holmes County, Mississippi together. John Wherry was his brother-in-law and became his son-in-law.

I have found no proof that John Allen ever married anyone other than Middleton. She was alive in 1823 when she signed a document in the Chester County, SC courthouse. John Allen died in 1838 and his will makes no mention of another spouse, naming only children and grandchildren including a namesake whom he specifically excluded. John Allen's brother James married Nancy Myrick, a sister to Middleton.

CHERRY – DOZIER – NIPPER

Seeking information on Frances/Fannie Dozier who married John M. Cherry. This couple lived at one time in Bibb Co., Georgia. Their son, John M. Cherry is my grandfather. The elder John Cherry died in 1881 one day after the birth of his son. Fannie remarried in 1885 to Jacob D. Nipper. Jacob already had children, Taylor, Frank and Emma. Two children were born to Fannie and Jacob Nipper, William and Annette. Fannie died in Sept. 1891. Jacob remarried in 1892 to a possible relative of Fannie's, Nettie L. Dozier in Fulton Co., Ga. This family was still in Fulton Co. in 1900 although my grandfather, John M. Cherry is not listed with them. I have tracked my grandfather's half siblings, William Nipper to Boston in 1946 and Annette Nipper Alexander to Atlanta in 1946. I have very little information on my great grandmother, Fannie. I would like to hear from any descendants of these families with information on either John M. Cherry or Fannie Dozier Cherry Nipper.

Fortitude and Forbearance

The North Carolina Continental Line in the Revolutionary War
By
Lawrence E. Babits
And
Joshua B. Howard

This book contains a history of the Regiments of the Continental Army from North Carolina. In those histories, lists of officers and their dates of service are also included. It also has lists of other units with Officers from North Carolina serving in them. In part two, the various engagements, casualties and prisoners (officers) are discussed in chronological order. Part three discusses the officers and their histories including foreign born and those who served in other states' regiments. This section also discusses the way regiments were formed, how they were paid, and those who had served in the French and Indian War and the War of the Regulation.

This book relies heavily on information obtained from the North Carolina Society of the Cincinnati, which consists of descendants of the North Carolina officers of the Continental Lines plus the French that served there. For those who have North Carolina ancestors that were not officers, the information in this book could help in your research of that ancestor and the battles fought by his unit.

I Samuel B. Hunter being of advanced age and in feeble health but of sound mind and disposing memory, make this my last will and testament.
I wish debts paid as soon as practicable. Should it be necessary to sell any of my estate other than the annual production of the farm for this purpose, I direct the half square of lot #198 in the 13th district of original Monroe, now Bibb Co. and better known as my Fork Field Place, be first sold, and proceeds applied to this purpose. Should this prove insufficient, I direct lot #199 in same place known as my Thorpe place be sold.

Also household and kitchen furniture along with personal property of every kind for their sole and separate use.
Should Executor pay off debts without selling land, then I give said land to my daughters.

Four Generations of the Braswell Family

A Braswell Family Memoir

Written by Welca DeWeir Braswell, Sr.

This paper was contributed by Rob Vollten of [redacted]. Rob is a descendant of Ophelia and James E. Braswell. CGGS member Karla K. Wigley of Dallas, Texas, who is a descendant of James E. Braswell's brother, George Washington Braswell, and his wife, Mary Elizabeth Week, transcribed the memoir and provided the footnotes. Rob may be contacted at [redacted]. Karla may be contacted at [redacted].

July 1, 1986

I, Welca DeWeir Braswell, Sr., being the last direct living descendant of James E. and Ophelia Braswell [1] and having learned that some of their grandchildren and great grandchildren have expressed interest in their ancestors, I am going to attempt to reveal what information I can on this subject.

My grandfather, Abner Cisero Braswell, [2] told me and others of my immediate family a story of 'his father and his father's brother' landing in Savannah, Ga., on their arrival from Scotland.[3] He states that the two of them began traveling west from Savannah. His story was that this father's brother was convicted of 'horse stealing' and driven out of the state. He jokingly stated that all Braswells in North or South Carolina were descendants of a 'horse thief'.

I remember visiting my grandfather in Macon, Georgia. After my family moved from the old home place near Haddock, Ga. to Washington, D.C. my grandfather spent much of his time with us at our family home at 5514 Sherrier Place, N.W. He would return to Macon from time to time until he became too feeble to travel.

My mother's mother[4] lived with us at the old home near Haddock, Ga. and came with us when we moved to Washington in Oct. 1921. She passed away in February, 1922 at 5523 Sherrier Place. We lived at this house eleven months, then we purchased the house at 5514 Sherrier Place and lived there until my mother passed away.

I was executor of the estate and sold the house for $10,000 in 1951. It was recently on the market listed for $145,000.

The old farm home place near Haddock, Ga. belonged to my grandmother (my mother's mother). Its deed listed it as being between 85 and 100 acres. It had a branch about 5 feet wide crossing it. It also had a continuous flowing spring which always provided a plentiful supply of clear, cold water. We carried water by buckets from this spring for washing, cooking, and for drinking and for bathing. The grade school which all of us attended was located directly across the road from our house also used the spring for water. In 1984 I visited the old farm and found that our house and the school house had been torn down.

The old farm now has five residences on it and they all get their water supply by electric pumps from the spring referred to above. On this trip I tried to locate the grounds where the "Union Hill Methodist Church" used to be. There is one of my brothers, who died as a baby buried in the old church graveyard.[5] This is the church where my sister Emma Lois and I first joined "the church", in about 1918.

While farming the old farm our main money crop was cotton. We grew corn for feed for all the livestock. Also had some ground into corn meal and grits for our own use. We cured pork, bacon, ham and ect., for our own use. Most of the time we had a supply of milk and butter from our cows. Mama and grandma always canned enough vegetables (corn, beans, peas, beets, and ect.) to last us all year. We canned wild blackberries and made jam and jelly. We had a good supply of eggs and fried chicken whenever we wanted it. Mama sliced apples and peaches and dried them in the sun for later use in making pies.

So we did not need much money to live very comfortably, however, in 1919 the bowl weavel invaded that part of the country and completely wiped out our cotton crops, which as I stated previously was our only money supply.

My sisters Mattie and Ethel and brother George came to Washington to work during World War I. So after our money supply on the farm was gone they persuaded us to sell out and come to Washington, which we did in October, 1921.

Attached here-to is a copy of the page from the Family Bible which lists the births, and death dates of all of James and Ophelia Braswell's children.

My father was an ordained Methodist minister, although he never preached regularly at any church. He substituted for ministers at many churches during their absence. When we moved to Washington there was no church near the Sherrier Place home. Dad and I would walk from home across Chain Bridge and up Globe Road in Arlington County, Virginia to the Walker's Chapel Methodist Church. This was a distance of about three miles. Several neighbors and my Dad organized a Sunday School and used a vacant store on Conduit Road, (now MacArthur Blvd.) as a place to have the school.

Realizing the need for a place to worship and there not being enough of any one denomination to organize and support a church they organized a "Community Church" which was non-denominational. This was a great success and in the near future a beautiful church was constructed at 5200 Cathedral Ave. just a block from the "Sunday School" on Conduit Road. This is still a very successful church.

Getting back to the life of my grandfather: he enlisted in the Confederate Army at the beginning of the Civil War, or "The War Between the States", as it was called at that time. He enlisted in Company A, 20th Regiment Georgia Infantry. They fought in the First Battle of Manassas and advanced on to Gettysburg, Pa., crossing the Potomac River just above where Chain Bridge now crosses. He was captured at Gettysburg and held with other prisoners in a place known as 'Devil's Den". It was a "V" shaped area between two rocks about twenty feet high. Only a couple of guards were needed to keep the prisoners in this 'den'. We took grandfather to Gettysburg and he immediately recognized the "Devil's Den and remarked, "That's where them damn Yankees held me prisoner".

The prisoners in 'Devil's Den' were made a proposition by the Union Army officials. If they would go with the Union Army to help put down an Indian uprising in the midwest, they would be given a horse and a 'pack' and set free. Grandfather signed up but under the name of "Jim Railey" as he did not want it known that a "Braswell" was fighting on the Yankees' side.

In later years all of these "Confederate" soldiers that signed up for this mission were entitled to a pension the same as regular Union Army soldiers. We established the fact that a "Jim Railey" was among this group, but could not prove that Abner Braswell was really Jim Railey. One evening during Herbert Hoover's campaign for the presidency on the radio they presented a Union Civil War veteran to say why he was voting for Hoover. Grandfather exclaimed, "By God that was my mess sergeant when I was out there fighting the Indians". We had the Veterans Administration contact this man and he gave them a sworn affidavit that he knew the "Jim Railey" was in reality "Abner Braswell".[6]

The pension was approved and grandfather received it the rest of his life. Also after he became "house-bound", my mother received $30.00 per month for caring for him. He died at the Sherrier Place home. I cannot remember the date but I believe it was late twenties or early thirties.

Notes:

[1] Welca DeWeir Braswell was born 15 September 1907 and died 24 September 1992 in Washington, D.C. He is buried at Cedar Hill Cemetery. His parents were James Edward Braswell and Ophelia Bales. Welca's siblings include: Mattie Braswell Shinholser, Maud Braswell Lawson, Willie, Ethel, George Caradine, L. Charlott "Lottie" Braswell Nutter, James Abner, Emma Lois Braswell Hymers, and Ruth.

[2] Abner Cicero Braswell was born 6 January 1843 in Bibb County, GA, the son of Jacob Green Braswell and his wife Mary Raley. His first wife was Josephine Ward, whom he married on 20 December 1865. Abner Cicero Braswell and Josephine were the parents of James Edward, Mary, Leander “Lee,” George Washington “G.W.,” Emma, Amanda, and Abner Tolbert Braswell. Abner C. Braswell married his second wife, Missouri Virginia “Genie” Giles, on 7 June 1894. They had three children: Vidella, Corinne “Cora,” and Clarence. Abner C. Braswell died 17 September 1935 at the home of his son, James E., in Washington, D.C. His remains were transported by train to Macon, GA and he is buried at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church Cemetery in Bibb County, GA. An account of his death was recorded in The Macon Telegraph on Thursday, 19 September 1935 and on Friday, 20 September 1935.

[3] This may prove to be inaccurate. All census records for Jacob Green Braswell note that he was born in North Carolina. To date, no definite proof of this statement has been secured.

[4] Martha Ann Priscilla Miller married her first husband Fort Early Bales 23 May 1869. In addition to their daughter Ophelia, they had a son named Charles. She is buried at the Byington Family Cemetery in Wilkinson County, GA.

[5] Willie Braswell is buried at the Byington Family Cemetery in Wilkinson County, GA. His headstone reads “Braswell Infant.” James Abner Braswell is buried at Union Hill Methodist Churchyard in Baldwin County, GA. His headstone reads “Willie Braswell Apr 30, 1906 – Jul 31, 1906. An obituary for James Abner Braswell ran in the 1 August 1906 edition of the Macon Telegraph & News.

[6] Abner C. Braswell’s pension application number 1718692, certificate number A-12-8-32 was filed on 23 May 1932. He served in Company A 1 Minnesota H Artillery. The General Index to Pension Files, 1861-1934 record also notes his alias “Jim Railey.” The recollections of Braswell’s service to the Confederacy have been matched to service records and do mesh with the known history of the occurrences at Devil’s Den.

John and Middleton Allen
Of Chester County, South Carolina

Contributed by John M. Cherry, III

The last issue of this quarterly included the Bible record and additional history of the Joel and Nancy Cherry family of South Carolina. This article provides documents that offer information on Nancy's parents, John and Middleton Allen. Middleton was the daughter of William and Sarah Myrick of Warren County, North Carolina. Records seem to indicate that Middleton filed for divorce from John Allen since an index of Equity Court records in Chester Co. show the case: "Middleton Allen vs. John Allen, Bill for Alimony". Besides establishing relationships, the two deeds below suggest that Middleton was separating herself and/or her property from her husband, John Allen. Following the deeds is the will of John Allen and three other documents obtained from a recent trip to the Chester County Courthouse. Hopefully, they will aid other Allen family researchers.

CGGS has for several years made an annual donation to the Genealogy Room at Washington Memorial Library in Macon, Georgia. The Board of Directors voted to make this year's donation in the amount of $1,500. Willard Rocker and Christopher Stokes of the Genealogy Room said that this gift is always valued and appreciated and even more so this year due to cuts in the Genealogy Room's budget from Bibb Co. This year's budget provided no money for the purchase of books, microfilm or for book binding.

With this year's $1,500 gift, approximately $900 will be used to purchase books and $600 will be used to purchase microfilm. Several hundred dollars will be used to buy microfilm of North Carolina county records.

In 2004 CGGS also donated $1,500 to the Genealogy Room for the purchase of central Georgia county records. Other past gifts made possible the purchase of Georgia newspapers on microfilm.

Dear Ms. Nelson:

My colleagues join with me in thanking the Central Georgia Genealogical Society for its continuing generous support. This year, in the wake of library budget cuts that have left our department with no money, we are especially grateful for your support.

As agreed, we are using your donation in the acquisition of records from Georgia and, following the migration patterns to Middle Georgia, from other states, primarily the Carolinas and Virginia. The members of the CGGS library committee—Mesdames Lipford, Douglas, and Aultman—have made their first recommendations to us and we have placed our first order, which will add to our collection Granville County, North Carolina Wills, 1777–1902 in twenty-four (24) reels of microfilm. The committee and the library staff are in agreement in dividing the CGGS donation between book purchases and microfilm purchases. I look forward to reporting to CGGS through the library committee on many additions to the collection in the coming year.

With many thanks and with best wishes, I am,

Very truly yours,

Christopher Stokes

Pages 458-459

I Thomas J. Bartlett being of sound and disposing mind and memory, make, declare and publish this my last will and testament.

I give to my wife Harriet M, all my property and rights of property of all kinds for and during her widowhood, for the use and benefits of herself and my family. Should she remarry, my Executor is to give her $1,000.00 in full of all claims on my Estate.

I desire my Executor to sell the place I now live on and buy a plantation upon which to settle my family and my negroes. The whole to be kept together and managed by my wife for the benefit of herself and my children so long as she remains a widow. When my daughter becomes of age or marries, and when my son becomes of age, I wish my wife, in case she is a widow, to give to each of them so much of my property as she conveniently can do in justice to herself and the other children.

In the final division of my property, all my children I now have as well as any hereafter born to me, to be made equal and take the same part of my Estate.

I wish my adopted son Charles D. Bartlett raised and educated with my own children and when he becomes of age, I give $500.00 to start him in the world.

I appoint my wife, together with my friends Cicero A. Tharpe and Hugh Dickerson of Monticello, Ga. Executors, and give them full power to sell such of my property as they think proper.

It appearing to the Court that the Sheriff has sold sundry property of the deft in the above case and that he has not paid over the money ... ordered by the court that the Sheriff CAMPBELL show cause ... why he does not pay over said money... or he be considered in contempt of this court...the sum of $328.29 and that time of payment be staid until this day two weeks 26 Feb.1842.

The State of Georgia vs ISRAEL CHAMPION, who stands indicted for the murder of HENRY H. WRIGHT, who was arraigned at said term for the presentation of said offense the following testimony was addressed on the part of the state, ANDREW J. PRESTON being called and duly sworn deposeth as follows on Sunday morning of the 25 of April 1841, Mr. WRIGHT came into Knoxville, Crawford County. I saw, Mr. CHAMPION setting in his piazas and afterwards saw Mr. CHAMPION and Mr. WRIGHT meet at my blacksmith shop and observed there would be a fight, ECHOLS said no fight. I then heard a pistol fire, they were standing near my shop when I heard the pistol fire, this took place on Sunday morning deponent says that the consequence of the shot was the death of Mr. WRIGHT, which terminated in his death the parties was about ten feet apart in loud conversation, a few minutes previous Mr. CHAMPION was setting in his piazas, after the firing I went and found Mr. WRIGHT in HANNON's piazas wounded in the abdomen in three places. Mr. WRIGHT died the ensuing morning at Knoxville. I saw Mr. WRIGHT give back, before the firing of the pistol. I pulled off Mr. WRIGHT's clothing he had in his possession a Knife containing several small blades which was the weapon I saw in his possession after the pistol fired. I say Mr. WRIGHT drop his hand and walk off from CHAMPION. The knife produced was the same of the same stamp Cross: found in WRIGHT's possession.

PHILIP J. ECHOLS being called and being duly sworn deposeth as follows, I was setting in Mr. AMOS's piazas on a box with Mr. PRESTON. Mr. WRIGHT was the only man I saw in the street, he was then standing at the post office door I presume reading of a letter in a short trim, Mr. WALL seated himself with us in the piazas. I saw Mr. CHAMPION leave his piazas and walk towards the court house doors the street, when he arrived opposite the court house doors Mr. WRIGHT left the post office and walked towards the blacksmith shop. Mr. WRIGHT and Mr. CHAMPION meet angleing. I did not see the meeting near the smith shop. Mr. PRESTON observed there is going to be a fight, I said no fight. I then raised my head and heard a conversation between WRIGHT and CHAMPION but could distinguish no word they were both making. They were both making jesters like men in earnest conversation suddenly Mr. WRIGHT throw up his hand and stepped back, I then heard the report of firearms, it was about one hundred paces from CHAMPION's house to where they met & about fifty or seventy steps from the post office and was on Sunday morning they met on the way from the post office to the Church. After the firing Mr. WRIGHT threw his hands about confusedly turned round and caught hold on his right thigh with both hands he then went to Mr. HANNON's piazas a gasping and then lay down. I went in company with MR. PRESTON to the place where Mr. WRIGHT was laying and found on examination that he was wounded in three places in the abdomen, I could not determine whether he was wounded with bullets or buck shot, I did not see CHAMPION for some moments. I presumed he went home. I saw him a few minutes after standing in his piazas. It is said Mr. WRIGHT died of the wounds received by the firing the day after the shooting. All happened in Knoxville, Crawford County in April 1841. Mr. CHAMPION refused to be arrested, the prisoner at the bar is ISRAEL CHAMPION the man I saw with Mr. WRIGHT. I could see the parties in part only from their shoulders upwards from where we set, myself and Mr. PRESTON were setting some eighteen inches higher than Mr. WALL who was present, we were setting a little to the left of M. WALL at the situation of Mr. WALL placed him more behind the railing.

Cross: I was in Mr. AMOS's piazas. The end the nearest his dwelling. Was setting on a box of eighteen inches or two feet deep. Mr WALL was setting on the floor leaning against the post next to the street. Mr. PRESTON first observed there would be a fight, the talk was loud enough to be heard and estimations were not very violent I did not think. They talked as tho they were angry. I would not have inferred from the conversation and gesticulations of the parties that they would be a fight. CHAMPION stepped back, after the firing, I saw, CHAMPION before the pistol fired. After the report I rose on my feet and then saw WRIGHT take hold on his thigh. Mr. WRIGHT started from the post office towards the smith shop. I knew not how long after WRIGHT arrived in Town before the difficulty. I did not see WRIGHT step back till after the firing. When I visited or saw the prisoner first after the firing his shoes was full of blood.

SAMUEL H. HARRIS being duly sworn deposeth as follows. On Sunday morning the 25 of April 1841, Mr. WRIGHT came to Knoxville as myself and family were going to church. I saw Mr. WRIGHT's boy turning three horses via a way poster. I was returning from the church before preaching hours I saw a flash and heard the report. I saw Mr. WRIGHT put his hand to his abdomen after which Mr. WRIGHT turned around I saw CHAMPION lower his hand with a pistol in it after which Mr. WRIGHT appeared to be in a fallen position in a few steps WRIGHT was out of my sight. The difficulty occurred between the old Tavern and black smith shop a little more the shop than the tavern. I did not see Mr. CHAMPION draw his pistol nor did I see him cock it nor pull the trigger. I had no conversation, on examination he had three wounds in the abdomen. I saw no person with them. ISRAEL CHAMPION the prisoner at the bar is the man I saw have the pistol. Mr. WRIGHT had no weapons as I saw when he was undressed or when he turned round, all happened at Knoxville Crawford County . I was fifty or seventy five yds. from the parties at the time of the occurrence. Mr. WRIGHT died about three o'clock on the evening after difficulty.

Cross: I was on the side of the street next the old tavern on the east side of the street, the very lot was below the old Jail. Mr. WRIGHT had to step but a short distance to get out of my sight and Mr. CHAMPION was standing next to the blacksmiths lot. WRIGHT may have had time to have went to the Post Office to have received a letter. I was above the way lot when I heard the report, above the way lot when I heard the report. I know not where WRIGHT went after I saw him in the way lot.

Rebuttal: I stayed at the meeting house a few minutes.

OBEDIAH A. HARRIS being duly sworn deposeth as follows. On the twenty fifth of April last I started to church. I turned round the Store then occupied by Mr. MURDOCK, I saw Mr. WRIGHT & CHAMPION in conversation in the street. I walked on towards the meeting house approaching them about the time I got opposite the court house I saw they were quarreling, both appeared to make gestures as though each were very angry. I thought probably there would be a fight & when I approached in about eight steps of them I stopped, I saw CHAMPION draw a pistol from his bosom cock it & step one step back over the log then through it upon his thigh it then went off the pistol in both hands. The pistol then went off after he pulled out his pistol he said Mr. WRIGHT I am going to shoot you, you have imposed on me long enough. Mr. Wright said shoot then I've got no weapon & stepped back. Mr. CHAMPION was looking WRIGHT in the face when the pistol fired, the but of the pistol was against his thigh when it fired. Mr. WRIGHT after the fire put both hands on his abdomen & staggered and fell into Mr. HANNONS piazas.

Cross: I suppose they were seven or eight steps from the piaza from what I saw, I supposed they were going to fight immediately. I can not say whether WRIGHT first was donblen(?) or not. I heard no other expressions from the prisoner that what is related. They were about five or six feet apart when CHAMPION fired.

Miss JOSEPHEIN JENKINS being duly sworn deposeth and saith as follows. On the twenty fifth of April last I saw Mr. WRIGHT & MR. CHAMPION together, they were in conversation, Mr. WRIGHT said I am not afraid of you. Mr. CHAMPION observed I will make you afraid - after which I heard report of a gun & saw the smoke. It was fired by one of the parties when they were standing, the smoke came from WRIGHT. He, WRIGHT, then went off limping. I was standing at the window, they were standing as far from me as from the church to the court house steps. I don't think it was a gun fired, Mr. WRIGHT went off to the Hannons House. It was about one minute after I heard the conversation as before stated before I heard the report.

Cross: The parties were standing a little nearer the tavern than the blacksmith shop. I do not know whether CHAMPION stepped back or not. I never saw CHAMPION after the report.

The evidence of JAMES H. WRIGHT of said county taken upon oath before MR. PATTRICK M. CALHOUN one of the Justices of the Peace ...the twenty fifth day of April 1841 ...sworn by me on the holy evangelist to state the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth...made before me against ISRAEL CHAMPION who stands charged by STEPHEN S. WRIGHT of said county with an assault with the intent to commit murder on the body of JAMES H. WRIGHT by shooting him with a pistol in the Town of Knoxville...saith he came to town of Knoxville this morning (25 April 1841) to church. Laid down the fence of a lot, that witness considered to be equal privilege between them, the gate being locked & then came up in the streets of the place & met CHAMPION. ISRAEL CHAMPION asked him what he was doing and he told him he had turned his horses in the lot for a few hours and intended to take them out again soon as meeting was over & ISRAEL CHAMPION said he witness had done wrong. Witness answered that he thought he was not doing wrong. Then ISRAEL CHAMPION said he was imposing upon him & pulled out a pistol. Witness said he might shoot him for he had nothing & ISRAEL CHAMPION shot him with a pistol in the street of Knoxville...and witness says he did not attempt to strike ISRAEL CHAMPION but raised up his hand in conversation not intending to strike & were five or six feet apart.

Cross Evidence: Saith that ISRAEL CHAMPION had never objected witness his horse in the lot and saith that further he might have said that ISRAEL CHAMPION had not acted as a gentleman and further saith that ISRAEL CHAMPION said that he witness acted —(?) in turning the horses in the lot and witness considers himself a dying man & makes these answers in anticipation of death.. /s/ J. H. WRIGHT.

EZEKIEL HALL being called & sworn deposeth as follows. I am a physician surgeon ...on the twenty fifth of April last I was called to see Mr. WRIGHT professionally, who it was stated had been shot. I found him laying on Mr. HANNON'S house. Myself & Dr. HARVEY examined and found him wounded in three distinct places, one in each groan, one in the center of the abdomen. I examined them and concluded from the examination that the wounds were fatal. The wound in the groin were very nearly opposite each other. I satisfied myself by practicing that the ball had entered the cavity, the wounds appeared to have been made by the instance of buck shot or bullets. Mr. WRIGHT died of the wounds. I appraised the deceased of his approaching disposition. He died the next day. I was called to see him about 20 minutes after I heard the report of the pistol.

DAVID WORSHAM sworn, deposeth and saith as follows. A short time after Mr. WRIGHT was shot I went to the tavern where Mr. CHAMPION & asked him what was the cause of his shooting WRIGHT. CHAMPION observed I have been imposed upon & long enough. I could bare it any longer. I then asked CHAMPION if WRIGHT was rushing or imposing upon him - I know not which term I used. CHAMPION replied certainly he was, he then observed that was the cause of my shooting him so low that he intended to shoot him in the face , or else I would have shot him in the face I do not recollect which. Mr. CAMPBELL was present.

Closed on the part of the State.

The following testimony was submitted on the part of the prisoner. THOMAS CHAMPION being called, sworn ...saith that on the 24th of April last, Mr. WRIGHT sent to Knoxville to take from our well, a well bucket. I refused to let him have it. Mr. WRIGHT then passed & said to me that he would have it. I still refused to give it up, he said he would have it & if my father said anything he would come down in the morning and give him a damned beating. I told father of the case - told him to be on his guard as WRIGHT had threatened to whip him or give him a damned beating. I told my father of the circumstances on evening of the twenty fourth. He did not seem to be much frightened but said WRIGHT had impressed on him a great deal. The well bucket was attached to the well in the yard which father had purchased from WRIGHT.

Cross: Father bought the premises from WRIGHT - There was bucket taken from the premises. , There was a bucket at the well but it was not a well bucket but was used only for the time being. We did take the bucket at time of removal.

ENOCH J. WALL being called & sworn deposeth as follows. I was in town the twenty fifth of April last. I was in Mr. CHAMPIONS house conversing with him, he left his house and returned back & passed on and then went over to Mr. AMOS's store. I was conversing with CHAMPION when WRIGHT passed. I was setting in company with Mr. ECHOLS & Mr. PRESTON in Mr. AMOS's piazas when CHAMPION & WRIGHT met. Mr. PRESTON said there will be a fight, ECHOLS said no fight, expressing an opinion that WRIGHT would not fight. WRIGHT & CHAMPION met near Mr. PRESTONS shop they began to talk pretty loud. I saw Mr. WRIGHT's hand raised like a man in the act of striking, they managed their position, CHAMPION stepped back & I heard a pistol fire or the report of a gun. CHAMPION stepped back before the report of the pistol. Mr. WRIGHT turned round placed his hand upon his right thigh & walked off towards Mr. HANNONS house. I was setting on the chair near east Mr. AMOS house. Mr. PRESTON was between me & ECHOLS. I thought from the jestering (sic) of the parties ...that they were about to fight, WRIGHT swore several times.

Cross: I think they were four or five feet apart when the pistol fired.

Doctor JEREMIAH C. HARVEY being called & sworn deposeth as follows, I saw MR. WRIGHT after he was wounded & examined , I did not probe the wound. Dr. HALL examined the wounds in my presence. I was under the impression that the then balls went upward. I thought if the balls had went downward the right & left main artery would have been wounded, the consequence of which would have been immediate fatality.

E.C. BLAKE being called and sworn says, I left my pistol in the house of Mr. CHAMPION accidently some time after I went down & asked Mr. CHAMPION for the pistol he said it was in the desk & asked me to let him have it & he would shoot if off. The cock of the pistol was a little weak so much so that if it had been pulled it would have went off half but I do not know that it was tricky after I had it mended.

Cross: I had two pistols at the time of the occurrence.

E.W. DENNIS testimony. I saw Mr. WRIGHT at the Post office immediately previous to the difficulty. Mr. WRIGHT went down in company with his boy to the way lot. Mr. WRIGHT let down the fence enclosing the lot & turning in his horses.

Cross: The letter was folded up when I saw him. I did not see him read it. I was at the church door when WRIGHT was at the way lot.

Testimony of JOHN ANDREW. I have known Mr. CHAMPION the prisoner for sixteen or seventeen years. He has always up to the present offense sustained a good & respectable character.

JOHNATHAN COLBERT testimony. I have known Mr. CHAMPION the prisoner for ten or twelve years. He has always sustained and unexceptionable character.

SHAROD WHITTINGTON testimony. The character of Mr. CHAMPION has been peaceable orderly & quiet from his infancy.

JOHN S. SANDERFER testimony. I have known Mr. CHAMPION for fourteen or fifteen years, he has always sustained a good character.

DANIEL CULPEPPER testimony. I have known Mr. CHAMPION some fifteen or sixteen years, his charactor is & always has been very good ever since I have known him.

G. TABOR testimony. I have known Mr. CHAMPION some fourteen years, he has always sustained a good charactor, has been a member of the church of the Baptist denomination.

SHEROD WHITTINGTON testimony. Mr. WRIGHT the deceased was much the youngest & robust man. Mr. CHAMPION has been unhealthy a good part of his time & some what weakly.

The testimony for the prisoner here closed. C.B. STRONG, SAMUEL R. BLAKE & Z.E. HARMON, Sol. Gen., Counsels for the State. STARK, E.C. BLAKE, HAMMOND, POE, GREEN & POWERS for the prisoner. Examined: Test. Z.E. HARMON, Sol. General & EDW. D. TRACY, Judge S.C. [Sentence to hang on other page.]

Mothers & wifes (sic) with streaming eyes asking help in the tender accounts of self & mates...and hearing the melting cries of children for bread and perhaps for their father when some relentless creditor has confined in the many walls of a prison. (Notations on the inside back cover of this ledger include that of James J. Joyce's purchases of 8 bushels of corn and 550 pounds of fodder in 1842. Prices paid are not clear. "Lowndes Co" is also written in the right margin of this page. At the bottom of the page is the following reference: "Jane L. Wells was bornd May 8th 1818." Berry Wells apparently used this page to compute prices, since many numbers are scribbled on this page.)

The Houston County Volunteers:
Company K of the 11th Georgia Infantry Regiment

Contributed by Sherrie Nelson

The following article was originally published in the Houston Home Journal (a Perry, Georgia newspaper) on April 26, 1883. The first part of the article provides the names and rank of soldiers in the Houston County Volunteers and detailed insight into their service during the war and in some cases their lives after the war. The second part of the article is apparently the personal reminiscences of a member of Co. K. The 11th Regiment was assigned to General G.T. Anderson's Brigade of the Army of Northern Virginia. The article is reprinted here in its entirety. I can not speak for the accuracy of the article but the statements concerning the Nelson soldiers (John and Alfred T. Nelson) align correctly with what I have found in their service records. Also, reprinted here is a second article that was published in the Houston Home Journal the following week. It is a transcript of official orders issued by Confederate Officers in April 1865 pertaining to the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia at Appomattox.

All spellings, wording, etc. have been left intact. Notice that the newspaper did not name the author but instead stated "Record furnished by a member." If anyone knows who authored the first article, please advise CGGS or Sherrie Nelson by email at [redacted] Likewise, if anyone has a copy of the song "Happy Land O'Canaan" mentioned in this article, I would very much appreciate a copy of it. Happy reading!

PERSONAL REMINISCENCES.

On the 8th of June 1861, the H. C. Vs. then in camp where New Hope now is, marched up in town and formed in front of the Perry Hotel, where Miss Mitt Mann, (now Mrs. J. R. Duncan,) after an appropriate address presented the company with a beautiful flag made by the ladies of Perry. Capt. Charles T. Goode received the colors and made a short address in reply. After this the company which was uniformed in white pants and red shirts, had zouave drill in front of the Hotel.

While the H. C. Vs. were returning from picket duty on the outposts a few miles from Fairfax C. H., in Oct. 1861, they were supposed to be the enemy by a S. C. regiment, who fired into them, wounding H. W. Mann in the side and Seaborn Jackson in wrist.

In Oct. 1861 Lieut. R. F. Mann, while on picket duty, accidentally shot himself in the leg, while returning his pistol to its holster. The surgeon failed to extract the ball, and he carries it yet.

Lieut. Holmes Baskin, while on furlough in the fall of '62, said, when he left home, he never expected to return unless he came feet foremost. He was killed in the battle of Gettysburg, July 2nd, '63.

John Nelson was struck on top of his head at battle of the Wilderness by a musket ball, or schrapnel, and knocked down. He recovered consciousness in a short while and remained with the command through the fight.

George Nelson was wounded in the hand (time and place forgotten).
Messrs, Jesse H. Everett, M. W. Lominack and Rev. J. A. Roquemore, were aged men and unable for field service. Their whole hearts were in the cause, though, and they wanted and tried to be in the front. Mr Everett died in the 2nd Ga. Hospital at Richmond, Dec. 24th '61. Mr. Lominack and Mr. Roquemore were discharged Aug. 1st '62. Mr. Roquemore was killed on his plantation a year or two after by two negroes.

One of the most gallant and promising men that ever entered the service was Capt. Geo. W. Wimberly. He was held in the highest esteem by those under and over him. He came to his death from exposure and over exertion, when he should have been on his bed. Kittrell J. Warren, in writing of him says: "Anxious to be ever at his post and faithful in the discharge of duty, and burning to engage in the generous rivalry for laurels on the field of battle, he continued in the command of his company (daily expecting an engagement) until disease had gotten the better of his constitution, and death had nothing left but the assumption of an easy victory."

Capt. Robert R. Fudge was shot through the breast with a Minnie ball at the battle of Darbytown road, while in command of the 11th Ga. He fell from his horse, and while his eyes were glazing in death, he said J. T. Walker: "Tell my father and mother I have done my duty, and died at my post."

George H. White, was discharged in Aug. '62, on requisition of Gov. Joseph E. Brown, to make Joe Brown pikes.

Thomas C. Whitehurst never recovered from the wound he received in the fight at Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 29th '63.

Near Suffolk, Va., Apl. 22, '63, John H. Peddy, who was standing up in the rifle pits, was warned that it was dangerous to stand. He said he felt like something would happen to him, and while he had his arms over is head and was yawning, he received a mortal wound. He died in ambulance next day while on his way to camp, and was buried near Franklin.

W. D. Pierce and John Nelson, were perhaps the most able bodied soldiers of Houston County Volunteers, and they were faithful and efficient.

Oscar Alden was a little man with a big soul. In '65 he was home on furlough, and when he returned he was asked to take some shirts to one of the H C. Vs., and he carried them, though he had to march about one hundred miles with them swung around his neck.

The wound John T. Talley received at the 2nd battle of Manassas, was in the knee by musket or minnie ball. The knee was shattered, and his leg was amputated two or three days before he died.

Martin V. Avery, who was shot at Funkstown, Maryland, in '63, carries a stiff arm from the wound. The ball passed through the elbow.

In the second battle of Manassas Aug 20th, '62, Alfred T. Nelson, was shot in the hip. After crawling away as far as he could, he received a second shot through the head which killed him instantly.

Samuel H. Fitzgerald received in the second battle of Manassas, what he thought to be a slight wound on his ankle. He continued to march with the command until forced from the condition of his ankle to stop, and he has never recovered from the wound.

The 11th Ga. charged the enemy at the battle of the Wilderness May 6th, '64, and drove them out of their works. Just after the command was in occupation they were ordered to retire. Thomas H. Everett, was seen in the works, but after retiring he was missing, and it has never been known whether he was killed or captured. If captured, they afterwards killed him, or he died in the their hands.

Cullen T. Lane, who died in Pulaski county, four or five years ago, was as faithful soldier as ever entered the service.

Thomas N. White wears a great scar on his face, from a wound received at Cold Harbor in June '64.

In the battle of the wilderness May 6th, '64, Mr. W. D. Day had eight or ten button flys over his shoulders, a large haversack full of good things captured from the Yankees. Several of the flys were shot from him, and the remainder with his haversack were riddled with bullets. He did not receive a scratch.

In the fight at Deep Bottom Aug. 14th, '64, Jno. T. Leverett was shot by a negro and slightly wounded. Had it not been for his frying-pan, which was strapped to his back, and which the ball struck, and was thereby split in two, the wound would have been a serious, if not mortal one.

H. W. Mann was wounded in thigh at the 2nd battle of Manassas, Aug. 30, 1862; wounded in arm at Gettysburg, July 2, 1862.

John D. King was transferred to the company of Capt. Wm. M. Davis in the 45th Ga. Regt. and at or just before the battle of the Wilderness, while lying down under fire, a rifle or musket ball entered one temple, and came out near the ear on the other side of his head. He was killed instantly.

In the battle of Gettysburg, Augustus A. Watson was seen sitting down leaning against a rock with his gun across his lap. He appeared to be resting, but was shot dead and fell in that position.

Powel Daniel, who died at or near Hayneville about two years ago, served in the ranks through the war and was a faithful soldier.

In the front of battle at Gettysburg, John Leverett suddenly discovered he had fired his last round. Two Yankees, protected by a large rock, were just in front of him and would have vied in killing him if he had attempted to retreat. His presence of mind and decisive action saved him. He rushed boldly up, demanded their surrender and hurried them from the field.

In the battle of Gettysburg every officer and man at General Tige Anderson's headquarters, from General Anderson down, excepting Captain Hardwick, A. A. G., were killed or wounded.

W. T. Speight, who died of measles at Camp Bartow, was buried with military honors by the H. C. Vs.

On the retreat from Richmond, W. D. Day was 'captured' and imprisoned at Hart Island, near New York city. On the 15th of June, '65, after taking the oath, he was sent by steamer to Savannah, and arrived home on 29th of June, just four years after he left Perry for the war.

At Reams' Station, in August 1864, Lieut. H. W. Mann, who was alone at the time, unexpectedly came upon two Yankee sharp-shooters. He demanded their surrender. They saw he was unarmed, and hesitated, but on a second peremptory demand with a bold demeanor, they caved, and he marched them to the rear. Their guns were very fine ones, made especially for infantry sharp-shooting. Samuel H. Fitzgerald surrendered one of these guns at Appomattox C. H.

Wm. R. Story, who was killed in the fight at Deep Bottom, in August, '64, was shot through the head by a minnie or musket ball. The ball struck his hat band in front and came out through the hat band in the rear. The band was cut in two in both places.

Wm. D. Pierce was said to be one of the finest soldiers that ever stood in the ranks of Lee's army. He was able, brave and efficient, and was called for a number of times for special service where the coolest and bravest soldiers are needed.

Dr. C. R. Mann went out with the H. C. Vs not as a member, for he was some years too young, but to see the sights. He was a great favorite in the regiment with both officers and men. He was known as "Fogy" and used to sing at the top of his voice "Happy Land O' Canaan."

In February, 1865, meal was $18 per peck, and flour $5 per pound, in Richmond, Va.

In 1864, the federal troops under command of Gen. W. S. Hancock, got possession of the railroad at Reams' Station; below Petersburg. Gen. C. M. Wilcox, of North Carolina, was ordered with a division, including Anderson's brigade, to drive them away, and did so effectively on the 23d of August. Generals Hancock and Wilcox were great friends, and classmates at West Point.

In this fight a man of the 9th Ga., whose name is now forgotten, but who lives near Americus, captured Gen. Hancock's Adjutant, Col. Francis A. Walker, who was the late Superintendent of the Census Bureau, in Washington. Gen. Tige Anderson returned Col. Walker's sword to him a few years ago, and rode his fine horse home from the surrender at Appomatox C. H.

In February, 1865, a citizen made a speech in front of the 11th Ga. Regiment, appealing for help to complete a flying machine, by means of which he would have fleets and armies at his mercy. He had been working upon it for twenty-six years, had spent all he had upon it, but had it perfected now, and wanted $20,000 to complete one, and with it he would destroy the whole Yankee fleet in James River, by dropping torpedoes upon them. He would go to Mobile, destroy the Yankee fleet there, and return to Richmond the same day.

In March, 1865, General Henry L. Benning, ("Old Rock,") made a stirring speech to a great crowd of soldiers on the lines near Richmond. It was remarkable for its truth and force, and there is probably not one who heard it who has, or ever will forget it. Generals Longstreet and Field were present, and were loudly called for, but made only a few remarks.

Negotiations for the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia began on the 8th of April, 1865, and the surrender was made on the 9th. On the 13th, General Anderson Brigade, (including 11th Ga. Regiment,) left Appomattox C. H. for home. The members of the Houston County Volunteers arrived home from the 25 April to the 5th of May. Gen. Lee passed on foot near the camp of the 11th Ga., when on his return to his quarters from his conference with Gen. Grant in regard to the surrender at Appomattox C. H., Va. As soon as he was discovered, the soldiers flocked to him in such numbers and so closely, he could not pass. He turned round, took off his hat, and told them he had surrendered – why he had, and the terms of the surrender. When he had finished his few remarks, he put on his hat and turned to go, and the crowd gave way. His face was sad, and that crowd of soldiers that flocked to him so eagerly, and with such enthusiasm, turned slowly away. The next day he issued his famous farewell address, and on the 11th he went away to his home, and the Army of Northern Virginia, which was then dissolving forever, saw no more of their great Captain.

[We have on file several orders from Generals Grant and Lee, issued to their respective armies, in connection with the surrender at Appomattox, which will be published next week. ED.]"

General R. E. Lee,
Com'd'g. C. S. A.:

General – In accordance with the substance of my letter to you of the 8th inst., I propose to receive the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia on the following terms, to-wit: Rolls of all the officers and men to be made in duplicate, one copy to be given to an officer to be designated, the other to be retained by such officer or officers as you may designate. The officers to give their individual parole not to take up arms against the United States until properly exchanged, and each company officer or regimental commander to sign a like parole for the men of their commands.

The arms, artillery, an public property to be parked, stacked and turned over to the officer appointed by me to receive them. This will not embrace the side arms of the officers, nor their private horses or baggage. This done, each officer and man will be allowed to return to their homes, not to be disturbed by United States authorities as long as they observe their paroles and the laws in force where they may reside.

General Orders
No. 9

After four years of arduous service, marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude, the Army of Northern Virginia has been compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources. I need not tell the brave survivors of so many hard-fought battles, who have remained steadfast to the last, that I have consented to the result from no distrust of them. But feeling that valor and devotion could accomplish nothing that could compensate for the loss that must have attended the continuance of the contest, I determined to avoid the useless sacrifice of those whose past services have endeared them to their countrymen. By the terms of agreement officers and men can return to their homes and remain until exchanged. You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed, and I earnestly pray that a merciful God will extend to you his blessing and protection.

With an unceasing admiration of your constancy and devotion to your country, a grateful remembrance of your kind and generous consideration for myself, I bid you all an affectionate farewell.

By agreement between the officers appointed by Generals Lee and Grant to carry out the stipulations of the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia, the evidence that an officer or an enlisted man is a paroled prisoner of war, is the fact of his possessing a printed certificate certifying to the fact, dated at Appomattox Court House, Virginia, April 10th, 1865, and signed by his commanding officer, or the staff officer of the same. The Wartime Drawings of a Confederate Soldier:
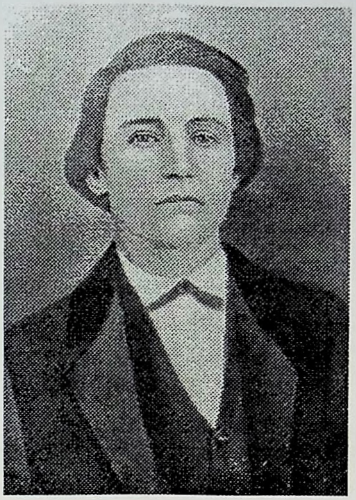
Pvt. William Hannibal Weeks, CSA

By Carolyn Coleman



William Hannibal Weeks
ca. 1856

I am sure that Pvt. William Hannibal Weeks, in his daily survival as a Confederate prisoner of war in Elmira, New York, would have never dreamed that a century and a half later, his descendants would be found marveling at his artistic sketches. In our heart of hearts, we know that the letters written and sketches drawn were merely a means of mental escape, passing time, easing the pain and suffering of a war-ravaged era in our history. While a prisoner at Elmira, Weeks made several sketches of loved ones and wrote letters that survived the war even though he did not. His drawings and letters are still in his family's possession 141 years later.

"Hannibal", as he was known, was a member of the 49th Regiment, Georgia Volunteer Infantry, Company K, of the "Pulaski County Greys" who fought in the Army of Northern Virginia. He was married to the former Roxanna Wright and lived with her and their three children on the Abel Thomas Wright plantation near Parkerson Baptist Church (Constituted May 13, 1831), south of Eastman in what is now Dodge County, Georgia. Abel T. Wright, Roxanna's father, who was originally from North Carolina, owned approximately 2000 acres of land, and was married to Rebecca Cadwell, daughter of Allen Cadwell and Ms. Cauley Cadwell. Hannibal's parents were Bartimeus Weeks from South Carolina who married Ms. Levinia Cross residing near Dublin, Laurens County, Georgia. Hannibal and Roxanna's children were James Bartimeus (Bart Weeks), Abel Thomas Wright (Wright Weeks) and Rebecca Caroline (Carrie Weeks).

The 49th was organized the first of March, 1862, and was ordered to Savannah, Georgia at Camp Davis located near Guyton on the Central of Georgia Railroad. Soon after organization, the regiment was ordered to Goldsboro, North Carolina where they were drilled for a few days in the Arts of War. In the latter part of May, they were ordered to Richmond, Virginia where they became a part of Pender's Brigade. Three days later, May 31st, they fought their first battle, Seven Pines, following up with the Battle of Seven Days in Richmond, Virginia. On the 27th of June they were hotly engaged in three battles in the same day; those of Frazier's Farm, Gaines' Mill and Cold Harbor. They followed close on the heels of the Federals until the closing of the seven days of battle at Malvern Hill. During a few days of rest, they became a part of Thomas' Brigade composed of the 14th, 35th, 45th, and 49th Georgia Regiments, which was in General Stonewall Jackson's "foot cavalry".

On the 8th of August, 1862, movements were made to stop the plans of General John Pope, commander of the Federal Troops in Northern Virginia. August 9th, Thomas's Brigade met the enemy at Cedar Run where the 49th Regiment was in the thickest of the battle. Several of the 49th's best men were killed, including Lt. Col. Seaborn M. Manning, who was mortally wounded and died a few days later. After a victory at Cedar Run, General Jackson surprised General Pope by attacking his army from the rear on the 29th and 30th of August, engaging in the second battle of Manassas. This resulted in a decisive victory for the Southern Army.

September 1, 1862 closed with a minor engagement at Chantilly. On Sept 14th, the 49th Regiment participated in the capture of General Nelson A. Miles, with 11,000 Federal Troops at Harper's Ferry, West Virginia. Thomas' Brigade was left to guard these prisoners for two or three days. They were relieved in time to reach Sharpsburg, Maryland, just as the battle closed. Hannibal had been captured by Union soldiers at Harper's Ferry and was later exchanged because there were no prison camps established in the North or South at that time. Thomas' Brigade moved on into winter quarters at Camp Gregg near Fredricksburg until the opening of the 1863 campaign.

On May 3, 1863, Hannibal fought in the Battle of Chancellorsville, Virginia and the 2nd Battle of Fredricksburg a day or so later. The Pennslyvania Campaign followed where they were in the heart of the Battle of Gettysburg and on into Hagerstown, Maryland. December 1863, their Brigade along with General T. L. Rosser's Brigade of Cavalry was sent on raiding expeditions into the Shenandoah and Morefield Valleys. They surprised the Union soldiers and captured 136 wagons loaded with provisions intended for the enemy and acquired sufficient food to supply Lee's Army for four months. They returned to the Rappahannock River and on to Orange County Courthouse remaining until May 1864. The Battle of the Wilderness was fought on May 5th and 6th at which time Pvt. Hannibal Weeks was captured. He and others were taken to Point Lookout, Maryland, as Prisoners of War.

After a few days, Hannibal was transported to Elmira Prison Camp in Elmira, New York along with John Wright, brother of Roxanna, and a friend, Hyram Sapp. Hannibal wrote letters and drew sketches of Roxanna, himself and other family members. In a terribly weakened state and knowing he did not have much longer to live, he gave his brother-in-law the letters and drawings to take back home to his beloved Roxanna and children. Our Hannibal died of remittent fever September 15, 1864 and was buried along with a multitude of Confederate soldiers in Woodlawn National Cemetery. A few months later, John Wright and Hyram Sapp were paroled from prison. Badly wounded and sick with dysentery, they walked all the way from New York back home to Georgia, bringing Roxanna the drawings and last words from her dear Hannibal.

Author's Note: The Georgia 49th Infantry Regiment was composed of the following: Company A – Wilkinson County Invincibles, Company B – Telfair County Volunteers, Company C – Washington County Guards, Company D – Taliaferro County Volunteers, Company E – Wilcox County States Rights Guards, Company F – Irwin County Volunteers, Company G – Laurens County Volunteers, Company H – Washington County Cold Steel Guards, Company I – Hancock County Pierce Guards, and Company K – Pulaski County Greys.

Carolyn W. Coleman is a great-great granddaughter of Pvt. William Hannibal Weeks. The above account of Hannibal's service and the activities of the 49th Georgia Infantry provided in this article was taken from notes written about 1960 by Ms. Coleman's grandfather, Harrison Hudson Weeks. Found the books of the books of the Treasurer of the Poor School Fund correctly kept and a balance in his hands of $168.12. The books of the present Clerk of Superior & Inferior Court & Court of Ordinary all in good order. Found some of the roads in very bad condition and recommended the Road Commissioners have them put in order as soon as possible. They presented as a grievance the great depreciation in the currency of our Country and recommend to our representatives in the next legislature to use their utmost influence to bring the notes to a specia basis an secure the notes of the Central Bank which constitutes almost entirely our circulation. They hoped the next legislature will cause the Banks in this state to redeem their liabilities in specia when called upon. They also recommended the next legislature impose a tax of $10,000 upon every Broker and revise the old laws making it a forfeit use of the principal & interest to loan money for more than 8 percent. They also give the usual thanks to the Judge & Solicitor General for their assistance during their term.

Updated, with digital pictures on Monday, November 7, 2005 by Davine Campbell. For copies of these pictures, contact her at [redacted]
If "Obit" is noted after the person's name, it means that a copy is in Davine's files and probably posted on the Macon County web site.

This cemetery is located on Hwy. 90 West (known as the Ideal Road) 1.7 Miles from the intersection of Hwy 128 & 90, just North and West of Oglethorpe on the right hand side of the road. (I suggest that if you are visiting this cemetery that you park across the road. This road is extremely busy and should be crossed with care.)

There is a definite defined previously fenced in area for the cemetery with some post remaining and some wire fence. There are two fence posts that serve as the entrance to the cemetery from the highway.

As you enter the cemetery, between the two fence posts, the Brady Graves will be on your left.

MACON COUNTY CEMETERIES

Davine Campbell has been working on updates of the cemeteries in Macon County that were included in the CGGS publication CEMETERIES OF MACON COUNTY, GEORGIA 1936-1994 compiled by Guelda L. Hay, Millie C. Stewart and Davine V. Campbell. Many of the graves that appeared in that publication as unmarked have now been marked and others have been identified. Some corrections have been made and additional information on the burials found.

Davine has been taking digital pictures of each grave showing the area of the cemetery, the lot, a close up of the marker and how that particular grave is related to others in the lot or nearby. The Oglethorpe City Cemetery aka Oglethorpe Memorial Gardens will soon be finished. Completed are: Brady - Joiner Cemetery, Cedar Valley Baptist Church Cemetery, Felton Cemetery, Ideal Cemetery, Pleasant Grove Cemetery and Red Hill Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery. As the resurveys are finished, they are posted to the Macon County Rootsweb list.

The original surveys are not necessarily arranged in the order that the graves were found since two people were working together both with tape recorders starting from each end of the cemetery or section.

I found the W.B. Hill lot extremely interesting, it contains W.B. Hill, his wife, Mary J. E. Hill, Mary's niece Mary Bethea Moody Kelso Hill English along with her first two husbands, Charles Henry Kelsoe and Henry Clay Hill and the child that she had with the Kelsoe husband. Researching the names lead to the relationships. Now I would love more on the stories of the first two husbands, both of whom were killed. Anyone out there with an answer?

PARR

Searching for information on a Parr family that came to Georgia from Tennessee in early 1840s. This family was in Greene Co., GA in 1859 (tax digest), probably working in the Scull Shoals cotton mill. In 1859, the mother, Lucinda Parr, died of typhoid fever in Greene Co.(1860 Mortality census of Greene Co.) The children then moved to Hancock Co. GA (1862 tax digest) and at least 2 of them later to Muscogee Co. GA. Possible children for this family include: Winnie (b. ca. 1832), Eliza (b. ca 1835), James (b. ca 1836), Frances (b. Mar. 1843) and Zachariah (b. 1847). Frances md. David Stephenton and lived in Hancock Co. Zachariah lived in Russell Co. AL, then Macon Co., AL. Eliza (md. 1st Charles Ferrell, 2nd Wm. Healy) was in Elmore Co., AL in 1880. Winnie's fate after 1862 is unknown. This family is in nearly all instances working in or living near a cotton mill.

HARPER – BOOTH – HILL

Seeking information on Martin V. Harper, b. ca. 1903. Martin was s/o Mose B. Booth and Elizabeth Hill. Martin md. Alma Gertrude Booth on June 25, 1925 in Macon Co., Ga. They had three children: Billy (William), b. 1926, Robert b. 1927/28 and Betty Lou, b. 1929/30. Martin left the family in 1929 or 1930 and was not heard from again. Of these children, only Betty Lou is still living. Billy Harper was my father.

Occasionally CGGS receives letters requesting research assistance. Although we are unable to do research for others, we can include such letters here in the form of a query. The following are a few of the requests we received in 2005.

Diane Ethridge, [redacted]
Email: [redacted]

Searching for information on Puckett and Roberts families, both early settlers in the middle Georgia area.

Bonnie Johannes, [redacted]
Email: [redacted]

Seeking information on W.B. Clay (Benjamin), b. in GA, ca. 1867 according to the 1900 census. Died Jan. 29, 1927 in Love Co., OK. His wife in 1900 was Mattie (Vianna??). According to the 1900 census she was b. ca. 1877 in KY. In 1910 this couple lived in Love Co., OK and had 3 children. Where in Georgia did this couple live?

??

Mona Roberts, [redacted]

Searching for parents of John Lamar, b. 1797 and Isbella Stewart, b. 1803. This couple was md. ca. 1824 in Houston Co., GA. and later lived in Richmond Co., GA. I am willing to reimburse correspondents for mailing expenses and copies.

Nancy Compton, [redacted]

Seeking information on my great grandfather, William Henry Whadford, b. 1862 in AL. According to family tradition, his family may have originally been in the Carolinas or Georgia. He md. Mary E. Havens in 1885 in Rains Co., TX. I am researching all variants of this name including: Wadford, Watford, Wafford, Wofford, Wolford, Walford, Woodford and Whitford. One possible clue to Whadfords in Georgia was spotted from the highway by my aunt on a trip through GA in the late 1960's. She and my uncle were in route to Miami when they saw a statue or headstone with the name "Whadford" on it and an old country store with the same spelling of the name. Does anyone remember this country store? Would like to hear from anyone with information on William Henry Whadford.

C.G.G.S. QUARTERLY SURNAME INDEX VOL. 27, FOR THE YEAR 2005

COMPILED BY HELEN SHIRAH HUDSON

Note: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 through No. 4 for the year 2005. Pages 1-60 are in No. 1, Pages 61-112 are in No. 2, Pages 113-172 are in No. 3 and Pages 173-220 are in No. 4. A dash between page numbers means that the name also appears on each page between such numbers. For example, 5-10 means that the name appears on pages 5,6,7, 8,9, and 10. Check very carefully for a name may appear more than one time per designated page. Surnames are spelled in many forms. Look for all imaginable spellings. Bazemore is spelled at least four different ways, including Buizamore. There are times when the same document will have a surname spelled two different ways. A surname may be spelled the way the recorder heard it and be very different from the spelling that your family uses today. I suggest that you run down the complete index listing and see if any strange spellings show up for your surname. There were a couple of instances where a person was noted as being "colored". When I did the index, I kept this notation by the surname to help anyone who might be searching for them.

For all of the members who have joined in the last several years, Mr. William "Bill" Rogers Henry who is listed as the abstractor of the Crawford County records was the driving force behind CGGS's publications. He spent much time abstracting various records for the area covered by our society, mostly ones in Houston and Crawford with one each from Pulaski and Washington County. He also compiled the one containing people from Georgia who moved to Greene County, Indiana. The last set of records that he abstracted was the Crawford County Superior Court Minutes currently being published in the Quarterly. He did not get a chance to proof them. I am trying to edit the obvious things (though at times there are some that were missed) like typos and spacing. It seems that there are more of these as he got nearer the end and I will have to go back to some of the original records to try to correct any errors. Please bear with me. Helen

OLIVER CEMETERY

Hwy. 90, South of Montezuma in DOOLY COUNTY, GEORGIA

Surveyed by: Davine V. Campbell & Helen Hudson February 2006

This is a very well kept up cemetery with a chain link fence around it. There is a open sided shelter with tables that is probably used for family gatherings.

We started at the southeast corner of the cemetery, recording each line of graves from south to north starting with row 1. The grave number reflects the total number of graves in the cemetery. Some rows are double rows in the older section. As we went down a row, Davine took a photo of the marker and then the lot, and I recorded them in a notebook. This helped us double check to see if any site was missed.

If there is a notation of obit beside the dates, Davine has a copy of the obituary for that person. NND means that there was not a death date on the stone and the person probably is not deceased yet.

Just as a note of interest, the bricks on the crypt pictured at the beginning of this survey are actually molded or bent in a circular shape. They are not "glued" together to make a curve. The crypt is topped with a marble slab.

If you have information on the unmarked graves in this cemetery or dates for those that were not recorded as having dates please contact either Davine Campbell at davine@alltel.net or Helen Hudson at [redacted]

Dooly County has not had a lot of genealogical information published and we hope to at least work on some of the cemeteries. Does anyone out there know where there is a Peacock cemetery?

Help Needed to Identify Old Photographs Belonging to Central Georgia Family

Can you identify this lady?

CGGS member, Laurie Baker, was given an old album of pictures. Unfortunately, only two of the pictures were identified. She was told that the album probably belonged to her Great Aunt Lyllis Richard Brown Speight. Lyllis was born Nov. 11, 1863 and was the daughter of Richard Dempsey Westbrook Brown, b. March 28, 1841 in Houston Co., Ga. and Mary Lucretia Clark, born July 24, 1845. They lived in the Houston County area prior to moving to Dooly. RDW Brown was the s/o Williams Brown and Susannah Westbrook. Mary Lucretia was the daughter of David Clark and Mary Lucretia Cross. The only photos in the album that are identified are of Williams Brown, Jennie Cross ?Henderson (a child), and Mary Belle Clark. The photo of baby Mary Belle Clark is too faded to permit good reproduction. On the reverse of that photo is inscribed: "Mary Belle, daughter of J.D. and S.J. Clark, aged 2 years, 2 months and 20 days. Taken an hour before her burial in her coffin". If anyone can identify any of the other photos on these 2 pages please contact Laurie Baker, [redacted] [redacted]

Genealogical Nuggets Mined from Georgia Supreme Court Cases

By Georgette Lipford

Court records are sometimes overlooked by genealogists. Their use requires a little more digging and they may not be quite as accessible as wills, deeds and marriages. Yet, disputes over wills, deeds and marriages are exactly what can be found in superior court and Supreme Court cases in addition to cases involving murder, fraud, and an assortment of other matters between men. The Georgia Supreme Court hears cases on appeal that were first heard in county superior courts. A written account of each case argued and determined by the Georgia Supreme Court has been published in the Georgia Reports. The written accounts in the Georgia Reports may include details of the case not recorded in the county superior court minutes. The Georgia Reports can be found in law libraries, including the Furman Smith Law Library at Mercer University in Macon, and in some county courthouses.

Georgia was the last state in the union to establish a Supreme Court. In 1835 the necessity of a supreme court for the state was recognized in a constitutional amendment, but the legislature put off passing the needed legislation for ten years. [1] The first session of the Georgia Supreme Court was held at Talbotton, Ga. on Jan. 26, 1846. Chosen by the General Assembly as the first three judges were Joseph Henry Lumpkin of Athens, Eugenious A. Nisbet of Macon and Hiram Warner of Greenville. Their salaries were $2,500 per year. [2]

In the early years of the court the state was divided into eleven superior court circuits. The judges of the Supreme Court traveled around the state through the year, holding court at nine different locations. There were hardships involved in traveling the circuits since the distance covered amounted to about 1,000 miles a year and only about 300 of those miles were covered by railroad. Each judge met his own travel expenses. In 1865 the constitution provided that the court would sit at the seat of government, which, since 1868, has been Atlanta, the state capital. In 1896 the constitution was amended to provide for the addition of three more justices to the Supreme Court and also provided that the justices and the chief justice would be elected by the people. A seventh justice was added by the constitution of 1945. [3]

Below are a few Georgia Supreme Court cases that are especially rich in genealogical information. Each case is summarized from the account published in the Georgia Reports volume for that period. This collection of cases is typical of most before the Supreme Court in the time period covered. The court very often heard disputes involving wills, administrators, executors, homestead, deeds, guardianship, debts, landlords and tenants.

1. Georgia Reports, Vol. 31, p. 483 - 492
November term, 1860 at Milledgeville
Hughes et al. vs. Allen
From Wilkinson Superior Court
Daniel G. Hughes, as executor of John W. Allen, deceased, brought an action of trover in the Superior Court of Wilkinson Co., against Willis Allen, administrator of John W. Allen, deceased, to recover damages for the alleged conversion of $300 and eight Negro slaves with their annual hire. Hughes' complaint was that on the 27th day of February, 1856, John W. Allen, then of Twiggs Co., Ga., made his will. After John W. Allen's death his will was presented and proven to the Ordinary of Twiggs Co. and recorded. A copy of the will was presented by the defendant:
"I, John W. Allen, of the county of Twiggs, and state of Georgia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory…my body I desire to be buried in the family burial ground at Cool Spring Church in Wilkinson county, and my worldly estate, I dispose as follows:
First. I desire that my plantation shall be kept in operation for the present year…
Second. I give to my beloved brother, William Allen, the following negroes: Red, a man, 42 years old; Gracy, a woman, about 30 years old; George, a boy, about 11 years old; Louisa, a girl, about 3 and one half years old; Jane, a girl, about 2 years old; Amy, a child, about 2 months old.
Third. I give to my beloved brother, Willis Allen, the following negroes: Big Jerry, a man about 31 years old; Cato, a boy, about 20 years old, and the following land: the settlement known as the Paget place; the settlement known as the Mrs. Rouse place, and 100 acres of lot No. 72, making, in all about 350 acres.
Fourth. I give to Miss Sarah Bryan $200 in cash.
Fifth. I give to my beloved uncle, John Rogers, $1,000 in cash.
Sixth. I give to my beloved sister, Polly Meredith, wife of Wyatt Meredith, $5 in cash.
Seventh. I give to John McCullers, whose name was changed by the Legislature of this state to John Allen, $5 in cash.
Eighth. I give to the children of my worthy friend, Theophilus D. Booth, in trust, the following negroes: Sarah, a woman about 30 years old; her son Henry, about 13 years old; Georgia Anna, a girl about 11 years old; Andrew, a boy about 5 years old; Billy, a boy about 9 years old; Ellen, a girl about 6 years old; Clifford, a girl about 3 years old…I hereby appoint my worthy friend, James R. Coombs, trustee for the said children and said property.
Ninth. I give unto the children of my worthy friend, Daniel G. Hughes, in trust, the following negroes: Ann, a woman about 26 years old, and her children, Allen, about 6 years old, as well as the increase of Ann; said negroes not to be subject to the debts of any person whatsoever; and I do hereby appoint Daniel G. Hughes trustee for said children and said property.
Tenth. I hereby manumit and forever release from involuntary servitude the following slaves, to wit: Eliza, a woman about 35 years old; Penelope, a girl about 8 years old; Otis, a boy about 5 years old; Sanford, a boy about 7 months old; allowing her to keep her bed and bedclothes, and trunk, which are strictly hers; and I do, moreover, give to her, for her use, $200 in cash, and appropriate a sum of money sufficient from my estate to be used by my executors, hereinafter named, to carry or transport her to any place wheresoever she may wish to go, together with her children.

Eleventh. I give the following negroes, in trust, to Mary C. Booth: Polly, a girl about 13 years old; Sylvia, a woman about 50 years old; Peter, a boy about 10 years old; as also the increase of the females mentioned in this item; said negroes to be the sole and separate property, and for the sole and separate use, of the said Mary C. Booth, and not subject to the debts of any future husband or other person whatsoever; and if the said Mary C. Booth should die, leaving no child, then said negroes shall be equally divided her brothers and sisters; and I do hereby appoint my worthy friend, James R. Coombs, trustee for the said Mary C. Booth.

Twelfth. I desire the remaining portion of my property, consisting of household and kitchen furniture, crop of provisions, cotton, stock of all kinds, land, etc., and the following named negroes to be sold, to wit: Levi, Daniel, Tom, Caty, Aaron, Jerry, Moses, Jim, Mike, and all other property belonging to me not heretofore specified, and the proceeds of such sale to be appropriated to the payment of all my debts, and if there should be anything remaining after all my debts are paid, it shall belong to the children of Theophilus C. Booth, in the manner specified in the eighth item of this will.

Thirteenth. If anyone specified in this will should attempt to prevent the same from going into execution and distribution... such one shall not receive his distributive share...

Fourteenth. I desire that my faithful old servant, Pleasant, shall go where she pleases, and that she shall not belong to any one, and that the sum of $100 shall be reserved for her use and support.

Fifteenth. I give... unto Daniel G. Hughes my watch...

Sixteenth. I constitute and appoint my beloved friends, James R. Coombs and Daniel G. Hughes, executors of this my last will and testament."

After the death of John W. Allen his will was proven in Twiggs Co., and ordered to be recorded except the items relating to the manumission of the slaves. The tenth item was declared void. Those slaves were taken into possession and sold by an order of the Ordinary and the proceeds distributed to the heirs at law of John W. Allen. The question in this case concerned whether those slaves belonged to the heirs of John W. Allen or the children of Theophilus D. Booth. The judgment of the court was that the slaves specified in the emancipation clause belong to the heirs of John W. Allen.

June term, 1869, Atlanta
Alexander McCullers v. Francis R. Haines
From Washington Co. Superior Court, December term, 1867
The husband of Francis R. Haines died, and McCullers became his administrator. The widow was petitioning for dower on lands that she claimed her husband owned and possessed. McCullers claimed that the lands had been sold and conveyed to him during the lifetime of the husband. At the trial in Washington Co. Superior Court, John Haines, stepson of the widow, testified that his father died in August , 1866, on the land described in the petition, and had lived on it since 1863; that a few days before his death, his father showed him a deed to the land executed by J.F. Smith, from whom he purchased it; that this deed was put into a certain trunk with his father's other papers; that on account of Mrs. Haines' health, the keys were left with him, at his father's death; that the day after the death, or the next one, he delivered the key to said trunk to McCullers, who demanded it, stating that he would administer on the estate; that the trunk containing the papers went into McCullers' possession; and that he (Haines) never saw the deed after it was put into said trunk. The court found that the deceased died in possession; that the widow is entitled to be considered as in possession and that she stands in her husband's shoes, his possession is hers.

December term, 1869 in Atlanta
Roff, Sims & Company, et al. vs William M. Johnson
From Monroe Superior Court, September term, 1869, before Judge Green
George W. Ward, of Monroe Co., died intestate, leaving two adult children, four minors and his widow. The Judge at Chambers appointed as trustee for the minor children their brother-in-law, William M. Johnson. Johnson petitioned the Ordinary to set apart a homestead and exemption of personalty for the minors under the Homestead Act. Roff, Sims & Company, et al., creditors, objected to the exemption. Originally, Johnson testified that George W. Ward died in April, 1869, leaving his heirs seized of two-thirds of a house and lot and a half interest in another and a vacant lot in Forsyth. The county surveyor had platted the lands and certified they were not worth over $2,000. The court found in this case that the minor children were entitled, by application of a trustee appointed for that purpose, to a homestead against creditors, but not against adult heirs of the deceased father not of the family.

4. Georgia Reports Vol. 62, p. 569 – 573
February Term, 1879, at Atlanta
Mapp, administrator v. Long
From Fulton Superior Court, October term, 1878

Susan Long (col.) filed a bill against Mapp, as administrator of her deceased husband, Frank Long, making this case: In January 1878, her said husband was adjudged a lunatic and sent to the asylum, where he died May 28, 1878. In February of the same year she applied to the ordinary for the exemption of certain property that belonged to her husband as homestead. She intended to claim for the benefit of herself and one minor child, but being unable to read or write, she did not observe that it was claimed for the benefit of the child only, and did not so understand it until told that administration would be necessary. Her child died on June 7, 1878.

Mapp testified that he was a creditor of the intestate in the amount of $25, by a note dated Dec. 14, 1877. He administered on the estate for the purpose of collecting this debt.

William H. Huff vs. the State of Georgia
From Whitfield Co. Superior Court, May term, 1859
Indictment for Bastardy

Annis Morris testified: That at the time of taking out the warrant in February, 1858, she was pregnant with a child; it was begotten in the latter part of November 1857, at the house of defendant (William H. Huff) in Walker Co., it was born the latter part of August, 1858, in Walker Co.; she was living with her brother in Whitfield Co. at the time she took out the warrant; had been living there 3 or 4 weeks before she took it out; she went to live with defendant at his request and remained there 14 months to supply his wants and necessities; defendant became dissatisfied and drove her off; she returned to Whitfield Co.; has no property, and the child is likely to become chargeable to the county; she is unmarried; she was induced by the promises of defendant to go back, he promising to do something for her and the child, but did not comply with his promises; that she never had connection with any other man than defendant.

The defendant, William Huff, was arrested 23 April, 1858 and taken to the justice in Walker Co. He refused to give the bond prescribed by law for the support of the child. At a trial in April 1858 in Superior Court of Whitfield Co. he was found guilty. The Georgia Supreme Court reversed the decision, finding that Whitfield Co. had no jurisdiction over the case since the child was begotten and born in Walker Co.

F. B. Brown and wife, et al vs. Jesse Carroll
From Bibb Superior Court, May term, 1867
Caveat to proof of nuncupative will.

Jesse B Carroll offered to the court the following paper as the last will of Mary Ann E. Simmons:

"Georgia, Wilkinson Co.: We, the undersigned, witnesses, state that we were present at the death of Mrs. Mary A. E. Simmons, in the county of Wilkinson…which took place on Sunday, the 3rd day of January, 1864, at the house of Jesse B. Carroll, of said county, she being there on a visit at the time, (her residence being in the city of Macon) and on that day and in our presence and hearing, she called the said Carroll to the bed where she was lying, and said to him, that she wanted him to have her house and lot in the city of Macon, and then and there called one Mary A. Spears, and in our presence and hearing, and told her to bear witness, that she wanted Jesse B. Carroll to have her said house and lot. This statement was made, as above stated, in her last illness, and under a full consciousness of her approaching death, and she died in about 8 hours thereafter. In witness thereof, we have hereunto set our hands, this the 19th day of January, 1864.

F. B. Brown and his wife, and other persons, as next of kin, asserted that it was not Mrs. Simmons' will that the document was procured by fraud and a conspiracy between Carroll and the said witnesses. Carroll testified that he was Mrs. Simmons' attendant physician and that she freely and voluntarily made the nuncupative will. The question facing the court here was whether Carroll's testimony was admissible since he was a legatee of the will. The Supreme Court affirmed the lower court's admission of Carroll's testimony.

Administrator of Joel Butler v. Elbert W. Hughes
From Twiggs Superior Court. Tried before Judge Cole, September term, 1866

This case involved Negroes given by Joel Butler to his daughter and son-in-law. Witnesses for the plaintiff (the administrator of Joel Butler) proved that the negroes in question were in the possession of Joel Butler in 1860, he controlled them and exercised rights of ownership over them. Elbert W. Hughes married Butler's daughter in Oct. 1860 and after the marriage he took the Negroes home with him, with Butler's consent. He retained possession of them and was in possession of them at the death of his wife, she died before this suit was instituted. Butler made demand for the Negroes and the value of hire of them before the suit was brought. Butler said he had given the Negroes to his daughter. (The name of Joel Butler's administrator is not given)

December term, 1866 at Milledgeville
From Putnam Superior Court. Tried before Judge Reese, Sept. term 1866

Susan Lively filed in August 1862 a bill against the estate of William R. Paschal, to obtain dower out of the lands of which, Lewis P. Harwell, a former husband of Mrs. Lively, died seized of; lands that Paschal claimed as a purchaser after Harwell's death.

Harwell died in August 1858 and the plaintiff claimed dower in these lands within one year thereafter. Mrs. Lively, before her marriage with Harwell, was a Miss Fielder, daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Fielder. In 1835, after the death of Richard Fielder, Harwell executed the following: "Received, Eatonton, February 18, 1835, of E. Fielder, 12 bags of cotton, now in Augusta, which I have an order on, and made in full payment of all my interest in the property of my wife, which is coming to her after her mother's death from the estate of Richard Fielder; and, also, that part that will fall to her from the will of her grandmother, Amelia Berford." This document was signed by Harwell and attested by 2 witnesses.

In 1841, Elizabeth Fielder, by deed of gift, conveyed to Joseph Johnson the legal estate in the property conveyed to her by the foregoing instrument, declaring in said deed of gift that "the proceeds and uses of which" said property "are for the sole benefit of the said Susan W. Harwell, for and during her natural life: and said property, "upon the death of Susan W. Harwell, to be divided among her brothers and sisters, if said Susan W. shall die without child or children."

In 1851, commissioners appointed by the Ordinary to make distribution of the estates of Richard and Elizabeth Fielder, (the latter having died in 1850) set apart to Harwell, as his share, in right of his wife, 14 negroes, valued at $7,725, with a charge thereon of $31.25, in favor of another distribute.

In March 1851 a bill was pending in Putnam Superior Court, filed by Harwell and wife against one Armstrong, as administrator of Fielder, and Joseph W. Johnson, trustee, praying for general relief, and for a decree against Johnson. After the death of Harwell, his wife remained in the possession and use of the Negroes until they were emancipated. (All stated relationships have been extracted but those interested should consult the original in the Georgia Reports for additional facts of this case. June term, 1860 at Macon
Daniel Shine v Redwine and wife
From Twiggs Superior Court. Tried before Judge Lamar, September term, 1859

Suit was brought by Columbus L. Redwine and wife against Daniel W. Shine, the administrator of Robert F. Glenn, deceased, (father of Mrs. Redwine) to account, and charging him with multiple acts of mismanagement and with having bought at his own pretended sales, large and valuable portions of the estate, which he then held or had appropriated to his own use. In 1837 Robert F. Glenn died intestate in Twiggs Co., leaving his widow (now Mrs. Shadrach Ware) and Mrs. Redwine as his only heirs at law. In January 1838 Shine, having qualified as Glenn's administrator, took possession of the large estate consisting of land, Negroes and stock.

To the charges of this suit, Daniel W. Shine answered: that Mrs. Redwine and her mother are the only heirs at law; that Mrs. Redwine was a minor up to the time of her marriage in 1856; that in May 1838 he sold 6 negroes, Bill, Lydia (and child), Guilford and Henry to G. L. Harrison, and Harriet to Gus McCrea. In 1845 he made the following sales: Mary (and her child, Wiley) to H. Bunn and Henry to William Herring. In 1850 he gave Harriet to his son, Daniel W. Shine and that Harriet and her children now constitute part of the estate of his son, Daniel W. Shine, who is dead. In 1855 or 1856 he gave Esther to his daughter, Mary Faulk. He further stated that in 1845 he did not sale all the Negroes because he desired to save some for his daughter (the widow of the deceased) and grandchild (Mrs.Redwine).

In an amendment to his answer, Daniel W. Shine, stated that a Negro named Pool was sold to Robert Paul, Charlotte was sold to A. McAllen, Harriet and her 2 children were given to his son, Daniel W. Shine, in 1850. He asserted that the sale of Negroes in 1845 was necessary because the widow had married Ware and the estate had to be closed up.

Read in evidence were testimonies from several men including Shadrach Ware, who testified that he was in Marion on the 1st Tuesday in January, 1845 when some of the Negroes were sold. Robert Paul testified. Counsel read in evidence that A. McAllen, if present, would testify that shortly after the 1845 sale he bought the Negro girl, Charlotte. James S. Miller testified that he acted as auctioneer for the defendant at both sales in 1838 and 1845 and that the sales were conducted fairly and the Negroes were bought at fair prices. Henry Bunn testified. Thomas Glover testified that he was at the sale in 1845, that he was a bidder, did not buy but would have if they had sold low. Lewis Solomon testified that he was Clerk of the Court of Ordinary when letters of dismission were granted to defendant. Gustavus McCrea testified that he was at the sale in 1838. Dr. Dupree testified that he was a creditor of Glenn at the time of Glenn's death to the amount of $3,000 or $4,000. Matthew Little testified that cotton in the winter of 1845 sold for 4 and ½ cents, and a year before for 10 cents.

In the lower court, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the complainants (Redwine and wife) for $6,500 and declared that the negroes, Guildford, Henry, Mary, Wiley and Charles were to be resold and half the proceeds paid to the complainants. That decision was upheld by the Georgia Supreme Court with the amount owed increased to $6,508.42. (This case names multiple Negroes, including approximate ages and some stated relationships not included here. Researchers are encouraged to consult the original account in Georgia Reports Vol. 30).

WML Needs Your Help!

Washington Memorial Library's Genealogical and Historical Room has been hit with budget cuts this year. As a result of library system budget cuts by the Bibb County Commissioners, the Genealogical & Historical Room lost an additional $35,000 in funding this year. The library system today is operating with approximately 70% to 80% of the budget allocated to the system 7 years ago. This year the Genealogical and Historical Room has no money from library administration for books, periodicals, microfilm or bindery and is relying on contributions from patrons and the public to meet those needs. That sounds alarming, doesn't it??!! Books, periodicals and microfilm are critical to finding our ancestors at WML. The library staff, however, has come up with a creative idea to raise needed funds to supplement the budget.

Barnes and Noble Books in Macon is teaming up with the Genealogical and Historical Room to raise money for the library. In this issue of the quarterly and in April's newsletter are vouchers that can be used with your purchases at Barnes and Noble during the week of April 24 through April 30. Barnes and Noble will donate to the Genealogical and Historical Room at least 15% of their proceeds from sales made with the vouchers. If there is less that $2,000 in sales, the library will receive 15% of the sales amount. If the total in sales is between $2,000 and $10,000, the library will receive 20% of the sales amount. If voucher sales for the week are greater than $10,000, the library will receive 25% of the sales amount. So, the more library supporters spend at Barnes and Noble with the vouchers, the more the library benefits.

The vouchers can be used at Barnes and Noble for books, magazines, special order books, book marks, book ends, reading glasses, bags of coffee to take home and maps. The vouchers can not be used toward membership cards, gift certificates, food or drink consumed in the store. Also, the book store will have a special table of books that the library would like to have added to the genealogical collection. Those "wish list" books, if purchased with the voucher, can then be donated to the library. The library not only receives the book but a percentage of the sale of the book as well. If duplicate copies are purchased, the library can exchange them for another needed book.

So, make your list and take it and the vouchers with you to Barnes and Noble. Summer is approaching. For vacation you'll need travel guides, maps, magazines, mysteries and bookmarks. Make copies of the vouchers and give them to your family, friends, neighbors and your genealogy buddies. Get ready to shop and benefit WML too!

JOHNSON FAMILY CEMETERY
Dooling, Georgia
Dooly Co., Ga.

From Montezuma - Take Highway 80 South past the turn off for Dooling to Johnson Cemetery Road, about ½ mile. Turn left on Johnson Cemetery Road and follow until you come to the cemetery on the left hand side of the road. It is a well maintained, still active, cemetery surrounded with a chain link fence. Just outside the fence is a covered table area that is apparently used for family gatherings. There is a sign that says the cemetery was established in 1813, however that is impossible since at that time, the area was Indian Territory. One of the markers had a strange looking 7 that was apparently mistaken for the number 1.

Surveyed by Helen Hudson and Davine V. Campbell

By Georgette Lipford

In June three CGGS members, Linda Douglas, Sherrie Nelson and Georgette Lipford attended the week long Institute of Genealogical and Historical Research at Samford University in Birmingham, Alabama. Although this was the first time that any of the three had attended, the Institute has been held annually for the past 44 years. During those years some of the most respected genealogists in the country have taught and shared their expertise with others. This year was no exception. All the faculty we encountered both in the classroom and at our dinner table were among the most respected and influential genealogists in the country.

The three CGGS members attended the Intermediate Research course, coordinated by Lloyd Bockstruck, Supervisor of the Genealogy section of the Dallas TX Public Library. Mr. Bockstruck taught classes on military and pension records, church records and westward expansion. Our other instructors included John Phillip Colletta, Christine Rose, Claire Bettag and Sandra Hargreaves Luebking. Each of these instructors gave very informative lectures, packed with detail and accompanied by lengthy handouts. Other courses offered this year at the IGHR included: Techniques & Technology, Research in the South, Part 1 (which had the highest attendance), Advanced Methodology and Evidence Analysis, Advanced Library Research, Writing & Publishing for Genealogists, Researching French Ancestors, Researching African American Ancestors, Scottish Genealogical Research and Advanced Analysis and Platting.

The week was packed with learning opportunities including classes all day and an evening lecture. The Special Collections at the Samford University Library was available with extended hours for research. Willowbend Books was set up near the cafeteria offering the latest books on methodology, military units, county histories, maps, etc. We purchased books by our instructors, Christine Rose and John Phillip Colletta and were able to have our books signed by the authors in class.

One aspect of the week long course that was most enjoyable was the opportunity to network with other researchers from all over the country. Our new friend, Louise, is a genealogy librarian from New York. Louise has attended IGHR multiple times before and had suggestions for getting the most from the experience. Pat, a genealogist from Colorado, gave us tips for boosting the membership of CGGS and ideas for CGGS programs. We also had a chance to visit with members of the Ocmulgee Genealogical and Historical Society from Macon. On Thursday we were pleasantly surprised to discover that Sherrie had been sitting next to a CGGS member all week, Laurel Craft of Decatur. And what are genealogists always on the look out for? Someone researching the same family names as ourselves! On the final night of the week at the banquet I met Marie from Raleigh, North Carolina and of course the conversation eventually turned to our research. We discovered that we both have Avant ancestors from North Carolina and could be cousins! Our experience at IGHR was memorable and provided a fresh focus for our research skills. We are already looking forward to next year.

By Linda Ward Meadows

Berry Wells was a large plantation owner and dealer of dry goods. His home was in the southwest corner of present day Cook Co., Ga. The ledger books maintained by Mr. Wells record transactions with neighbors in Telfair, Brooks and Berrien counties from 1832 to 1871. This installment is taken from the book, Berry Wells: Plantation Accounts, Deeds and Private Papers edited and published by Linda Ward Meadows. Linda has generously shared the book for publication in our quarterly but it is also available for sale. Information on purchasing the book follows this installment.

Editor's Note: the term "non compos mentis" means insane and is a very general term signifying all varieties of mental derangement. In law it might mean an idiot/natural fool; one who was of sound mind but by the act of God has lost it; a lunatic; or one who is a drunkard. Source: Henry Campbell Black. A Law Dictionary. A CGGS member recently came into possession of a small gold mine of original family documents. When his brother reported finding "some old papers" while cleaning out their Mother's house, the CGGS member pursued the discovery and was given a "Valuable Papers" folder with his great grandmother's name embossed on the front. Inside were more than 20 original deeds to family property in Bleckley Co. beginning with the original land grant and continuing through many subsequent owners to his great grandparents. Also in the folder was the original copy of his great-great-great uncle's 1858 will from Nash Co., North Carolina. The will named nieces (including his great-great grandmother), brothers and sisters. Imagine holding all that history in your hands!

Civil War Soldiers Who Died In New Orleans' Hospitals

Contributed by Cheryl Aultman

For generations newspapers have been bringing notice of war dead to the home front. As today we can read of soldiers from our own communities who have lost their lives in Iraq, so did our great grandparents read of their sons, husbands, brothers and friends who would not be returning home. The following list of soldiers was published on page 1 of the June 25, 1864 issue of the Macon Telegraph newspaper (Macon, Ga.), the information having been sent to the newspaper by a soldier who hoped to provide an answer, although an unhappy one, to worried families and friends.

"The following are the names of the Georgians and Alabamians who have been buried from the hospitals in New Orleans:

Georgia

Believing that these names have not been published, and that it might relieve the anxiety of their friends, I respectfully submit them to you for publication.

Respectfully yours,

Did You Know...

If you have joined CGGS in the last few years, you may have missed many earlier quarterly articles that would be helpful to your research. One project that CGGS would like to accomplish is a cumulative every name index of all previous quarterlies to make the material from previous years more accessible. Until that index is available the information below might be of use.

CGGS member Joyce Green (and Dawn Brasfield on one installment) abstracted deeds for Bibb Co., Ga. This series contains all deeds in Deed Book A and spans the period of 1822 to May 1826. The issues of the CGGS quarterly in which these installments appear are:

Vol. 18	No. 3, 4
Vol. 19	No. 1, 2, 3, 4
Vol. 20	No. 1, 2
Vol. 21	No. 4
Vol. 23	No. 1, 2, 3, 4
Vol. 24	No. 1

CGGS member Sherrie Nelson has abstracted deeds for Pike Co., Ga. The first deeds were recorded in April 1823. The most recent installment for Pike Co. deeds ended on p.105 of Deed Book A with deeds recorded in Dec. 1823. The quarterly issues in which Pike Co. deeds were published are:

Vol. 19	No. 3
Vol. 20	No. 1, 2, 3
Vol. 21	No. 1
Vol. 22	No. 2
Vol. 24	No. 1

Former quarterly editor, William Henry, published a subject index covering the first 14 volumes in issue No. 1, Vol. 15 (1993).

The Account Books of Berry Wells
Telfair and Lowndes Counties, Georgia

Berry Wells was a large plantation owner and dealer of dry goods. His home was in the southwest corner of present day Cook Co., Ga. The ledger books maintained by Mr. Wells record transactions with neighbors in Telfair, Brooks and Berrien counties from 1832 to 1871 and reveal a great deal about the economics of the period. This issue of the quarterly contains the final installment from the book, Berry Wells: Plantation Accounts, Deeds and Private Papers edited and published by Linda Ward Meadows. Linda has generously shared the book for publication in our quarterly but it is also available for sale. Copies of the book may be purchased at the cost of $18.50 by contacting the author at 9088 Val Del Rd., Adel, GA 31620 or by email at: lmeadows@surfsouth.com. The book is soft cover, spiral bound, 100 pages, indexed and contains all entries from Berry Wells' three ledger books, census entries for the Wells family, deeds, and other supporting material. Previous installments from this book can be found in CGGS quarterlies: Vol. 26, No. 2 & 3; Vol. 27, No. 2, 3 & 4 and Vol. 28, No. 2.

Dr. Matthew Harvey Means Family Cemetery

Elko, Houston County, Georgia

Surveyed & contributed by Elaine Turk Nell

[redacted]

Located in Elko, Houston County, Georgia off of SR 26, this small family cemetery is on property once owned by Dr. Matthew Harvey Means. However, there are many additional family members buried elsewhere.

After locating the cemetery in the summer of 2005, the contributor contacted members of the Lt. James T. Woodward (Camp 1399) Sons of Confederate Veterans of Warner Robins, Georgia, who graciously agreed to clean up the cemetery 12 Feb. 2005, as it was badly grown up with weeds and trees, etc. As a result of their efforts, additional gravesites were located, which are included below.

This writer has further information about the family of Matthew Harvey Means (including photographs & obituaries) and would like to hear from anyone interested or those who may have additional information to share.

Directions to cemetery from Macon, GA:

Charlee Duke's address is 875 Ellis Rd., Elko, GA 31025. The home in which she lives was supposedly built by a son of M. H. Means & Sarah Dunwoody Means (his 2nd wife), James D. Means, for his mother Sarah in the 1920s.

Ms. Duke's brother Ted Perfect lives across the street from her. His address is: 105 Perfect Rd., Elko, GA 31025. His home is said to be in the same location where Matthew Harvey Means's home was once located. As a courtesy, please notify Ms. Duke or Mr. Perfect upon your arrival that you will be looking at the cemetery.

CGGS 2005 Donation to Genealogy Room

In 2005 CGGS made a donation of $1,500 to the Genealogy Room of Washington Memorial Library. Rather than provide a "wish list" of needs as Librarian Willard Rocker and Archivist Christopher Stokes have done in past years for a CGGS donation, CGGS members were invited to assist in the selection of materials for purchase with the donation. Cheryl Aultman, Linda Douglas and Georgette Lipford happily accepted the challenge and formed a committee to help spend the money. Since microfilm reels of North Carolina county records were available at an especially attractive price, the committee designated a large portion of the donation for that purpose. Later, books on North Carolina records were selected as well as books on Georgia counties. The committee will also assist in the selection of purchases to be made with the 2006 CGGS donation. Below is a listing of the purchases made with the 2005 donation. These books and microfilms are now available for your use at the library. Happy hunting!

Follendore & Thomas Cemeteries

Rutland District, Bibb Co. Georgia

By Sherrie Nelson

In the fall of 2006, I was contacted by cousins concerned about a land development encroaching upon two family cemeteries. This article attempts to provide a brief description of the Follendore and Thomas family cemeteries located in the Rutland district of Bibb County, Georgia. As of this writing, family members are in contact with the developers and have expressed their wishes that the cemeteries be left intact. Family members that provided information for this article include Wesley Mercer of [redacted] and Robert (Bobby) & Marie Riezinger of [redacted] Others that assisted me include Virginia Crilley (Bibb County US Genweb webmaster) and James Allen. My sincere thanks to all. –Sherrie Nelson

Marker for Joseph Follendore

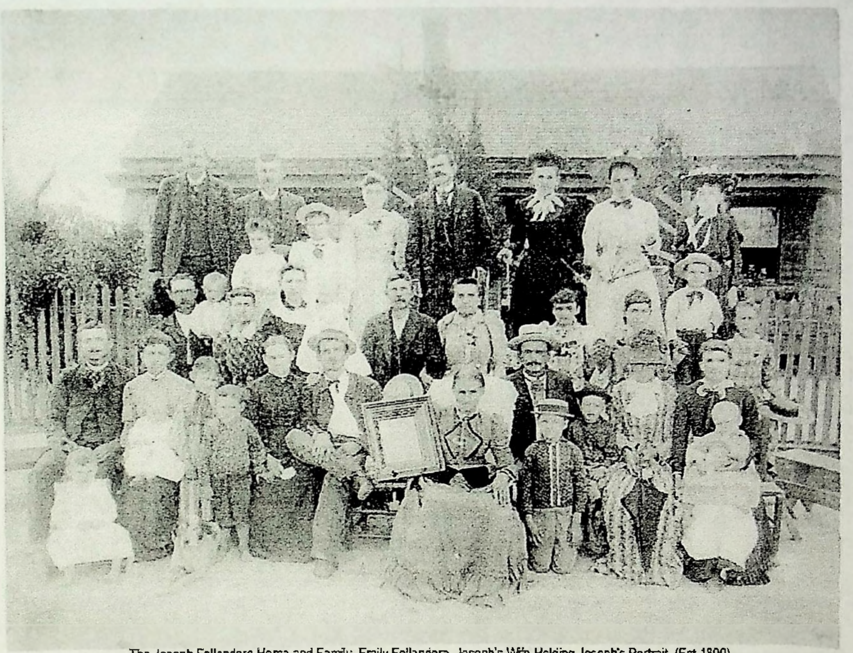
Follendore Cemetery

The Follendore Family cemetery contains three grave markers; however, a recent archeological survey determined that six graves were present. This cemetery is located just off Hartley Bridge Road in Bibb County, Georgia. At the I-75 bridge at Hartley Bridge Road go west toward Lizella. About 100 yards on the right just past the Waffle House and Stuckey's old store is an open field that is being developed by Moon Family Properties. There is a very old barn that is visible from the roadway right now, but will probably be torn down for the development. Just behind the barn is a small wooded area. To the rear of the wooded area are the grave markers. There was about a 30 x 15 area that was fenced at one time, but the fence is now down. Burials include:

Follendore, Joseph F. Sr. Co. "A", 54th Regiment, C.S.A. "Lamar Infantry"
Born March 18, 1818, Died August 2, 1882

Follendore, Joseph F. Jr., Born May 18, 1850, Died March 12, 1871

Follendore, Noah W., Born c. 1856, Died August 31, 1880, age 24 years



The Joseph Follendore Home and Family. Emily Follendore, Joseph's Wife Holding Joseph's Portrait. (Est 1890)
Joseph died 1882 and is buried on site in Joseph Follendore Cemetery with father Charles Frederick Vollendor. Three infant unnamed children, and several others in unmarked dirt mound graves. Son who died in Civil War is buried in Rose Hill Cemetery in Macon. (2/15/1991)

Pictured above is the Joseph Follendore family circa 1888-9. Joseph Follendore died in1882 and pictured is his widow, Emily Reben Follendore (1824-1914), lovingly holding his portrait surrounded by many family members. Also, to the immediate left of Emily Follendore is William Follendore (b. abt 1879), to the left of William and slightly to his rear is Charles Edgar Follendore (1881-1951). Charles, who was called Charlie, is seated between his parents Daniel Follendore (1851-1908) and Lucindy C. Knight Follendore (1850-1915). To Lucindy's left is her mother Minerva Knight (b.1831) who is holding Walter H. Follendore (1888-1966). Behind Daniel and slightly to his left is

Gravesite in the Seaborn Thomas Cemetery

Seaborn Thomas Cemetery

According to researcher Marci Welch, Seaborn Thomas is buried in this area. A recent archaeological survey determined at least two graves were present at this site. An 1897 Land Lot Map of Bibb County, Rutland District, (see map pg. 201) shows Land Lot 88 owned by S. Thomas and N. Thomas. Other surnames in the immediate vicinity include Follendore, Hunnicut, Stokes, Henry, Skipper, Cherry and many others.

The cemetery that we believe contains the remains of Seaborn Thomas is located as follows. From Hartley Bridge Rd., take the dirt road next to the convenience store onto the Moon property. Stay to right near the tree line; the road goes down the hill and back up the hill. As you climb the hill, the road forks. Stop and look up the hill to your right.

There are several cedar trees surrounding these graves. This cemetery has no headstones, only brick and cement type markers. One family member, who is now nearly 80 years old, remembers as a boy helping to clean the gravesites during visits to his grandmother. The graves used to be covered with mounds of rocks. The family would remove all the rocks, pull the weeds, rake the dirt and mound the rocks back on top of the grave.

Seaborn Thomas' obituary was published in the Macon Telegraph on March 11, 1905. It reads as follows: "Death of an Aged Confederate Veteran. Mr. Seaborn Thomas died very suddenly Thursday at his home in the Rutland district. He had been in declining health for the past two years, and his sudden death was a shock to his numerous friends. Mr. Thomas was a member of the R. A. Smith Camp Confederate Veterans, and during the war served as a private in Co. B, 27th Georgia regiment. The funeral services will occur this (Saturday) morning at 11 o'clock from his home near Rutland, Rev. T. C. Hunnicutt, of Hopewell Baptist church will conduct the services and the interment will be in the family burial ground."

Means Family of Houston Co., Ga. Obituaries

Contributed by Elaine Turk Nell
Email: [redacted]

Issue # 3, Vol. 28 of the CGGS quarterly contained Elaine's article on the Matthew H. Means Cemetery in Elko and a FGS for Matthew and his first wife, Martha Virginia Lester. This issue continues with additional material on this family including obituaries, the Means – Lane Cemetery, family photographs and a FGS for Matthew Means and his second wife, Sallie Dunwody.

DR. MATTHEW HARVEY MEANS:
The Macon Telegraph, Sunday morning, 22 December 1889, page 5, column 4
"At the Point of Death.

Word came to the city yesterday to the effect that Mr. W. H. Means [sic; should be "Mr. M. H. Means"], a prominent citizen of Elcho [sic; should be "Elko"], near Cordele, was expected to die. His condition was considered so serious that a casket was ordered yesterday afternoon from one of the undertakers of Macon."

The Macon Telegraph, Tuesday morning, 24 December 1889, page 1, column 6
"Death of Dr. Means.

ELKO, Dec. 23 - (Special) - Dr. M. H. Means of this place died Saturday, the 21st, and was buried to-day at the family cemetery. Dr. Means was in his 71st year. He has been a sufferer for several years with paralysis."

MARTHA VIRGINIA (LESTER) MEANS, 1st w/o Dr. Matthew Harvey Means:
Hawkinsville Dispatch, Thursday morning, 21 October 1875, page 3, column 1
"Sudden Death of Mrs. Dr. Means.

Mrs. Means, the estimable wife of Dr. M. H. Means, of Hickory Grove, Houston county, died suddenly, from heart disease, on Wednesday morning of last week."

The Southern Christian Advocate, Wednesday, November 17, 1875, Page 184, Column 4:

"Mrs. M.V. Means, wife of Dr. M.H. Means, was born in Jones county, Ga., February 10, 1831; married February 9, 1845; and died very suddenly in Houston county, Ga., October 13, 1875.

She leaves a bereaved husband and seven children, to whom she was assiduously devoted, to mourn her death. Although not allowed a parting word, we rejoice in the belief, that, while the call of the grim messenger was so unexpected to her family and friends, it was not to her without premonition. We have no doubt that when the bridegroom came, her lamp was trimmed and burning; as she frequently remarked in conversing with her husband and friends, on her favorite topic, (religion) that she felt her days were few, and her death would be sudden. She did not fear death and felt sure of an entrance into that blissful abode prepared for the pure in heart. Her great earthly desire was that her children should be raised to love the right, become good and useful Christians. During her lifetime she suffered a full share of the ills to which human flesh is heir; yet it affords consolation to her bereaved ones, to know that no pains were spared to render her life pleasant. Who knows the value of a loving wife and mother but those from whom one has been taken! SON."

SALLIE (DUNWODY) MEANS, 2nd w/o Dr. Matthew Harvey Means:
The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, 21 December 1922, page 6, column 2
"Death of Mrs. Means

Mrs. Sallie Dunwody Means youngest daughter of the late Rev Jones Dunwody, of Houston County quietly passed away at her home in Elko December 3rd, 1922. Having been reared in a Christian home it was quite natural for her to manifest the beauties of a Christian life in her own home.

This she did her long life through, honesty, truthfulness and sincerity were the jewels that bedecked her life and her controlling principle was "let the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight O, Lord, my strength and my redeemer" for in "her tongue was the law of kindness." No rough language has ever been heard to escape the lips of "Aunt Sallie." She carried about with her the sunshine of heaven. Many years ago, she set her house in order, and was only waiting for her welcome to the shore. For many long years she suffered ill health and could not enjoy the pleasures of life, but she bore it all with wonderful patience, at all times reflecting the beauties of the "cloud's silver lining," because she had set her afflictions on things above, and looked upward.

Her pastor testified to her beautiful Christian character; and the beautiful floral tribute evidenced the esteem in which she was held. After many weeks of intense suffering, death came to her relief and now her battle is fought, her victory won and her life's warfare is ended.

Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away.
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day;
Nor sink those stars in empty night
But hide themselves in heaven's own light.

She leaves in sorrow one son, four grand-children two step sons, two step daughters three nieces two nephews, but we all know where to find her.

Mary E. Houser, Grovania"

JAMES DAVID MEANS, s/o Dr. Matthew H. Means & Martha Virginia (Lester) Means:

Obituaries of Houston County, Georgia, Abstracted from the Georgia Journal and Messenger, Macon, Ga., 1825-1869 and the Houston Home Journal, Perry, GA., 1870-1912: "James D. Means, son of Dr. M. E. PAULINE (POOL) MEANS, w/o Zollicoffer ("Zollie") Beauregard Means (he was s/o Dr. M. H. & Martha Virginia (Lester) Means):

The Atlanta Constitution, Thursday, 29 March 1906, page 2
"Mrs. Z. B. Means, Macon, Ga

Macon, Ga, March 28 - (Special) - Mrs. Z. B. Means, wife of Z. B. Means, livery man died at the family home on Third street this morning after a brief illness. She had suffered a severe attack of pneumonia. A husband and five small children survive her. She is survived by her husband, and six children, her mother, one sister, Mrs. J. L. Eubanks, of Elko, and one brother, F. W. Pool of Henderson, and many other relatives.

The funeral was attended by a large number of her relatives and friends. All the business houses in Elko were closed at the time.

With the bereaved ones, their many friends sincerely sympathies. X."

LEILA (HOGAN) MEANS, w/o Matthew Singleton Means (he was a nephew of Dr. M. H. Means & Wm. Means):
The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, 18 April 1895, page 3, column 6
"DEATH AT ELKO.

Mrs. Leila Means, wife of Mr. M. S. Means, died at her home at Elko last Sunday night. She had been ill for several weeks, but was thought to be much improved on Friday and Saturday. Heart trouble, we are told, was the immediate cause of her death.

The interment was at the Elko cemetery Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Means was about 33 years old, a most lovable christian lady, a consistent member of the Elko Methodist church.

She leaves a devoted husband, two daughters, one son and other relatives, and with these sorely bereaved ones, hosts of friends sincerely sympathise."

WALTER E. MEANS, s/o Dr. Matthew Harvey Means & Sarah (Dunwody) Means:
"Death of W. E. Means.

Early last Saturday morning Mr. Walter E. Means died at his home in Elko, after an illness of about two weeks. The burial was in the family cemetery Sunday morning.

Mr. Means was about 35 years of age, a son of the late Dr. M. H. Means, and is survived by his devoted wife, one son and one daughter, four brothers and two sisters.

A Steward of the Methodist Church, a Mason, a public spirited citizen, he made a record of business activity and constructive ability. In business affairs he was mainly instrumental in establishing the Bank of Elko, and was its president, he reconstructed the brick warehouse, built an up-to-date ginnery, besides managing his extensive farming interests.

The measure of his success is a result; his progressive activity and indomitable perseverence undoubtedly added much to the material interest of the community in which he lived.

In public affairs he was always in-interested [sic], and his convictions were always positive.

Well known and most highly esteemed, his death is a positive loss to the community and the county.

With the bereaved family and other loved relatives, his many friends sincerely sympathise."

Henderson News.

"The many friends of Mr. Walter E. Means, of Elko, throughout this section were greatly shocked to hear of his death early Saturday morning. We never knew a more loyal man to his friends than Walter Means, being possessed with untiring energy and great enterprise, he will be missed to a great extent in the community in which he lived."

SALLIE (GAINES) MEANS, w/o Walter E. Means:

"Death of Mrs. W. E. Means.

Mrs. Sallie Gains Means, wife of Mr. Walter E. Means died at their home at Elko last Monday night.

It was reported here Tuesday morning that she was stung by bees, that she fainted and never recovered consciousness, but this report has not been verified. From reports concerning recent illness, it is concluded that she died of heart trouble. We regret our inability to obtain particulars.

She was a most excellent christian lady, and her friends were all those who knew her.

Surviving her are the devoted husband, a son two years old, two brothers and two sisters.

To the bereaved ones, their many friends extend sincere sympathy.

The Heavenly Father hath but claimed His own."

WILLIAM AND SUSAN (LANE) MEANS:

The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, August 21, 1902, page 3, column 1

"Fifty Years United

The crowning social event of the season, of Elko, was the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Means at their hospitable home last Saturday. Mr. Means and wife were as bright, jovial and entertaining as they were on their first entrance into the train that has been running these fifty years. They have lived where they now reside for forty-eight years. They then, of course, have known all who have lived and now live in this vicinity for these many years, and their friends are those who know them. There were only two who congratulated the happy couple at this their golden wedding who were present at their marriage--Mrs. Sallie E. Means (nee Miss Dunwoody) and Prof. T.A.E. Means.

The home was beautifully decorated, and looked so fresh, tender and pleasing to the eye. It naturally caused the aged to think of their tender and youthful years before their foreheads and cheeks had been traced by these many years.

The invitations read from 10 to 4 o'clock, and for those hours their granddaughter, Miss Emmie Means, and Miss Mary Killen of Perry, received the guests. Mrs. W.L. Means, assisted by Mrs. W.R. Davis and Mrs. J.M. Poole, attended to the satisfying of the inner man with all that was capable of satisfying, while Misses Sulu Means and Clyd Buff served apollinaris lemonade from a bowl buried in ferns and entwined in vines.

The presents were many and all very pretty and handsome. No one could know better how to appreciate these tokens of love and friendship, than this happy couple. A list of all who attended, would be infringing your space, as there were over one hundred. Besides the congregation, the bride and groom received many letters from old friends, who could not be present, making many pleasant wishes.

Everyone present expressed themselves as being most pleasantly entertained and with a new resolve to tread the remainder of their untrodden years in more usefulness and exert better influence--as has this noble and christian couple.

This is the third "Golden Wedding" that has been celebrated in Mr. Means family. His brothers, Mr. Jno. Means and Mr. Anderson Means, having preceeded him in this happy event. REPORTER. Elko, Ga."

"A Golden Wedding In Elko.

So rarely does wedding life extend to the fiftieth mile post that a golden wedding is of great interest. A most enjoyable occasion was that which brought together a host of relatives, neighbors and friends to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. William Means, Saturday, Aug. 15th.

These dear good people whose faces are now turning towards life's sun setting, have lived lives worthy of closest imitation. Pure and guileless and deeply pious, they have been a benediction in the home and community.

A number of appropriate gifts spoke eloquently of the high esteem in which they were held.

And the dinner we will not attempt to describe the many good things to eat, but will simplp [sic; should be "simply"] say it was indeed abundant and appetizing.

When at last the guests bade adieu to the silver-haired bride and groom, it was with the wish that many more happy and useful years would be added to their lives.

A GUEST. Perry, Ga."

The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, 7 August 1902, page 2, column 2

"On the 17th of August, 1852, Mr. William Means and Miss Susan Lane were married. On Saturday of next week, August 16th, the fiftieth anniversary of that happy event will be celebrated at the home of the aged couple near Elko. If every moment of these fifty years have been filled with pure joy, and earthly goods are their's in abundant store, they deserve it all and more. They are good people and true, and we are glad the opportunity of saying it is at hand."

"Death of Mr. William Means

At his home near Elko Mr. William Means died last Monday, he having been in declining health a year or more.

In addition to the church service, Masonic honors were conferred at the burial Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Means was about 80 years old, a farmer all his life, an exemplary member of the Methodist church, a true christian, a Mason, a man whose excellent qualities won the confidence and friendship of all who knew him.

Of the immediate family only the devoted wife and one son survive him. Though there are a number of grand children and many other relatives.

The life of Mr. Means was indeed well and worthily spent, and now the good man has been called to his eternal reward.

The bereaved wife, son, grandchildren and other near relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends."

The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, June 16, 1904, Page 7, column 1:

"Resolutions on the Death o [sic;should be "of"] Mr. Wm. Means.

At the midnight hour of May 9, 1904, the Angel of Death entered the home of Mr. William Means and bore his saintly spirit to the realms of eternal bliss.

Brother Means was the oldest member of our Sunday school, and, unless providentially hindered, his seat was never vacant. He was a true follower of his Savior, one who at all times stood up for God and the right. He always responded liberally to every call for help, and led a life worthy of emulation. May his mantle fall on some one and his example inspire us to work more zealously for the upbuilding of the Master's kingdom. While we often gaze on his vacant seat with sad hearts, knowing we shall never meet him in our Sunday school again, we bow in humble submission to the will of God, knowing that our loss in his eternal gain, and resolve,

1st. That in the death of Brother Means our Sunday school has lost one of its most faithful and zealous workers.

2. That we will ever cherish a fond memory of his high and exemplary christian character, and strive to so live that when the Pearly Gates are opened we may meet him on the shores of eternal deliverence.

3. That we extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy, and pray that they may enjoy a happy reunion in the land where parting is no more.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, one placed on our Sunday school record, also a copy sent to Home Journal for publication.

Mrs. J.D. Marshall, Mrs. J.F. Houser, Mrs. C.J. Marshall, Elko, Ga. Committee"

ZILPHA LANE, w/o Sanders Lane, mother of Susan (Lane) Means:

The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, 2 May 1895, page 3, column 4

"Death of Mrs. Lane

One last Wednesday, a little while after the morning stars had melted into the glorious day, the gentle life of Mrs. Zilpha Bryan Lane, after several weeks of patient suffering, closed forever, and as the star of her sweet life melted into the cloudless dawn of heaven, her loved ones gathered around her bedside as the death angel silently and gently touched her pallied eyelids. Though tears fell hot and heavily from the eyes of the loved ones who gazed at the pale form, a life of religious piety had prepared the gentle sufferer for this last scene, and her spirit was filled with rejoicing as she passed out from the frail tabernacle of flesh, and knew that her sufferings would forever end as soon as she partook of that tree whose fruit is for the healing of all nations.

Mrs. Lane, with her husband, the late Sanders Lane, moved to Georgia from North Carolina in 1830, and settled on Big Indian Creek ten miles northwest of Perry, where they resided for many years. It was during their life in that section of the county that it became necessary for Mr. Lane to visit Savannah, which was then the seat of government, to have his land titles made secure; the entire trip on foot, while the good wife cared for the home and conducted the farm. A few years later they were prosperous, and bought and built the beautiful home near Hickory Grove, where both husband and wife died.

She was the mother of eleven children. Of these only two were boys, both of whom entered the Confederate service, and died in defense of their homes."

FRANK N. MEANS, s/o William Means & Susan (Lane) Means:

The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, 27 January 1887, page 3, column 4

"Death of Prof. F. N. Means

Prof. Frank N. Means died Tuesday night at the residence of his father Mr. Wm. Means, at Spoonville in this county. The cause of his death was typhoid dysentery, and he had been sick about three weeks. The burial will take place at the family cemetery.

Prof. Means was about 33 years old, a most excellent man in every respect. He removed from Houston in 1881, and taught school at Eatonton. He then came to Fort Valley and taught in 1885, and from there he went to Butler. He was recently elected Principal of the College at Jonesboro, and was under contract to teach there. He was very successful as a teacher, and had already won a position in the front rank of his chosen profession. He was eminently a gentleman and a scholar, whose death will fill with sorrow the hearts of his many friends throughout the country. He was truly held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Besides the loving father and mother, a devoted wife and four children are rendered desolate by his death. Many other relatives share in the bereavement.

The tender sympathies of many friends are with the sorrowing ones in their loss.

LANNIE MEANS, d/o William Lane Means & Martha Theresa (Bradberry) Means, granddaughter of Wm. & Susan (Lane) Means:

The Home Journal (Perry, GA), Thursday, 30 May 1901, page 3, column 3

"In Memory of Miss Lannie Means.

When the news reached Elko Sunday at noon that Lannie was dead, it caused many a heart to ache. She had not yet blossomed into womanhood, but was a bud, sweet and tender. She was the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Means, and was an elder sister in deed and in truth. Her manner and style would not impress one that she was of so tender an age, for she had the care and thought of one much older. She was only fourteen, yet if her little sisters and brothers could only get to Lannie with their little troubles, it suited them as well as mama. Her friends were numbered by her acquaintences. She was an obedient and affectionate child, the pride and joy of both parents and grand-parents. The writer is very thankful that it was his privilege to spend several nights at her home only a short time ago. During my stay she was most attentive and anxious to make me feel at home. She showed me several school reports; 100 was a prominent mark, for she stood first in all her studies.

We cannot sing with the poet, "We never prize the music, till the sweet voiced bird has flown," for we have always prized Lannie and it grieves our hearts sorely to think we will never see her again in this life. The blow does seem so hard, but we willingly submit to the unerring Providence of our Heavenly Father, Who does all things for the best. Lannie is not dead; she has only gone before us to that Home beyond the skies where she stands at the Pearly gates beckoning loved ones to come.

May God bless us all and help us to follow those "Beckoning Hands," We'll meet again, Bye and Bye, In the realms of endless Glory. We will meet, yes. Bye and Bye.

COUSIN, ZOLLIE.

[This most estimable young lady died in Macon, where her parents had made their home for the purpose of securing the excellent school advantages of that city. We join the many friends of the bereaved family in extending sincere sympathy in the hours of their great sorrow. --Ed.]"

This small family cemetery is located in a community once called Spoonville, near Elko in Houston Co., GA. There are some of my family members, including William Means, believed to be buried in this cemetery but for whom no marker now exists. Many other family members are buried elsewhere. When another Means researcher, Frank Christmas, visited the cemetery several years ago, he saw the marker for William Means and recorded the information on it as:

Can't Get Enough Genealogy?

By Georgette Lipford

Despite the library research, society meetings, journals, methodology books, popular press magazines and on-line research, sometimes I'm still searching for more on genealogy. Often I can satisfy that need with email contacts or brain storming sessions with friends. If you've exhausted all those methods of genealogical entertainment, try something a little different and delve into the world of fiction. There are several novels and mystery series in which genealogy, or close encounters with ancestors, figures prominently in the plot. In several of these books the main character is a professional genealogist. If the number of mysteries published in recent years involving genealogists is any indication, authors recognize the advantage of a character possessing investigative skills, a knowledge of government records, the internet and an inquisitive mind. These books may not add a new branch to your family tree or teach you any new research techniques but they sure are fun! Below are a few of the books that fall into this category.

1. The Torie O'Shea mystery series by Rett MacPherson – Fictional genealogist Torie O'Shea lives in Missouri and works for a small town historical society. I have read 4 books in this series and enjoyed them all. There is some detail of specific resources and library research. Torie uses genealogical reasoning as she solves present day and historical mysteries with the typical tools of the genealogist such as census schedules, newspapers, photographs, etc. Books in this series include: Thicker Than Water, Blood Relations, In Sheep's Clothing, Killing Cousins (my favorite so far), Family Skeletons (the first book in the series) and others.

2. Pale As The Dead and Bloodline by Fiona Mountain – "Ancestor detective" Natasha Blake began her career in genealogy to solve the mystery of her own parentage after discovering that she was adopted. She lives in England and while working for a client uncovers a hidden crime from generations ago.

3. The Nick Herald genealogical mystery series by Jimmy Fox – Fictional character Nick Herald is a professional genealogist and ex-college professor living in New Orleans. Titles include: Jackpot Blood, Lineages and Lies and Deadly Pedigree.

4. Murder Once Removed by Kathleen Kunz – Professional genealogist, Terry Girard and her aunt were partners in a St. Louis research service until the death of her aunt, apparently a suicide. Terry believes otherwise and pursues the investigation among her aunt's recent clients.

5. The Famous DAR Murder Mystery by Graham Landrum – Four DAR members visit a graveyard to mark a patriot's grave and discover a body. They take up the investigation into the dead man's identity using their genealogical skills. Another book by the same author is The Historical Society Murder Mystery.

6. The Mirror by Marlys Millhiser – On the eve of her wedding, Shay Garrett stares into a family heirloom mirror and is transported back through time 75 years, awakening in the body of her grandmother, Brandy, who is likewise preparing for her wedding day. This is a wonderful story about family and how the lives of our ancestors can affect who we are. After reading this book I wanted to share it with all my genealogy friends.

7. Outlander by Diana Galbaldon – This is one of my all time favorite books. The story begins in 1945 as Claire and Frank take a 2nd honeymoon to Inverness, Scotland. Frank is an historian and has spent many years compiling his family's genealogy. Claire is not in the least interested in genealogy but when she steps between 2 standing stones at a site similar to Stonehenge she time travels to 18th century Scotland and finds herself face to face with Frank's look-a-like gggg-grandfather. This book is fast paced and Claire has one adventure after another with Jamie Fraser and his highlander family. I learned a great deal about Scottish history and the culture of the highland clans from Outlander. There are to date 6 books in this series and they are all very good but genealogy is only really an element of the story in the first one.

The above list of books is by no means exhaustive and contains only those books that I have encountered as I pursue my addictions for reading and haunting libraries or bookstores. Many of these books are available at your local library or through interlibrary loan. If you are a member of a Georgia library that belongs to the Pines system, you can search the Pines catalog online and request books from any library in the system with a click of the mouse. A search on Amazon.com turned up nearly every book listed above. I like the Amazon site because it has book reviews and links to online sites selling used books at reduced prices. Happy reading!

Correction to Bibb Co. Will of Julia Fort Huguenin

Laverne Bailey of Macon, GA has provided information that corrects errors in the will of Julia F. Huguenin, as it was printed in CGGS quarterly # 2, Vol. 26. Julia Emily Fort Huguenin was the widow of Edward David Huguenin and d/o Tomlinson Fort and Martha Low Fannin. On page 59 where her will reads "I will the balance of estate to my children Mathew F., Eliza V., Edward, John E. and Dora Huguenin", 'Mathew' should read Martha and 'John' should read Julia. Laverne offers the additional information that Martha Fannin Huguenin married Joseph Marshall Johnston June 14, 1871. Girl Scout Camp Martha Johnston in central Georgia is named for her. Julia Emily died of measles at age 3. Her younger sister's name was then changed to Julia Dora.

Julia Fort Huguenin's brother was George W. Fort. His will is in issue #3, Vol. 26. Edward D. Huguenin's will is on page 23 of issue # 1, Vol. 26. These two wills provide additional details on this Bibb Co. family.

C.G.G.S. QUARTERLY SURNAME INDEX VOL. 28, FOR THE YEAR 2006

COMPILED BY HELEN SHIRAH HUDSON

Note: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 through No. 4 for the year 2005. Pages 1-58 are in No. 1, Pages 59-112 are in No. 2, Pages 113-168 are in No. 3 and Pages 169-228 are in No. 4. A dash between page numbers means that the name also appears on each page between such numbers. For example, 5-10 means that the name appears on pages 5,6,7, 8,9, and 10. Check very carefully because a name may appear more than one time per designated page. Surnames are spelled in many forms. Look for all imaginable spellings. There are times when the same document will have a surname spelled two different ways. A surname may be spelled the way the recorder heard it and be very different from the spelling that your family uses today. I suggest that you run down the complete index listing and see if any strange spellings show up for your surname. Page 201 is a plat map dated 1897 for a portion of Southern Bibb County. Surnames that I could read were indexed but if you have family who may have lived in that area, you will need to check the plat over for yourself.

This ends the abstracts of the Crawford County Superior Court Minutes 1830-1844. These abstractions were made by William R. "Bill" Henry before his death. He did not live long enough to edit his abstractions and I have done my best to do so. The microfilm for this record is not in Washington Memorial Library. To check for further and complete information on any records that may be of interest to you, you will have to go to the Crawford County Court house or find another depository that has the microfilm. CARMACK CEMETERY
DOOLY COUNTY, GEORGIA

Surveyed December 2006 by Davine V. Campbell and Helen S. Hudson

Located North East from Vienna. Take Hwy. 27 East from Vienna, pass LANE CEM. which is on your left, the next road to your left goes to LUPO CEM. Then, the next road to your left, Noble Gin Rd. takes you to CARMACK CEMETERY, which will be on your right, next to a house, across from a pecan orchard.

A small Family Cemetery, not currently used but recently the markers have been cleaned, probably by a professional. It is fenced with the gate on the house side of the cemetery. It appears in the Powell's book on Dooly County as #35 We started on the east end, south side.

Carmack Cemetery as seen from the road or west side. Two stones in the center (small stone-Cherry Ann Elizabeth Carmack and large stone-James M. Carmack) appear to have been freshly cleaned, probably by a professional. There is a cement edge that runs along the inside of the fence, perhaps to stabilize the fence and the road edge of the cemetery.

LUPO FAMILY CEMETERY

Surveyed December 2006 by Davine V. Campbell and Helen S. Hudson

Located on Lupo Cemetery Road. Turn left or North off of Hwy 27, east of Vienna. Cemetery will be on your left. It is #36 in the Powell's Dooly County Book. This cemetery is still active. It is surrounded by farm land, well kept with an area on the south side of it that is grassed and is probably used for parking during funerals and gatherings at the cemetery. We surveyed starting at the north end of the west side by the road.

More Genealogical Nuggets from Georgia Supreme Court Cases

By Georgette Lipford

This article is continued from the CGGS quarterly Vol. 28, issue no.1 of 2006 which contained a short history on the Georgia Supreme Court. The cases from that issue and the ones that follow are taken from various volumes of the Georgia Reports. The accounts of a court case that are published in the Georgia Reports usually contain details of the case not recorded in the county Superior Court minutes. The Georgia Reports can be found in law libraries, including the Furman Smith Law Library at Mercer University in Macon, and in some county courthouses. There is not a printed every name index to the Georgia Reports. The cases presented below are summarized from the account published in the Georgia Reports. The reader is encouraged to seek out the original for further specifics of the parties and details. An attempt has been made to discern every stated relationship from the cases and to correctly interpret the language and judgments of the court. This installment includes cases from Twiggs, Monroe, Houston, Jones and Macon counties.

1. Georgia Reports, Vol. 65, p.102
February Term, 1880
Saulsbury, Respass & Company v. McCallum, executrix
From Twiggs Superior Court

On the eighth day of April, 1874, the plaintiffs loaned to McCallum $1,034 and on the same day took a deed from McCallum and wife to his homestead which had been set apart to him as head of a family on the 26th day of March, 1874, with the approval of the ordinary thereon, to secure the payment of said loan. A bond to reconvey upon payment of the money was executed at the same time. The plaintiffs afterwards obtained judgment for their said debt, and then executed a deed conveying the land to McCallum, and filed the same in the clerk's office and had an execution levied on to satisfy their judgment. McCallum being dead, his wife, who was in possession of the homestead, filed an affidavit of illegality alleging that said property had been set apart as a homestead and was not subject to levy and sale in satisfaction of plaintiffs' judgment. The court held and decided that the homestead was not subject to levy and sale, whereon the plaintiffs excepted. McCallum and his wife remained in possession of the homestead until his death, and she has been in possession of it ever since. The judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

2. Georgia Reports, Vol. 65, p. 564
September Term, 1880
Lowe, guardian v. Burkett
From Twiggs Superior Court, March Term 1880

Lowe as guardian levied a fi fa on a tract of land as the property of Burkett. It was claimed by Mrs. Burkett. The sheriff's entry of the original declaration stated that the defendant, Burkett, had been served only 14 days, instead of 15 days before court. On the bench docket the names of counsel were marked for the defendant. The following entry was in Judge B. Hill's (then judge of the court) handwriting: "Oct. adj., 1873, appearance term of term. April T., 1874, put to heel. Oct. T., 1874, judgt." The defendant appeared in court with his counsel, Hall & Poe, and J.H. Jones.

3. Georgia Reports, Vol. 65, p. 169 – 177
February Term, 1880

Hathorn et al. v. Maynard
From Monroe Superior Court, August Term, 1879

B.M. Hathorn sold and conveyed to John B. Maynard 700 acres of land known as the Greer place. His sons, N.W. Hathorn and N.J. Hathorn, filed their bill in equity against him and John B. Maynard, in which they alleged that he was a trustee for their mother, Narcissa L. Hathorn, and themselves, and that the property sold was theirs in trust; that the said Maynard, who purchased it, knew it was their trust property, although the title was in the said B.M. Hathorn. The prayer [request] of the bill was that the said B.M. Hathorn be removed from his trust, and that the deed be canceled. The defendant, Maynard, denied the material allegations against him, and upon the trial, under the evidence and the charge of the court, the jury [in Monroe Superior Court] found in his favor. According to the evidence, Hathorn had managed and controlled this estate himself from 1858 to the time of the trial This suit was brought by the sons against the father and uncle, and joined in by the wife against the husband and brother, to set up a trust that appears to have been abandoned for many years, and was resurrected to defeat the recovery by Maynard of the Greer place, who not only had paid honest money for it, but by his timely aid saved for his sister and her children, two of whom are the complainants, much of what remains to them. The jury appeared to believe witnesses, Hanson and Mrs. White and their testimony that the money borrowed from them went to pay for the Greer place, as Hathorn himself stated to them, so that it never was any part of the trust estate. Apparently, Hathorn and his wife took a deed jointly to the Barron place at an earlier date and it may have been the original deed of trust. Hathorn then mingled money from the sale of the Barron property with his own, from which money he may have purchased the Greer place.

4. Georgia Reports, Vol. 65, p. 194-196
February Term, 1880
Gray Brothers et al. v. Gray
From Houston County

Mrs. D. L. Gray filed a bill for alimony in equity saying that her husband, P.N. Gray, on 7 February 1880, abandoned her, and has since that time written to her that he never intended to return; that he made no provision for the support of her or their infant child, although possessed of ample means to do so; that just before leaving with the intent and purpose to defeat and prevent her from getting that support which law would give them, he sold or pretended to sell, to Gray Brothers, the defendant's near relatives, all his real and personal estate with knowledge on their part of his purpose. She further stated that even if the sale were a real one, that the money has not been paid, but held by the purchasers, and if not real but a pretended sale, the ownership is still in P.N. Gray, her husband, and that this transaction was had to defeat the rights of herself and child. It is also alleged that this land had before then been rented for the present year to the defendant, Sandifer, for nine bales of cotton, for which he gave his note, and if it has been traded, that the purchaser as well as the said Sandifer, had full notice of the purpose and intent of her said husband by trading it to defeat the just claims of herself and child. She asks for permanent alimony of her husband, chargeable on the land if he still has title and that the pretended sale be set aside and declared null and void. She asks for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the property in question, to restrain the sale and that an injunction be granted restraining the Gray Brothers from paying over any money to P.N. Gray and to prevent Sandifer from paying the said rent note. In the lower court, an injunction as requested was granted and the receiver appointed. This judgment was affirmed by the Georgia Supreme Court.

5. Georgia Reports, Vol. 65, p. 476-477
September Term, 1880
Halleman v. Halleman
From Houston Superior court, April Term 1880

C.M. Halleman, wife of defendant, on 12 June 1879, filed a bill of equity for permanent alimony. She alleged that she was married to the defendant in 1844. At the time they married he was a widower and she was a young girl. In the marriage, two children were born, reared and now live apart from herself and husband. At the time of her marriage she owned a large estate, and the land on which they lived at the separation was brought into the marriage by her. She sets the worth of the property at $8,000, including the land, valued at $4,500. She alleges that on 8 April 1879 she was compelled to leave him and she is now living in a voluntary and bona fide state of separation and asks for permanent alimony. The wife also alleged adulterous and cruel conduct of the husband. At the jury trial in Houston Co. a great deal of evidence was submitted as proof of those charges, as to the amount and value of the property and as to the amount of property brought in to the marriage. The Houston jury decreed that the land and stock were to be equally divided between the husband and wife and she was to have use of one moiety [half] for life or during separation. The husband made motion for a new trial on several grounds. On the charge of adulterous behavior, a copy of a note to the husband from Angeline Bullard was admitted. Mrs. Halleman alleged she got the original copy of the note from the pocket of her husband. The defendant's son testified that after the separation his mother showed him the copy of the note from Angeline Bullard to the defendant. Other information presented in the Houston trial as related to the alleged adulterous conduct of the husband related to uncertain actual cohabitation with Angeline Bullard, his persistent refusal to remove her and her two sisters from his place and when the suit was brought, renting a house for them in Macon, and his visitations there at unusual hours, together with her proved general character for lewdness. Additional considerations were that the husband had other property besides that referred to in the suit, that his children were all provided for, and that one-half of this property would not yield more than four or five thousand dollars at the highest and that the wife was near sixty years old, blameless in her life and reputation. The judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

6. Georgia Reports, Vol. 59, p. 379-380
August Term, 1877
From Jones Superior Court, April Term, 1877

Roland T. Ross, as executor of James M. Gray, deceased, and others, filed a bill against Cordelia Turk, Virginia Pitts, and Ellen Singleton, as executrix of Leroy Singleton, deceased. Ross and the others allege they are creditors of Leroy Singleton, deceased, and have recovered judgments against his executrix since his death. Defendants, Cordelia Turk and Virginia Pitts, claim also to be creditors of said testator, and that the indebtedness to them is a trust debt. That claim was barred by the statue of limitations and was founded on Confederate money. Ellen Singleton, as executrix, failed to plead to a suit the defendants (Turk and Pitts) instituted against her because she is their mother. The plaintiffs claimed Ellen Singleton fraudulently allowed a judgment against her by the daughters for a trust debt, which would thus be entitled to priority. An amendment was filed, alleging the insolvency of the executrix and of the estate which she represented. The judgment of the lower court was reversed.

7. Georgia Reports, Vol. 39, p. 479 -510
Atlanta, June Term, 1869
Executors of E.H. Adams v. Administrator of Eliab Jones
From Macon Superior Court, September Term 1867

Felix A. Johnston, administrator of Eliab Jones, deceased, late of Dooly County, filed a bill against Ezekiel H. Adams of Macon County. Johnston alleged that in July 1849, Eliab Jones had committed a crime and was facing the possibility of criminal charges and a prison sentence. Being anxious to leave the state of Georgia Jones went to the house of Adams and while there Adams took advantage of the situation, obtained title from Jones to all of his property (real and personal estate), promised to pay his debts and advanced Jones $1,050 to enable Jones to leave the state. Adams said he would pay the balance due Jones from the transfer of property to Jones' family. Eliab Jones had left the area in December 1849 and had not been heard from again by his family. After the seven year absence, on 6 April 1860, administration of the estate of Eliab Jones was granted to Johnston by the Ordinary of Dooly Co., in which the land and other property was located at the time the deeds were made. Ezekiel Adams died before September 1866 and his executors were made defendants in this case.

Mathenia Jones, wife of Eliab, testified that Ezekiel Adams proposed that if she would move to Alabama, he (Adams) would buy her a tract of land there in consideration of the property formerly owned by Jones. She did so in 1849 and was a resident of Bibb County, Alabama when she testified. She identified the complainant, Felix A. Johnston, as her son-in-law. A letter written by Adams to D.B. Jones in Alabama on 9 April 1850 refers to "…her [Mathenia Jones'] brothers would do better in the matter [assisting her to choose a place to live in Alabama] than I could, as they were better acquainted with the country than I was…" This case contains a great deal of specific information on the land, slaves, property, livestock and crops and their value owned by Jones in 1849 that he was alleged to have sold to Adams. Some of the witnesses included:

D. B. Jones - son of Eliab Jones. He stated in his testimony that he was "very deaf" in 1849 and resided in Alabama when he testified.

Levi Jones – Knew Eliab Jones in Macon County, Alabama in the summer of 1849. He stated he was not related to Eliab Jones and has no interest in the case. He stated that when Eliab Jones was at his house in Alabama, the only property he knew Eliab Jones to have was a horse, buggy and a negro boy named Reuben.

William W. McLendon- Sold to Eliab Jones one of the lots of land later transferred to Adams for $600 or $700. He lived in Dooly County before Eliab Jones left Dooly.

The Central Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly is published in March, June, September, and December. It is distributed free to society members, second class postage paid at Warner Robins, Georgia.

BACK ISSUES of the quarterly are available from 1979 at the rate of $2.50 each for members and $4.00 each for nonmembers. Some issues are sold out.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES: CGGS encourages articles for the quarterly from members and nonmembers of unpublished primary source documents of Georgia county/state records, military records, tax lists, church and cemetery records, family letters or diaries, photographs and queries. Every effort is made to publish material of interest to Georgia researchers, especially the central Georgia counties. Material should be submitted typed, single-spaced and camera ready if possible. Articles may also be emailed to the editor as an attachment or submitted on floppy disk. CGGS does not assume responsibility for errors on the part of the contributor. Correction of proven errors will appear in future issues. Lengthy articles may be serialized. When submitting Bible records please include a transcription of all entries along with photocopies of the Bible title page and all entry pages if possible. Submit material for publication to the editor:

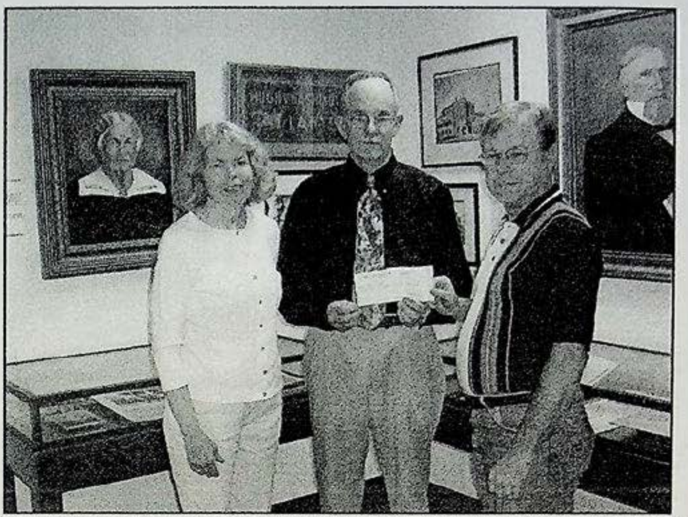
CGGS Makes Memorial Donation to WML Genealogical Room



CGGS members Georgette Lipford and Charles Farmer present donation check to Librarian Willard Rocker

In June CGGS made a $1,000 donation to Washington Memorial Library's Genealogical Room in memory of CGGS President Gary L. Hudgens. CGGS makes an annual monetary gift to the library from society funds and donations made by individuals during the membership drive. This year the Board of Directors decided to pay tribute to Gary and his years of service to CGGS by dedicating the 2007 donation in his honor.

Gary was in his second year as CGGS President when he passed away May 2, 2007 at the age of 59. He was retired from the USAF and had served during the Vietnam era. Gary was an energetic volunteer and a member of many other organizations including the American Legion, the V.F.W. and the Sons of Confederate Veterans. The genealogical community morns his passing and CGGS in particular will miss his leadership, knowledge and wit.

2007 Donation Planned Purchases

The Donation Committee members Cheryl Aultman, Linda Douglas and Georgette Lipford have worked with WML Staff Historian Christopher Stokes for each of the last three years to select the books and microfilm purchased with the CGGS donation. The group has already approved the purchase of the following items:

- Dodge County Newspaper Clippings Vol. 20 (2003 – 2005) by Tad Evans
- 1880 U.S. Census of Dodge County, Georgia by Tad Evans
- The News from Chauncey Vol. 5 (1945 – 1957)

- The News from Milan, Rhine and old Telfair Vol. 2 (1920 – 1932)
- We Came in Chains: History and Lineage of African-American Families from Houston County, Georgia by Alexander-Maiden
- The Butler Herald (1916 – 1962) microfilm, supplemental reel

Planned for purchase later in the year are county records on microfilm from North Carolina and South Carolina. The North Carolina microfilm can be obtained at a very economical cost in comparison to other states so the committee has focused on purchases from that area over the past three years. Each of the items purchased with this year's donation will have a bookplate inscribed in memory of Gary Hudgens.

2006 Donation Purchases

In October 2006 CGGS made a gift of $1,000 to WML. From that money the following purchases were made:

- Edgecombe County, North Carolina Records [40 reels of microfilm] including: Real Estate Conveyances 1759 – 1873 [24 reels]; Index to Real Estate Conveyances 1759 – 1920 [4 reels] and Estate Records 1733 – 1753, 1764-1772, 1783 – 1881 [12 reels]
- Houston County, Georgia Will Book A (1827 – 1855) [1 reel]
- Reverted Land Lottery Book A (1815 – 1818) Wilkinson and Baldwin Counties [1 reel]
- Barnwell County, South Carolina Deeds 1789 – 1851 [15 reels]

Recognition of Individuals

The annual gift to WML is greatly enhanced by the generosity of individual CGGS members. The fall renewal notice provides an opportunity for making a gift to the library. This year the following members made personal donations:

Katie Smith, [redacted]
Dorothy Baker, [redacted]
Nancy Douglass, [redacted]
Charles and Jamie Stielper, [redacted]
Jennifer E. Cone, [redacted] in memory of Carrie Cone Glover
Kathleen M. Greer, [redacted]
Shirley Curtis, [redacted]
John & Elizabeth Payne, [redacted]
John & Linda Douglas, [redacted]
Six donors who wished to remain anonymous

As WML's Genealogical Room endeavors to grow and maintain its collection of research material on the 13 colonies, southern states, and other areas under the constraints of a greatly reduced budget, the annual CGGS donation is increasingly vital.

DUPREE CEMETERY

Pulaski County, Georgia

By Jimmie Lee Davis
Email: [redacted]

The Dupree cemetery was located with the help of John Turner and Robin Cross, both of Pulaski County. The area where the cemetery is located is known as the Dupree District. To reach the cemetery, take Hwy. 27 from Hawkinsville about 9 miles southwest toward Vienna, GA. Just past the Mock Spring Road (Fire Road # 645R) there is a field road to the right that goes between a couple of large trees back into the woods. In addition to the burials listed below there are several rocks that look as if they could be markers for gravesites. This cemetery was surveyed in May 2007. The cemetery is on land presently owned by Mr. W.H. Cross and the prospective visitor may want to contact him prior to visiting. His phone number is listed in the Hawkinsville directory.

The Genealogical Card Files of Victor R. Myrick

Transcribed by Sherrie Mixon Nelson

Victor Ray Myrick was born August 18, 1926 and died December 1, 1997. He was the son of Jonie Madison and Nellie Lee Harrell Myrick. Victor Myrick and my father, William Mixon, were first cousins. Victor never married and had no children but he had a deep desire to understand his family and began his genealogical research as a young man in his twenties. Victor was a graduate of Mercer University, a school principal in Bleckley County, and a Baptist minister. Victor was a member of several genealogical and historical organizations including CGGS where he held several offices including President and Quarterly Editor. He was a genealogist before the time of computers and computerized databases. He developed a system to keep notes on cards as he conducted genealogical research. I have attempted to transcribe these notes verbatim. None of the information has been verified. While I do not know the meaning of all the annotations, I believe some sources are designated as follows:
GGM - Georgia Genealogical Magazine
GGSQ - Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly
GP - Georgia Pioneer
RS - Revolutionary Soldier
SCMAR - South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research
Victor's notes as provided here should be used as clues to aid your research, and as always, original sources should be sought. Please note that entries are not in strict alphabetical order.

Are You Interested in Joining a Lineage Society?

By Linda Douglas

So, you've found an ancestor that you think would qualify you for a membership in a lineage society. Maybe you've always wanted to pursue a membership in Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), Sons of the American Revolution (SAR), United Daughters of the Confederacy (UDC) or even the Mayflower Society. What initail steps should you take to reach that goal? What sort of proof of family ancestry does it take to successfully earn admission to a linage society?

To begin, visit the website for the society you are interested in. Usually the websites will clearly give you the requirements and qualifications needed for membership. The DAR website will actually refer you to a local chapter of that organization as will others. If you know someone in that society, either that person can assist you or he/she can connect you with someone who can.

Most societies require you must be at least 18 years old. (Exceptions are the Youth Societies: i.e. CAR - Children of the American Revolution.)You must be a descendant, by blood, of a person that participated in the cause of the organization. Most linage societies require direct descendancy to be eligible for membership but there are some that will accept a collateral ancestor's service.

If you have not already done so, collect documents on yourself, your parents, and grandparents on the line you plan to apply under. Collect official birth, marriage/divorce, and death records. (These are things you should be doing for your personal genealogy anyway!) If you use a published genealogy remember that such a book may act as a guide to other resources but generally is not acceptable as proof for admission to a linage or heritage society. Many early published genealogies lack proper citation of source material.

If you have a relative that was accepted into that society at any point in the past you may be able to use their membership as proof from the more recent ancestor you both share back to the required ancestor. If possible send for a record copy of their application and/or a record copy on your qualifying ancestor. Many times there will be some family information contained in that member's application of which you had no knowledge.

Your targeted society may have a "worksheet" or computer application program so utilize those helpful tools. Keep in touch with your society contact person as he/she can be a valuable guide in the process.

Remember, a lineage society is not the same as a genealogy society. You do not have to present an excessive number of documents to prove an event or link of family connection. One good document will be sufficient. The exception would be if using the Genealogy Proof Standard (GPS) when there is no one document directly proving a fact. The process to establish proof in this situation for DAR is known as an analysis and is performed with specific guidelines and worksheet.[1]

Visit a few of the following lineage society websites to learn more about their application process, requirements for membership, local chapters and resources:

The Jamestowne Society: www.jamestowne.org

Additional information on linage socities is available in most genealogical libraries. The Genealogical Room at the Washington Memorial Library (WML) has material published by linage societies, including among others, the Colonial Dames, UDC and DAR. Many of the DAR Linage Books that list members and their ancestors are at WML. A great resource for all family historians at WML are the Genealogical Records Committee (GRC) volumes. These books contain previously unpublished material such as Bible Records and Cemetery records and are valuable to any genealogist. A complete set of the GRC is at the Georgia Archives in Morrow, Ga.

The application process to a lineage society can be a rewarding venture. Not only will you gain new acqauintances who share your interests in history and family research but you will also enjoy the satisfaction of reaching your goal and focusing recognition on your ancestor's role in history.

Note

1. For more information on the Genealogical Proof Standard and how it is used in genealogical research see Thomas W. Jones, "What is the standard of proof in genealogy?," NGS NewsMagazine 2 (April 2007): 22 – 26.

Linda Douglas has been a member of the DAR since 1994. She has held the offices of Regent and Treasurer and is currently the Registrar for the Sukey Hart Chapter of the NSDAR. She has also had training as Field and Volunteer Genealogist to assist DAR applicatants. The ancestor she joined DAR on was Daniel Briggs of Mass.

The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and;

To promote the collection and preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 2007 are $25.00 for individual membership or $30.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related individuals in the same household).

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, and digitizing books and Georgia county records. The society also makes an annual gift to the Genealogical and Historical Room at Washington Memorial Library in Macon, Ga. In recent years our gifts have included a Minolta RP606z Microfilm reader/printer and monetary gifts for the purchase of Georgia newspapers on microfilm.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7:00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is often conducted for members to present research problems or share methods and discoveries. Visitors and guests are always welcomed at regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. OAKLAND CEMETERY
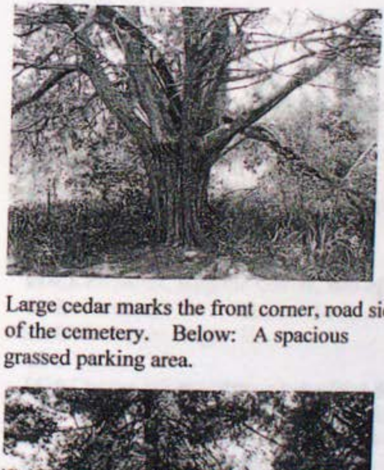
Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell and Helen Hudson 2006.

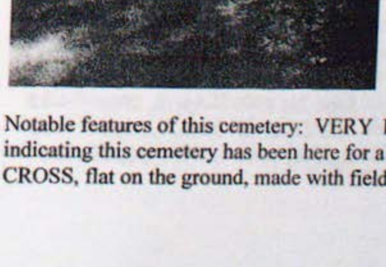
Location - West of Unadilla & Northeast of Byromville
Directions - Off of Hwy 230 – Turn on Dirt Rd. abt. 1/3 of the way from Byromville to Unadilla. This dirt road angles to the right, as another dirt road goes straight north. Take the 2nd dirt road off of this road and the Cemetery is on your left. It has really Big Cedars and is fenced in. The cemetery was surveyed south to north, west to east starting from the gate.

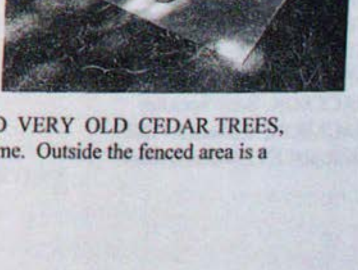
The name appears on a Dooly Co., Ga. Map. There is no longer a church there but we feel that Oakland Church once stood nearby. There is an "outhouse" still there. It does not seem to appear in Powell Book. If anyone has information on the unmarked or unreadable markers, please let us know.



Large cedar marks the front corner, road side of the cemetery. Below: A spacious grassed parking area.

The graves are mostly marked with slabs or flat markers. Below: Another visitor (box turtle) to this peaceful spot.





Notable features of this cemetery: VERY LARGE AND VERY OLD CEDAR TREES, indicating this cemetery has been here for a long, long time. Outside the fenced area is a CROSS, flat on the ground, made with field stones.

The Genealogical Card File of Victor R. Myrick

Victor Ray Myrick was born August 18, 1926 and died December 1, 1997. Victor was the son of Jonie Madison and Nellie Lee Harrell Myrick. Victor Myrick and my father, William Mixon, were first cousins. Victor never married and had no children but he had a deep desire to understand his family and began his genealogical research as a young man in his twenties. Victor was a graduate of Mercer University, a school principal in Bleckley County, and a Baptist minister. Victor was a member of several genealogical and historical organizations including CGGS where he held several offices including President. He was a genealogist before the time of computers and computerized databases. He developed this system to keep notes as he conducted genealogical research. I have attempted to transcribe these notes verbatim. None of the information has been verified. While I do not know the meaning of all the annotations, I believe some sources are designated as follows:

GGM – Georgia Genealogical Magazine
GGSQ - Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly
GP - Georgia Pioneer
RS – Revolutionary Soldier
SCMAR - South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research

Victor's notes as provided here should be used as clues to aid your research, and as always, original sources should be sought. Please note the entries are not in strict alphabetical order.

Lucy Pope Thomas
Her Autograph Book

By Nancy Burney Douglass

[redacted]

Lucy Pope Thomas was the daughter of Dr. William Jackson Thomas and Susannah Margaret Jemison. The last in a large family,, she was born 4 June 1865 in Fort Valley, Georgia. Just months later, in September 1865 Dr. Thomas died. Family legend say's he died after being thrown from his horse, on a dark and stormy night, returning from a house call. After his death Susannah and the children still at home moved to Bibb County, Georgia. Their home in lot 278 of the 13th District may have been part of Susannah's inheritance from her father, Henry Jemison.

Lucy attended school in Bibb County and in 1880 she entered Wesleyan Female College, located in Macon. Her family preserved some of her report cards which show her taking Bible, Reading, Exercises in Composition, Original Composition, Latin, French, Geometry, Chemistry, Class Singing, and Penmanship in her sophomore year. In her junior year she studied History, Trigonometry, Botany, Natural Philosophy, Moral Philosophy as well as Composition, Latin French Bible, Reading, Class Singing and Penmanship.

Keeping an autograph book was a popular pastime. For Christmas 1881 Lucy received an autograph book from her sister Louise Thomas. Sis Lou was working as a teacher in the Bibb County schools. Forty-three of Lucy's friends, classmates and relatives signed the Autograph book. In an undated entry, her future husband, Robert Lee Merritt, wrote "Miss Lucy, In your world of memories, please reserve one for me. Ever Yours Robt. L. M." Most of the entries are dated 1882 and 1883. Relatives who signed include Thomases and Carstarphens. Future in-laws include Merritts and Johnstons. Other signers were neighbors and fellow students at Wesleyan. Some of the entries have faded over time and could not be scanned well enough to be read. I have included some of the clearer ones. Readers of the Quarterly may recognize a name or signature of someone on their family tree.

More Genealogical Nuggets from Georgia Supreme Court Cases

By Georgette Lipford

This article is continued from the CGGS quarterly Vol. 28, issue no.1 of 2006 which contained a short history on the Georgia Supreme Court and Vol.29 issue no. 1. The cases from those issues and the ones that follow are taken from various volumes of the Georgia Reports. The cases selected for inclusion here are those of interest to central Georgia researchers or those from counties where there has been a loss of records. The accounts of a court case that are published in the Georgia Reports usually contain details of the case not recorded in the county Superior Court minutes. Sometimes documents such as wills or deeds are presented as evidence. The Georgia Reports can be found in law libraries, including the Furman Smith Law Library at Mercer University in Macon, and in some county courthouses. There is not a printed every name index to the Georgia Reports. The cases presented below are summarized from the account published in the Georgia Reports and the reader is encouraged to seek out the original for further specifics of the parties and legal issues. An attempt has been made to discern every stated relationship from the cases and to correctly interpret the language and judgments of the court. This installment includes cases pertaining to individuals from Stewart, Washington, Twiggs, Baldwin, Wilkinson, Upson, Montgomery and Houston counties.

1. Georgia Reports, Vol. 32, p. 196
October Term, 1860
Howard et al. v. Snelling
From Stewart Superior Court

On September 25, 1857 this action was brought by Harman H. Howard and his wife, Mary Howard, Elizabeth Speer, Harman H. Howard, as administrator of Wm. B. Tompkins, deceased, and John Smith, as administrator of John Tompkins and Stephen Tompkins, deceased, against John D. Snelling and James W. Snelling, to recover damages for the alleged conversion, by the defendants, of ten negro slaves, to which the plaintiffs claim title, namely: Harriet, and her children, George, Jacob, Daniel, Morgan, Rhoda, Clarissa, Sophia, Maria and Jackson, alleged to be worth $10,000 and of the yearly value for hire of $875.00.

Before trial, one of the plaintiffs, John Smith, died. Obediah R. Lewis, administrator de bonis non, of John Tompkins and Stephen Tompkins, deceased, was made party plaintiff to the case. James W. Snelling was removed from the case.

The following facts were proved on the trial: Samuel Tompkins married a woman in Jefferson County, Georgia, whose name is not given, and when he found on marrying her that she was pregnant, immediately carried her back to Jefferson County. He later married Polly Watts. On August 9, 1809 he made the following deed presented as evidence:

"This indenture made the 9th of August 1809, between Samuel Tompkins*, of the* county of Washington*, State of Georgia, of the one part, and* Robert Rutherford*, of the town of Milledgeville,* Baldwin County*, and* Franklin Rutherford*, of* Washington County*... in consideration of the trust and confidence reposed in the said Robert Rutherford and Franklin Rutherford, as well as the love, good will and affection which he hath for the children of Polly Watts, otherwise Polly Tompkins... doth freely give and grant unto the said Robert Rutherford and Franklin Rutherford, the following negroes, to wit:* Jack, February, Rhody, Stephen and Sarah*... upon trust that the said Robert Rutherford and Franklin Rutherford shall divide and equally apportion the said negroes, together with their increase, at the death of the said Samuel Tompkins, or within nine months, among all the children that may be born of the said Polly Watts, otherwise Tompkins, at the end of nine months, whether legitimate or illegitimate... for the* use of the said children of Polly Watts, otherwise Polly Tompkins, of which children are now in life, John, Betsy, Samuel and Polly, sons and daughters of the said Polly Watts, otherwise Polly Tompkins... provided the said Samuel Tompkins and said Polly Watts, otherwise Polly Tompkins, shall continue to use, employ and receive... the services of the said five negroes during the full end and term of the natural life of Samuel Tompkins also the life of the said Polly Watts, otherwise Polly Tompkins, without any manner of trouble from the said Robert Rutherford and Franklin Rutherford... Samuel (his mark) Tompkins... Wms. Rutherford, Jesse Armstrong, J.P."

The deed was endorsed on the reverse by Samuel Tompkins and recorded by the clerk of the Superior Court of Washington County on August 12, 1809. At the time of the deed Samuel Tompkins owned the Negroes mentioned in the deed and had them in his possession at the time the deed was executed.

The Negro woman, Harriet, sued for in this case, was the daughter of Rhody, mentioned in the 1809 deed and the others sued for were the children of Harriet. Samuel Tompkins and Polly Watts, alias Polly Tompkins, had eight children; John W., Elizabeth, Samuel, Polly, William, Stephen W., Dolly and Nancy. John W. married Polly Smith, Elizabeth married Thomas Williams, Polly married Harmon Howard, William married Ellen Couch, and Stephen W. married Serena Williams. After Thomas Williams died his widow, Elizabeth, married a Mr. Spear. Nancy married Joseph Miller. Samuel died in 1822 or 1823; Dolly died in 1837; Stephen W. died in 1837; William died in 1842 or 1843; John W. died in 1855 or 1856. The elder Samuel Tompkins, who made the deed, died February 23, 1856 and Polly Watts, alias Polly Tompkins, died in 1837.

The Negroes sued for in this case were converted by the defendant, Snelling, to his own use, and were worth, by his estimate, $6,275.000 for hire, $242.00 annually. Estimates by others were double that amount. The Negroes came into the possession of Snelling in July 1856 at the death of his father, J. R. Snelling, in his role as legal representative of his father's estate. Obediah R. Lewis was appointed administrator of the estates of Stephen W. Tompkins and John W. Tompkins. Harman H. Howard was appointed administrator of William Tompkins.

Presented as evidence was a bill of sale:

"Lumpkin, August 9, 1839. I have received of R. J. Snelling $750 for a negro woman, named Harriet, about 15 years old, which I do warrant to be sound and healthy in body... Samuel (his mark) Tompkins. Witness: John Thornton."

In the Stewart County Superior Court trial, the jury found for the defendant and the plaintiffs moved for a new trial. The Georgia Supreme Court reversed the judgment of the lower court and a new trial was granted. In its opinion the Supreme Court made the observation that Samuel Tompkins did not actually marry Polly Watts because he had not obtained a divorce from his first wife (who he found to be already pregnant at their marriage) and that the 1809 deed contained multiple references to the illegitimacy of his second union and to the illegitimacy of the children of that union. By the 1809 deed Samuel Tompkins aimed to make provision for those children and for their mother because they could not inherit from him.

2. Georgia Reports, Vol. 33, p. 454 – 458
January Term, 1863
Vinson and Carroll v. Vinson
From Twiggs Superior Court

This case concerned the distribution of the estate of James Vinson who died in Twiggs County in 1848. James Vinson's will was proved and recorded in Twiggs Co. and letters testamentary were issued to the executors named in the will, Benjamin F. Vinson and Joseph Blackshear. In the will James Vinson gave his wife 50 acres of land and certain household furniture, one male slave and one female slave, a horse, hogs and cattle for use during her lifetime or widowhood, and at her death to be equally divided, as the rest of his property, except the 50 acres of land. He desired the land to be divided, at the death of his wife, between Joseph S. Vinson and the heirs-in-law of John P. Vinson. The remainder of the will read as follows:

"Item 4. I further will and devise the balance of my land be equally divided between Joseph S. Vinson and the heirs-in-law of John P. Vinson.
Item 5. It is my will and desire that the residue of my property, consisting of negroes, horses, hogs and cattle, and everything I may possess at the time of my death, not heretofore willed off, be equally divided between Mary Blackshear, Joseph S. Vinson, Benjamin F. Vinson, and the heirs-in-law of John P. Vinson. Provided, if Joseph S. Vinson should depart this life without coming in possession of his distributive share, then it is my will and desire that his share be equally divided between Mary Blackshear, Benjamin F. Vinson and the heirs-in-law of John P. Vinson, except the land, then it is my will and desire that the land go to the heirs-in-law of John P. Vinson.
Item 6. It is also my will and desire that if Joseph S. Vinson should depart this life without being possessed of his portion...his wife, Jane Vinson, be allowed the sum of $5 out of my estate, and be forever barred from anything more.
Item 7. I appoint John P. Vinson trustee for the property herein bequeathed to the heirs of John P. Vinson."

When the estate was divided, John P. Vinson received 6 Negroes and later sold 2 of them to Jesse B. Carroll of Wilkinson Co. John P. Vinson was wholly insolvent.

Levin J. H. Vinson, a minor son of John P. Vinson, by his next friend, Joel J. Denson, filed his bill in equity against John P. Vinson and Jesse B. Carroll, alleging among other things that he was the only heir of John P. Vinson at the time of the death of the testator, James Vinson, since at the time John P. Vinson had no wife or other living children. The defendants (John P. Vinson and Jesse Carroll) claimed in their defense that Levin J. H. Vinson had a living sister, Laura Vinson, who was equally entitled under the will with Levin and should be a party to any litigation or decree concerning the property. The defendants also claimed that whoever the legatees may be, they are not entitled to the property until after the death of their father, John P. Vinson, who was still living. The case was first considered in the Twiggs Superior Court by Judge O. A. Lochrane on the 16th of June, 1862.

In its decision, the Supreme Court made note that the testator, James Vinson, in his will repeated the same words five times to give the property in dispute to the heirs-in-law of his son, John P. Vinson. He gave his son, John P. Vinson no part of his estate, but appointed him trustee for the property bequeathed to John's heirs. John P. Vinson had only one living child at the time the will was written and that was Levin Vinson. He later had another child, Laura Vinson. The Court interpreted the words of the will to say that the testator looked to the death of John P. Vinson to fix the period when the legatees should be ascertained. Therefore, Laura Vinson should also be a party to the litigation.

Jackson v. Finney and Raly
From Wilkinson Superior Court

Polly Jackson as the mother and next friend of Maddy M., Anselina M., and Randal A. Jackson, filed suit against Benjamin W. Finney and Charles Raly, as the administrators of Randal Raly, recently deceased. Polly Jackson alleged that her children were the illegitimate children of Randal Raly and that prior to his death Randal Raly promised and intended to make the children his heirs-at-law to receive all his property at his death. Polly claimed that Randal Raly had been anxious to legitimatize the children and had taken steps to do so. She desired that the administrators be directed to turn over the estate of Randal Raly to the children.

The defendants, Benjamin W. Finney and Charles Raly, in their answer to the charges admitted that Randal Raly acknowledged himself to be the father of the two older children but denied that the youngest, Randal A., was his child. The defendants doubted whether any of the children were the children of the deceased Raly.

At the trial, witness William A. Hall, testified that Randal Raly employed N.A. Carswell, Esquire, to begin proceedings to have the children legitimatized, to make them his heirs and to arrange for them to inherit property he owned. The witness had seen the children and their mother at Raly's home. In a conversation, Raly said to Hall that he intended all he had to go to these children that he had got into trouble with this woman and could never marry a respectable woman and therefore he intended to work for these children. He spoke of his attachment to the children just three days before his death.

Another witness, Wesley King, confirmed all that Hall said. Raly was killed on the last of July or first of August. According to King, on the 4th of July, he was at Raly's house and asked him what he intended to do with the children. Raly called up one of the children, kissed it and said that he was working for them, had instituted proceedings and would have been finished but that Thomas Jackson influenced Polly Jackson not to sign the papers.

The original petition of Raly to legitimatize the children was presented as evidence. Also presented was an affidavit by Polly Jackson stating that Raly promised her in his lifetime, and many months before his death, that if she did not call the law against him as the father of the children, then he would take care of them and make them his heirs. She was also informed that Major Samuel T. Player, then in the Confederate Army, would prove this same information.

The Georgia Supreme Court sent the case back to the lower court for a new hearing.

From Upson Superior Court

On Feb. 15, 1817, Batt Wyche of Montgomery County executed a deed of gift conveying to his daughter, Patience Clark Green (wife of Thomas B. Green) and the issue of her body, four negro slaves, namely; Sally (at the time runaway) Moses, Ellick and Seely, together with all their increase. The deed was recorded in Montgomery's Superior Court on 24 May 1817 and then delivered to Thomas B. Green. Batt Wyche died in Montgomery County in 1819. Elias McElvan and George Wyche were appointed administrators of his estate. Possession of the original deed of gift for some reason passed from Thomas B. Green to the administrators of Batt Wyche.

In 1817 Patience C. Green had only one child. At the time of her death in 1848 she had eight children and four grandchildren. The children were: Adeline W. Wyche, wife of Thomas T. Wyche, Amanda F. Collier, wife of Robert M. Collier, Ann C. Law, wife of Joseph Law, James M. Green, John M. Green, and Mary Adams, wife of Eleazor Adams (who were both already deceased when Patience died). Her grandchildren by Mary and Eleazor Adams were Sarah, Patience, Elizabeth and Nancy. The four negroes conveyed in the 1817 deed with their increase amounted to 31 negroes in 1851.

On Sept. 15, 1851 Adeline and Thomas T. Wyche filed a bill in Upson Superior Court against Thomas B. Green charging that it was the intention of Batt Wyche to convey the title and use of the negroes to Patience C. Green for and during her lifetime, with the reminder in fee simple to her children at her death to be divided among them. They charged that Thomas B. Green wrongfully believed that the negroes and their increase belonged to him and refused to allow the negroes to be divided among the children of Patience C. Green. In 1861 Adeline and Thomas Wyche filed an amendment to their original bill alleging that Thomas B. Green had committed fraud and collusion with the other children of Patience Green to keep Adeline and Thomas

Wyche from receiving their share and that he had already delivered a portion of the negroes to each of the other children.

Richard W. Bonner, guardian, v. John A. Nelson
From Twiggs Superior Court, October 1875

Richard W. Bonner, as guardian, brought a complaint against Woodall, as principal, and John A. Nelson, as security, on a note dated Feb. 18, 1863, for $2,610.37. The note was due payable to Bonner or the bearer on January 1, 1864. Woodall offered no defense and John Nelson pleaded in the case offering the following information; that three or four years prior to the making of the note involved in this suit, he and Herbert Reynolds signed a note as co-securities for Woodall for about $2,000 on which Woodall borrowed money from Bonner. About three years after this note was due, Reynolds, without Nelson's knowledge, demanded of Bonner that his name be taken from the note, that Bonner must take steps to collect the debt or relieve him (Reynolds) of his obligation as surety. Bonner was reluctant to sue so Reynolds had to make his demand a second or third time. Bonner then said to Woodall that he wanted to renew the note, giving as reason that he wished it to be bearing interest for his ward, but did not tell Woodall that Reynolds had made the aforesaid demand. Subsequently, Bonner wrote the note on which the present case is based and gave it to Woodall with instructions to obtain his securities names by the following day. Woodall brought this obligation to Nelson's house saying he wished to renew the note. Nelson signed it assuming that the same sureties (himself and Reynolds) would be on this one as on the older note. Woodall went from Nelson to Bonner and delivered the note, saying he had only obtained the signature of one surety. Bonner replied that the one name was good enough, accepted the new note and destroyed the old one. It was two years before Nelson realized that he was the only surety listed on the note.

About March 22, 1864, Woodall gave to Bonner in Confederate currency nearly the full amount of the debt. Bonner made a remark about it being unpopular to refuse Confederate money and asked Woodall not to press it on him. Woodall replied "Captain, I have the money now and you might want it some time when I do not have it." Bonner answered that he would not call the debt until after the war. He kept that promise but by then Woodall had become insolvent. He had been solvent at the time Bonner indulged him and put off accepting the payment.

When this case was tried in Twiggs Superior Court Woodall was participant to the suit. The Twiggs jury found for Bonner as the suit pertained to Woodall, but against him as it pertained to Nelson. The Georgia Supreme Court reversed the decision of the lower court.

September Term 1879
Lathrop & Company v. Clewis
From Houston Superior Court, May 1879

William R. Brown rented a plantation to Henry D. Clewis for the year 1875, the terms specified in this manner; " On or before the 1st of October next, I promise to pay W.R. Brown or bearer 8,750 pounds of middling cotton, delivered at Winchester in good shipping order; also, on the 15th of October next, I promise to pay W.R. Brown or bearer 8,750 pounds more of middling cotton, delivered at Winchester, in good shipping order; said cotton payable for rent of plantation in Houston County, known as the Everett Hog-Crawl plantation. I agree to keep up and do all the fencing necessary, and leave all the cotton seed and manure on the place at the end of the year. Said W.R. Brown agrees to furnish six mules, and 500 bushels of corn and 3,000 pounds of fodder, one cart and steers now on the place, and the blacksmith tools. I agree to return the same amount of corn and fodder, mules, cart and steers and blacksmith tools in same order as they were turned over to me. Said W. R. Brown to furnish what cotton seed he has on the place, except what seed he wants to plant. Witness my hand and seal, the 30th day of October, 1874." (Signed) "Henry D. Clewis [L.S.]. Witness, J. D. Hendrick." Soon after this contract was made, and before it matured, Brown, for a valuable consideration, delivered it to the Lathrop & Company, first indorsing it as follows: "Deliver the within cotton to J.W. Lathrop & Co., or their order." (Signed) "Wm. R. Brown." The transfer of the note was not presented to Clewis for a chance to either accept or refuse it.

On October 1, 1875 Lathrop & Co. sued out a distress warrant against Clewis alleging that Clewis was indebted to their firm "for the rent of the Everett Hog-Crawl plantation in Houston Co. for the year 1875, 8,750 pounds of middling cotton, of the value of $1,093.95, now due and unpaid, and the like amount of 8,750 pounds of middling cotton, of the value of $1,093.95 to become due the 15th of October, 1875, that Clewis is removing his property, and especially the crop of this year made on the rented premises…that a distress warrant may issue against the said Clewis in favor of J.W. Lathrop & Co., for said sum of $2,187.50, rent now due and to become due." On October 15th Clewis filed a counter-affidavit denying that he was removing property or crops from the premises or that he was the tenant of Lathrop & Co.

July Term, 1863
Richard Raines v. The State of Georgia
From Washington Superior Court, March 1863

Richard Raines was indicted for the murder of his wife, Emily S. Raines. He allegedly killed her by giving her a mixture of strychnine and whisky on June 27, 1861, a short time after which she died. He was found guilty in a March 1863 jury trial. Counsel for the defense moved for a new trial, the lower court refused and the case was then brought to the Georgia Supreme Court.

Testimony at the trial provided the following facts and circumstances: that on the morning of June 27, 1861, Richard Raines gave to each of his children a drink of "spirituous liquor." He also prepared a drink for his wife and sent it to her by one of his little daughters. Mrs. Raines drank a portion of it and immediately asked her son Thomas if what he drank was bitter and stated her drink was bitter. Thomas said his was not. The daughter, Louisa, who was 15 at the time of the trial, testified that her father poured the drinks of the children from one bottle and the drink of his wife from a different bottle. After drinking the liquor the family sat down to breakfast. Mrs. Raines ate some biscuit and butter and drank some coffee before rising from the table complaining of her stomach burning. Shortly afterwards she was attacked with spasms. A neighbor woman was sent for and by the time she arrived, Mrs. Raines was insensible. Her husband had bled her in the arm and was holding it to stop the bleeding.

Mrs. Raines was about 8 months pregnant. Her behavior observed by the neighbor was like a woman in labor with her head drawn back. She was gritting her teeth and her limbs were jerking. After 3 spasms she died. It was recalled that a few days previous a physician had visited the house and left tartar-emetic for some dogs. Mrs. Raines gave it to several of the dogs and one of them died.

A coroner's inquest and autopsy was held the next day at the Raines' home. Mr. Raines sat or stood nearby and witnessed the post-mortem exam. The stomach was taken from the body and placed in a pan and left on a table in the house. The physicians involved in the inquest discussed the exam outside and on returning inside discovered that the stomach was missing. It was later found buried in a field 150 yards from the house. It was disinterred, placed in an earthen jar and later the contents of the stomach were carried by Dr. James R. Smith to Augusta for chemical analysis. Several tests were performed on the stomach contents but other tests that may have provided more convincing indication of the presence of strychnine were not applied. Although the results of the tests were not conclusive, the physicians involved were of the opinion that there was strychnine present.

The daughter Louisa testified that her parents had lived disagreeably together for some time. According to the daughter the defendant once threw a smoothing iron at the deceased and had twice threatened her life. Mrs. Elizabeth Moye swore that Mr. Raines and his wife were separated at one time but did not know how long before Mrs. Raines' death they had reunited. Louisa was thirteen years old at the time of the alleged murder. She testified that she did not see her father from the time of her Mother's death until the trial. In that time she lived with her maternal uncle, Richard Strange and that for several years before the death of Mrs. Raines there had been not existed any friendly interaction or visiting between her uncle and her father.

The Georgia Supreme Court reversed the decision of the lower court and noted that since the chemical tests on the stomach contents were incomplete and inconclusive that the guilt of Mr. Raines had not been proved and that thirteen year old Louisa's testimony was considered perhaps too heavily by the lower court.

[Editor's Note: This family was listed in Sandersville, Washington Co. in the 1860 Federal Census. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Raines there were 6 children; Thomas, age 13; Louisa, age 11; William, age 10; Tabitha, age 9; Richard M., age 8 and an infant aged 3 months. Mr. Raines was a farmer.]

Seeking information on Col. John Nelson who was married to Rebecca Woodlief and resided in Louisa County, Virginia during the late 1700s. Col. Nelson died in Louisa County, Virginia about 1789 as evidenced by the settlement of his estate. Various sources on the internet list his birth date as 14 May 1743, York County, Virginia. Sources also list their children as Sarah Phillips, Anne, Hepsibah, Rebekah, Mary, Elizabeth, Lucy Epps, William, Catherine Griffin, John, and Salmon Hughes. First wife of Col. John Nelson is reported to be Frances Anderson Armstead. Am interested in obtaining information that proves this family and am particularly interested in any information on Col. On a recent visit to the Houston County Courthouse in Perry I was shown a small shelf of "history books". One of them was the Roll Book for the Societies of the Houston County, ca. 1835. It was a comb bound booklet without an official title page or publisher cited. The forward was by Nancy Culberson and there was an "Editorial Note" page signed by Harold Lawrence. At first I didn't know what it was but as I read through it I discovered that it looked like a Methodist history that included information about Quarterly Conferences, etc. Can anyone advise me how to obtain a copy of this book?

Editor's Note

As this last issue of the CGGSQ Volume 29 reaches your mail box (belatedly I am sorry to say) perhaps you are putting New Year's resolutions into practice. If one of your resolutions is to improve your research skills you can find help in the numerous genealogical journals, books and websites available today. When I first became a CGGS member in 1982 I owned one how-to guide, Gilbert Doane's Searching for Your Ancestors. How things have changed! With so many choices now it can be a little overwhelming trying to select the publications that best suit your needs. Hopefully, a new book review feature debuting in this issue will make finding the books of interest to you easier. Although only two reviews appear this time, we'll build to a greater number of books reviewed in future issues and examine websites as well.

The CGGS Board of Directors has carried through in this issue on our "resolution" to offer a version of the CGGS ByLaws with proposed revisions for the membership's consideration. Among the revisions are changes in the elected officers and appointed committees of CGGS that will provide greater continuity in leadership. Please review this new version (with proposed changes shown in italics) in preparation for voting on the changes at the March 10th meeting.

Thank you to Helen Hudson, Davine Campbell, Joyce Green and Sherry Nelson for their regular contributions to the quarterly. Helen and Davine continue to explore the Dooly County countryside recording cemeteries to share with you. For this issue Joyce has provided the final installment of the Monroe County Marriage Book A. Sherrie is transcribing Victor Myrick's genealogical card file collection and this issue has installment number 3 of that series.

For those CGGS members outside the central Georgia area who missed the local media coverage on the endangered Follendore Cemetery, there is an update. Few genealogically related events have produced as much debate and discussion at our recent society meetings as the plight of the Follendore descendants, their small family cemetery and the judge's decision in this case.

As always I encourage you to contribute material for publication in the quarterly such as Bible records, photos, abstracted records, and other family documents.

The Genealogical Card File of Victor R. Myrick

Victor Ray Myrick was born August 18, 1926 and died December 1, 1997. He was the son of Jonie Madison and Nellie Lee Harrell Myrick. Victor Myrick and my father, William Mixon, were first cousins. Victor never married and had no children but he did have a deep desire to understand his family and began his genealogical research as a young man in his twenties. Victor was a graduate of Mercer University, a school principal in Bleckley County, and a Baptist minister. He was a member of several genealogical and historical organizations including CGGS where he held many offices including President. He was a genealogist before the time of computers and computerized databases. He developed this card file system to keep notes as he conducted genealogical research. I have attempted to transcribe these notes verbatim. None of the information has been verified. While I do not know the meaning of all the annotations, I believe GGSQ means Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly, GP means Georgia Pioneer, GGM means Georgia Genealogical Magazine, SCMAR means South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research and RS means Revolutionary Soldier. These notes should be used as clues to aid your research, and as always, original sources should be sought.

PORTER CEMETERY AKA SANDY MOUNT CHURCHYARD

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson January 2007

Location: About half-way between Pinehurst & Vienna, on the East side of I-75 on the corner of Bowen Rd. & Findley Rd. It is close enough to I-75 that you can hear and see big trucks running At this area, Bowen Road is running parallel to I-75. There is a chain link fence around it and the cemetery is well kept. Whoever is farming the land has left an unplowed grass road to it.

As you can see, there are lots of empty spaces in this cemetery that may well contain unmarked graves. Information on any unmarked graves or possible burials would be greatly appreciated.

WOOD - COBB CEMETERY # 61

Dooly County, Georgia

Surveyed by Helen S. Hudson & Davine V. Campbell January 24, 2007

Located on Hwy 257 [Cordele to Hawkinsville Road] in Southwest Dooly County just above the Crisp County line. On the north side of the road.

The Cemetery has long been abandoned and neglected. It is difficult to see from the Hwy. The original ornate iron fence has fallen or been crushed by falling trees, many of the markers are broken, flat on the ground covered by leaves, etc. It has been a very nice cemetery, long past. The land surrounding it is marked as being a part of Weyerhaeuser.

Book Reviews

By Georgette Lipford

Walking With Your Ancestors: A Genealogist's Guide to Using Maps and Geography. By Melinda Kashuba. Published by Family Tree Books; 4700 East Galbraith Road, Cincinnati, Ohio, 45236; 2005. ISBN 1-55870-730-1. 226 pp. Illustrations, index, maps. Paperback. $22.99.

"Where were they?" How many times have family historians asked this question in relation to their ancestors? Locality is the key to finding records pertaining to persons of interest and to placing them in the appropriate context. A little knowledge of geography and the ability to find and utilize the right maps in genealogical research can lead to successful searches. Author Melinda Kashuba states in her book that despite the importance of history, genealogy has more to do with geography. She describes genealogy as a "geographically driven subject" in part because knowing where your ancestors lived is the key to finding the records they created.

Kashuba is a genealogical researcher, writer and speaker with a PhD in geography. Her specialties are nineteenth and twentieth century American maps and records. In 2007 she taught portions of the Samford University IGHR course "Land Records: Maps and Related Records". In Walking With Your Ancestors she applies her extensive knowledge of geography and maps to genealogical research. Her book is aimed at all genealogists regardless of their current expertise with maps. Although other books and articles may be available on each of the various components discussed in this book, such as interpreting maps, using GPS, and the various types of maps, Kashuba pulls these topics together in a single volume and considers each from a genealogical perspective.

Before addressing the many types of maps and atlases available Kashuba provides information on understanding the components of a map such as the legend, orientation, symbols, scale, and coordinate system. A worksheet is provided to guide the researcher in critical analysis of maps. Map analysis should consider not only what is included but also what is excluded from the map. While a genealogist may desire to determine the absolute location of an ancestor's house or grave, the relative location of the site to the area's physical and cultural features is just as important. Guidelines for bibliographic citations of maps (14 varied examples) are provided emphasizing that maps are documents to be used in genealogical research as well as a visual representation of someone's point of view.

Individual chapters are devoted to topographic, military, urban and county land ownership maps listing many websites and repositories where the maps can be accessed. Topographic maps are perhaps the most accessible and emphasize the earth's physical surface features of elevation and vegetation and cultural features such as towns, political boundaries, churches, cemeteries and sometimes fence lines between properties. Helpful illustrations in this book demonstrate how various land forms are depicted by the contour lines on topo maps including how to read the direction of a creek's water flow. Topo maps can be used in genealogical research to discern the physical obstacles and challenges in the landscape that shaped an ancestor's life. Historical topo maps are available for some areas of the U.S.

A chapter on urban maps examines panoramic and bird's-eye maps or prints which were popular in the nineteenth century and depict towns and cities in great detail. Fire insurance maps are available for the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The Sanborn Map Co. published maps for more than 13,000 towns and cities that are very detailed and accurate, showing the structural features of buildings including churches, factories, worker housing, private homes, businesses, schools and even brothels ("female boarding establishments").

Additional chapters of this book focus on migration routes and using GPS (global positioning systems) to map cemeteries.

The overall organization of this book is logical and allows for easy use whether one likes to read straight through or skip around. Chapters begin with a brief overview and conclude with a summary of the most important concepts. Typical of many Family Tree books marginal symbols call attention to definitions, research tips, internet sources and suggestions for finding additional information. Multiple illustrations of various types of maps are included throughout. Websites for locating maps and linking to digital map collections are provided in every chapter (nineteen websites are referenced for military maps) and an Appendix lists the major map collections in the United States. Most important, Ms. Kashuba presents the science and technology so that is easily grasped. Her book is a valuable addition to any genealogy library.

Estate Inventories: How to Use Them. By Kenneth L. Smith. Published by Masthof Press; 220 Mill Road; Morgantown, PA 19543; 2000. ISBN 1-930353-10-3. 137 pp. Bibliography, illustrations, tables, glossary. Softbound. $12.50.

Although an ancestor's estate inventory may not include stated family relationships as most wills do, it can help you understand his or her personal life and economic standing. Author Kenneth Smith's purpose for this small book is to assist the genealogist to get as much as possible from the study of the inventory of an ancestor's personal possessions. It was written to fill what he saw as a void of easily accessible sources on interpreting estate inventories.

Smith addresses three questions about an estate inventory; what does it say; how much are the possessions worth and what do they reveal about his financial position. The examples used are primarily inventories from the Colonial period in the states of Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia and were taken from the author's own research.

To understand what the inventory actually says Smith relates that there usually is a rational order to the entries primarily because the inventoriers walked through the house room by room listing items as they went. From a lengthy inventory one may be able to determine the house layout and number of rooms in the family home. Eleven of the most common house floor plans of the Colonial period are illustrated. Unfamiliar spelling and abbreviations of the entries are also roadblocks to interpreting an inventory and Smith addresses script look-alikes and foreign phonetics.

To place the worth of the possessions in the economic context of the time Smith provides 12 tables relating information such as the prices of tobacco in the Chesapeake Bay area in the 1600s, factors for converting money of early 1800's to 1982 dollars and the average annual wholesale prices from the 1700s for Charleston, Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

An extensive glossary of 72 pages with definitions of household items, tools, and measurements is provided. A "bow front" usually meant a chest of drawers. A "maulkin" was a mop for the hearth of an oven. Many of the definitions reflect a meaning particular to one culture such as a "bank" listed in a German household may mean a bench. For words not included in the glossary, Smith suggests an unabridged dictionary, The Oxford English Dictionary, or books devoted to specialized topics such as kitchen utensils, furniture, or old farm equipment. Eric Sloane's books are especially helpful with illustrations of tools and farm implements used in the New England states.

One strength of this book is the analysis and interpretation (often line by line) of the example inventories. Smith's experience with inventories is evident as he works through bad handwriting, imaginative spelling, and currency conversions to draw conclusions about the individual from the evidence. This book is a particularly helpful and interesting reference.

Update on Follendore Cemetery of Bibb County

By Georgette Lipford

The CGGSQ Vol. 28, no. 4 contained an article on the Follendore and Seaborn Thomas cemeteries in south Bibb County and the danger to these cemeteries from nearby development. Since that time, Follendore descendents and other persons sympathetic to the threatened Follendore cemetery, have seen the landscape surrounding the three marked graves be altered dramatically. Not long ago the little cemetery was in a wooded area. Now, the aged cedar trees that served as sentinels to the graves for many years and other nearby trees have been cut down. The cemetery stands exposed to the passage of time and the planned development along Hartley Bridge Road.

On November 1, 2007 Hartley Properties developers filed a petition to move the Follendore Cemetery graves. The area is zoned for commercial development and Hartley Properties plans the construction of a retail shopping center on the site where the cemetery is currently located. At the January 3, 2008 hearing in Bibb Superior Court the Judge decreed that the graves would indeed be relocated and the Follendore descendents were given the opportunity to select the relocation site. The decision of the court was based on findings that the land the cemetery is located on is owned by Hartley Properties without any reservation in the title to the Follendore Cemetery.

The cemetery originally served as the Follendore family burial ground and was located near the family's farm and home place in land lot 89. The three marked graves are those of Joseph F. Follendore, Sr. and his two sons Joseph, Jr. and Noah W. The three men were buried in 1882, 1871 and 1880 respectively. Joseph F. Follendore, Sr. served in Co. A, 54th Regiment of the CSA. Joseph Sr.'s widow, Emily, sold the land on which the cemetery is located in November 1901 and that deed contained a reference to the family burial ground. However, the next time the land was sold the cemetery was not mentioned and thus reference to its existence disappeared from the title chain to the land. Emily Follendore died in 1914 and is buried at New Elim Baptist Church, 4368 Hartley Bridge Road, very near the Follendore home place.

Bobby Riezinger of [redacted], [redacted]., is a ggggrandson to Joseph Follendore, Sr. and has lead the efforts of Follendore descendents to document and preserve the cemetery over the last two years. Soon after locating and identifying the Follendore Cemetery in 2006 he learned of the nearby development. He contacted Hartley Properties and protested the grading done around the graves and the planned removal of the graves. Despite the efforts of Riezinger to protect the cemetery the developers moved forward and took legal action to have the graves moved.

At the January 3rd hearing Hartley (also known as Moon Family) properties stated they have no current plans to move or otherwise disturb the Seaborn Thomas cemetery which is located very near the Follendore graves. The company indicated that the Thomas cemetery could remain in a green space portion of the planned shopping area. Bobby Riezinger, however, feels the removal of the Follendore graves may be just the beginning and will open the door to future development that might endanger other nearby cemeteries in the Hartley Bridge Road area.

Saving Graves Website

For information on endangered cemeteries see the web site of Saving Graves at: www.savinggraves-us.org. This organization is dedicated to the preservation and protection of human burial sites. Under the "Library" tab are many articles on cemetery advocacy, cemetery protection law and topics such as identifying unmarked graves and determining cemetery ownership. The "States" tab links to a page for each U.S. state's list of endangered cemeteries. Only a few counties in Georgia currently have an active host so many volunteer coordinators are needed. Saving Graves also has an international site at: www.savinggraves.org.

C.G.G.S. QUARTERLY SURNAME INDEX VOL. 29, FOR THE YEAR 2007

COMPILED BY HELEN SHIRAH HUDSON

Note: This surname index covers Quarterlies No. 1 through 4 for the year 2007. Pages 1-56 are in No. 1, Pages 57-116 are in No. 2, Pages 117-184 are in No 3, with No. 4 starting with page 185. Many thanks to Georgette Lipford for letting me use her copy of #4 with penciled in numbers so that this could be compiled in a timely fashion. If a page is listed for a surname, check carefully, there may be more than one entry on that page for it. Look for all possible spellings of the name and then check all names starting with the same letter of the surname you are searching for. Early spelling can be interesting. Not included in this listing are the actual copies of the autograph book and the names of those who made donations to Washington Memorial Library.

The Bride's Book: The 1906 Wedding of Beulah Walters and Elmer Waters Quarterman

By Georgette Lipford and Linda Douglas

Miss Beulah Walters, of Montezuma, Ga., and Mr. Elmer Quarterman, of Valdosta, Ga., were married on Christmas Day, 1906 in Montezuma. Details of the young couple's special day are preserved in a Bride's Book or memory album and hint at how little the celebration of weddings has changed in the intervening 102 years.

The wedding album was written and illustrated by Maud Humphrey and Paul de Longpre and published by the Frederick A. Stokes Company. It is 9 by 12 inches and although water damaged on the front and back covers, the interior pages are remarkably well preserved.

Photographs of the bride and groom are found on the first pages. A photograph of the bride's mother is included further on. A subsequent page records the date of their first meeting as October 1903 and their engagement in May 1905. On February 4, 1906 Elmer presented Beulah with a diamond solitaire engagement ring. Other engagement gifts from him include a roman gold bracelet band given on October 25, 1906; a broach of roman and colored gold set with pearls and diamonds on December 24, 1906 and a plain band wedding ring. Their wedding announcement laid in the album reads: "Mr. and Mrs. William Rufus Walters request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Beulah and Mr. Elmer Waters Quarterman on the afternoon of Tuesday, the twenty-fifth of December at one o'clock, First Baptist Church, Montezuma, Georgia." A photograph of a church, presumably the First Baptist Church, is laid in the album. Three pages contain descriptions of the bride's several gowns for the wedding and honeymoon with small swatches of material from each dress.

The names of persons in the bridal party are recorded in a flowing script: "Miss Willie Allbritton, Mr. W. E. Quarterman, Mr. G. F. Pindar, Mr. E. W. Quarterman, Mr. C. P. Kelly, Mr. R. W. Espy, Buford, Ga., Mr. M.C. Austin, Marshallville, Miss Sue Bone, Eastman, Ga. and ushers J. R. Walters, J. C. Vinson, A. P. Lewis and Earl McKenzie". Other members of the bridal party included "Miss Jessie Walters, Meansville, Ga., Mrs. F. B. McDonald, 86 Gilmore St.,Waycross, Ga., Miss Matilda Callaway, Milledgeville, Ga., Miss Ruth Patrick, Miss Clifford Walters, Montezuma and Miss Haidee McKenzie, Montezuma".

The wedding gifts included items such as cut glass bowls, vases and tumblers, candle sticks, cake plates, a clock, a cream service, silverware, doilies, furniture, water color pictures and an ink stand. More than one hundred wedding gifts are listed in the album, including gifts from the following people:

A reception the evening before the wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents in Montezuma. Following the Christmas Day wedding ceremony the newlyweds left for a trip to Florida "amid a shower of rice, old shoes and good wishes" as one newspaper account preserved in the book described. The honeymoon had the following stops; on Dec. 31 they stayed at the Pritchard House in White Springs, January 1 at the Hotel Ethel in Live Oak, January 2 – 3 at the Merchant's Hotel in Madison and the couple returned to Valdosta on January 3 where they would make their home.

Three pages in the Bride's Book were reserved for the signatures of wedding guests.

CLEWIS FAMILY CEMETERY - Dooly County, Georgia

66 in Powell Book

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson January 2007

Located just off Old National Hiway on Rev. Childs property. He grew up on this property, now lives in and pastors a church in Atlanta but just happened to be here to check on things when we stopped to ask him directions. He took us directly to the cemetery, helped us find each marker, as he knew them well. This cemetery is not easily found and would have to have an escort to it since there is fencing, regular and electric, between it and the road.

FULLINGTON PLACE CEMETERY- DOOLY COUNTY, GEORGIA
HAYDEN - PEAVEY CEMETERY (# 71 in the Powell book)

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson January 2, 2007

Location: From the East side of the Railroad in Downtown Pinehurst, beside the Cotton Gin, heading North on the old Pinehurst to Unadilla Road [dirt]. When approaching the curve where Fullington Road begins [heading West] turn East on a field road which goes toward I-75, follow this field road as it turns left to a grown-up area which encloses the Hayden-Peavy, also called Fullington Cemetery.

The area was known as the Fullington Place. Jesse R. Horne married Winny Fullington & they are parents of the Horne children. George W. Hayden married Emma Peavey

There are two distinct sections to this cemetery, section one is not enclosed and is located closest to I-75 and the field road in a thicket. Section two is enclosed by a rock wall, no gate, to get in you must climb over the wall. We were told that at one time some Peavy family members had cleaned it up. You could tell that brush had been cut (tripping over the stumps was the first clue) but some of the grass had been near five foot tall during the summer in places. This is definitely a "winter" cemetery due to the danger of snakes and other things hiding in the holes that we saw.

The Genealogical Card File of Victor R. Myrick

Victor Ray Myrick was born August 18, 1926 and died December 1, 1997. Victor was the son of Jonie Madison and Nellie Lee Harrell Myrick. Victor Myrick and my father, William Mixon, were first cousins. Victor never married and had no children but he had a deep desire to understand his family and began his genealogical research as a young man in his twenties. Victor was a graduate of Mercer University, a school principal in Bleckley County, and a Baptist minister. Victor was a member of several genealogical and historical organizations including CGGS where he held several offices including President. He was a genealogist before the time of computers and computerized databases. He developed this system to keep notes as he conducted genealogical research. I have attempted to transcribe these notes verbatim. None of the information has been verified. While I do not know the meaning of all the annotations, I believe some sources are designated as follows:
GGM - Georgia Genealogical Magazine
GGSQ - Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly
GP - Georgia Pioneer
SCMAR - South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research
RS - Revolutionary Soldier
Victor's notes as provided here should be used as clues to aid your research and original sources should be sought. Please note that entries are not in strict alphabetical order.

Some of the Confederate Veterans in this ca. 1910-1915 photo are known to be Crawford Countians and all of them may be. The photo appears to be taken at a train depot, possibly the Crawford County depot. Some individuals in this photo can be identified. The two little girls standing on the left are Myrtis and Kathryn McGee (daughters of Julius Sawyer McGee and his wife, Mary Pauline "Mamie" Dent). Standing in the back, 4th man from left (dark suit, white shirt, white hair) is William James Dent, a Confederate Veteran of Crawford County. He is wearing a UDC Medal on his lapel. Standing just to the left of William James Dent is his third wife Ida Zellner Dennis Dent. Ida is holding baby Ted McGee, a grandson. The 5th man from the right (only his head is visible) is Hoy Dent, son of W. J. Dent & Mary Jane Davis his first wife. The small man sitting on the far right, bottom row with his hat on his knee, may be Zachary T. Harris, who owned a hotel in Knoxville/Roberta for many years. He is pictured in the Crawford County Sesquentennial and a resemblance is apparent when the two photos are compared. Anyone able to identify other persons in this photo or with additional information are asked to contact Cheryl or the CGGSQ editor. This photo was shared by the owner, Carol McGee, granddaughter of Julius Sawyer McGee and is reprinted here with her permission.

In June 2008 CGGS made a donation to Washington Memorial Library's Genealogical and Historical Room of $1,200. CGGS makes an annual monetary gift to the library from society funds and donations made by individuals during the fall membership renewal process. A committee composed of WML Archivist Christopher Stokes and CGGS members Cheryl Aultman, Georgette Lipford and Linda Douglas will meet soon to select materials of interest to central Georgia researchers for purchase with this year's donation. Library budget cuts made over the past several years have impacted significantly the number of items that the library is able to purchase for its collection. The annual CGGS donation allows for the addition of materials that otherwise could not be made.

Materials Purchased with the 2007 CGGS Donation

The 2007 CGGS donation to WML in the amount of $1,000 was used to purchase the following items:

- Barnwell County, South Carolina Deeds 1851–1853, 1856. 1 reel
- Dodge County, Georgia Newspaper Clippings Vol. XX (2003–05)
- 1880 U.S. Census of Dodge County, Georgia
- News from Chauncey Vol. 5 (1945–57)
- News from Milan, Rhine, Old Telfair, Vol. 2 (1920–1932)
- We Came in Chains: "Lost Links:" History and Lineage of African-American Families from Houston County, Georgia by Alexander-Maiden
- Butler Herald (Microfilm) Supplemental Reel, 1916-1962

- News from Chauncey, Vol. 6 (1958 – 1969)
- Fairfield Co., South Carolina Deeds 1785-1875 (18 mf reels)
- News from Milan, Rhine, Old Telfair, Vol. 3 1933-37
- News from Milan, Rhine, Old Telfair Vol. 4 1938-40
- Macon Co. Extracts 1837-1902

Recognition of Individual Donors

CGGS's annual gift to WML is made possible in part by the generosity of individual CGGS members. The fall renewal notice provides an opportunity for making a gift to the library through CGGS. The following members made personal donations in the past year:

Nancy B. Douglas, [redacted]
Glenn & Margaret Heck, [redacted]
Marion Hodges, [redacted]
John & Elizabeth Payne, [redacted]
Dorothy Baker, [redacted]
Katie Smith, [redacted].
S.V. Sr. & Jeanie Zadach, [redacted]
Elaine Turk Nell, [redacted]
Britton & Joyce Dennis, [redacted]
John Benedict, [redacted]

Other CGGS Items Donated in 2007/2008

When CGGS members learned last year that the library may have to discontinue many of its periodical subscriptions due to budget cuts they quickly took action. The Board of Directors voted to donate to WML the five periodicals the society currently subscribes to or receives as gifts. Those publications provided to the library by CGGS since autumn of 2007 include:

The CGGS Quarterly and newsletter
The National Genealogical Society Quarterly
The Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly (donated by a CGGS member)
The Kentucky Register
Origins

If you have additional periodical subscriptions or books that you would be willing to donate to the Genealogy Room at WML, please inform the library staff or a CGGS Board member. Your gift could benefit the many researchers who visit WML. Director Willard Rocker, Historian Christopher Stokes and the library staff send thanks to CGGS members for their continued support through these gifts made this year.

Liberty Chapel Membership 1869 - 1871

Bibb County, GA

By Georgette Lipford

This church, now known as Liberty United Methodist Church, is located at 6511 Houston Rd. south of Macon in the Rutland community of Bibb County. The first meeting house close to the present site of the church was built of logs. In 1834 Mrs. Laury Atkinson Lundy donated 10 acres for the church to trustees Thomas Stubbs, Thomas Simmons, Charlie Fretwell, Irma Netherland and Thomas Roland. (1) The church was named by member, James Tinley, after his home church in Richmond Co., GA. A new church was built in 1901 replacing a building that had stood for 67 years. (2) Some of the early church members listed below are buried in the older portion of the church cemetery located behind the present day church buildings. The church cemetery has been transcribed and is available on the Bibb County page of the USGENWeb Archives Project web site: http://www.usgwarchives.org/ga/bibb/cemetery.html.

The membership rolls listed here are taken from the microfilm titled "Church Minutes and membership, 1869 – 1888" filmed by the Georgia Department of Archives and History. (3) The original appears to be a bound ledger book. The pages are not numbered. Memberships are listed for the years 1869, 1871, 1873, 1875 and 1879. One page of infant baptisms appears between membership years. Minutes from three church conferences follow the membership lists. This article includes church members from the 1869 and 1871 lists only and the baptisms. The 1871 membership roll appears to have been written between March and August of that year based on notations made to the 1869 list and member names not included on the 1871 list. Most members' names are listed and numbered in the same order for both years. The numbers assigned to members are not provided here because the lists for two years are combined. Separate lists were recorded for males and females each year. The spelling of names is retained from the original as well as marginal notations on individuals concerning membership status, family relationships, and occasional death dates. For the few persons whose first name was abbreviated in one list and written in full on the other list, the full name is provided here.

Captain Samuel L. Turner of Spalding, Macon County, Georgia

Compiled by Candice Ellis

The Turner family started out in this country around the 1670's when Reverend William Turner moved from his homeland of Aberdeen, Scotland to Ireland and finally to Snow Hill, Maryland. He was a Presbyterian minister. At this time, many Scottish were living in Ireland (Ulster) on land that was taken from the native Irish by Elizabeth and James I. The Scottish could live on this newly acquired land for very little money. The Irish regarded the Scottish settlers very poorly because their land had been taken by these foreigners, and the Irish were Catholic. The fact that the Scottish were Presbyterian didn't help matters. Conflicts arose, and many of the Scottish settlers, like my descendents, moved to America to escape religious and even economic persecution. They settled in Maryland because it was one of the new colonies that accepted Presbyterians and other denominations other than the Church of England.

The Turners thrived in Snow Hill, Worchester County, Maryland. It is a beautiful town on the New England coast. They settled there for about one hundred years until the Revolutionary War broke out. One of Rev. Turner's descendents, Samuel B. Turner, joined the war to fight for Maryland. When the war was over, the country decided that since they couldn't reimburse the soldiers with money, they would reimburse them with the land recently taken from the Native Americans. Each soldier was given tickets for a land lottery. Samuel B. Turner was given tickets for a lottery in Georgia. He won two draws in the Land Lottery of the Ocmulgee lands of 1806. His new land bordered the Oconee River in Hancock County, Georgia right outside of Sparta. It was written in his obituary that he was among the first to cross the Ogeechee River. This was important then because everything west of the Ogeechee was Native American territory. He was married three times. The first time he married Sarah Roe in Hancock County on 02 July 1807. He married his second wife, Betsy Bynum, on 12 February 1811. Finally, he married his last wife, Mary Maddox, on 09 January 1823. He had a total of ten children between all three wives. His last child by Mary Maddox Turner was Samuel Leonard Turner who was born 12 August 1833. A few months later on January 22, 1834 Samuel B. Turner died at the age of 74. Samuel L. Turner would never know his birth father.

Mary Maddox Turner remarried a wealthy cow merchant by the name of William S. Hamill who moved the family now consisting of William, Mary, Samuel, and his brother Andrew Jackson Turner to Dooly County, Georgia. Andrew Jackson Turner was mentally challenged, and Samuel Turner would care for his brother for the rest of Andrew's life. This area of Dooly County was known as Traveler's Rest. The county lines soon shifted, and this party of Dooly County became Macon County.

Samuel fell in love with the daughter of a wealthy plantation owner and politician named Ichabod Davis. Her name was Parmelia Davis. They married and settled down on a cotton plantation in Spalding, Georgia right outside of Montezuma, Georgia in Macon County. In 1853, Mary F. Turner, Samuel and Parmelia's first child, was born. Soon came Monteze (I think his name is a variation of Montezuma) in 1859. Samuel Turner was one of the first members of Traveler's Rest Baptist Church, and he was also a Mason. Everything went smoothly until the Civil War broke out.

1862 was a year of sorrow for young Samuel. The dreaded smallpox hit Macon County. It must have been chaos. Mrs. Louise Hays wrote in her book, The History of Macon County, "When the epidemic of smallpox struck in 1862, 100's of people died each day – whole families were buried in one night. . . So great was the fear of contracting smallpox that even the dead were segregated in their own cemetery." (181) Samuel lost his wife, Parmelia, and his two oldest children, Mary and Monteze. It was also in 1862 that Samuel L. Turner joined the 62nd Cavalry in Company K where he traveled to Blackwater Creek and Franklin,Virginia to fight for the Confederacy. By April 23, 1863 he was promoted to full Captain and transferred to Company K, 8th Georgia Cavalry. He fought at Cold Harbor and Petersburg, Virginia (the battle that was depicted in the movie Cold Mountain) which were two very important battles in the war. Captain Turner was paroled on May 15, 1865.

On 18 April 1866, he married another of Ichabod Davis' daughters, Sarah A. Davis. She was the younger sister of Parmelia. Reconstruction was hard for the Turner family. The plantation was put on hold. Captain Turner left his family (pregnant wife Sarah and his son Eugene) in the hands of John H. McKenzie of Macon County while he and Andrew moved to nearby Marshallville. There he worked as a warehouse clerk. It is unknown how long Captain Turner stayed in Marshallville, but on the 21st of March 1870, his first child with Sarah, Claude, was born. Kate Turner was born next on 11 March 1872. Watts Turner was born on 10 September 1874. Mannie was born on 06 May 1878. Mary was born 07 December 1880, and finally Sam Turner was born 10 January 1884.

According to family Bible records, Captain Samuel Leonard Turner died on a Sunday night at 8:00 PM on 07 May 1899. He was buried in Traveler's Rest Baptist Cemetery in Macon County Georgia where he attended church and Masonic meetings. He was buried next to his son, Eugene, and his in-laws Ichabod and Mary Davis. His obituary from the Macon Telegraph stated, "Capt. Sam Turner, one of the oldest residents of Macon County, died at his home in Spalding yesterday. As we heard a gentleman remark on yesterday, 'he was one of nature's noblemen.' He was one of the old time Southern gentlemen who are fast passing away. Before the war he was in the mercantile business in Montezuma and was known as one of our wealthiest citizens. But through the reverses of the war and through his generous nature and impulses he lost a greater portion of his property. His life was insured for about $6,000, mostly in the assessment companies." He was the son of a Revolutionary War hero, and he became a Civil War hero. He was a man that Macon County can be proud to call its own.

Churches, Schools, Businesses and Cemeteries From Houston Co., GA Deed Books

Contributed by Wayne Chapman

Wayne Chapman is a native of Houston Co. and works in the Houston Co. Tax Assessors Office. The following information was assembled by Wayne from Houston Co. Deed Books and Plat Books. The first column indicates the Deed Book letter or number designation where the deed is recorded. The "Map #" notation in the far right column for some entries refers to tax maps. This list contains a few documents other than deeds, such as marriage contracts and a will. Houston County was formed in 1821 from Indian lands. Since then portions of Houston County have been lost to Bibb Co., 1822, Crawford Co., 1822, Macon Co., 1837 and Peach County, 1924. Thus, many of the deeds listed below are for land now located in other counties, particularly Peach Co. The following abbreviations are used:

Further information for research

Houston County deeds and plats can be found in the Houston County Superior Court located at 201 Perry Parkway, Perry, GA 31067. The county Tax Assessor's office is also located in the Superior Court building. Those persons planning to research onsite should be aware that parking is some distance from the building. Handicapped persons may ring for assistance at the outer part of the walkway leading from the parking lot. There are no restaurants nearby but there is a wide variety of fast food and restaurants a short drive into Perry. Parking may be limited on days that court is in session so checking on the schedule by phone and planning ahead is wise.

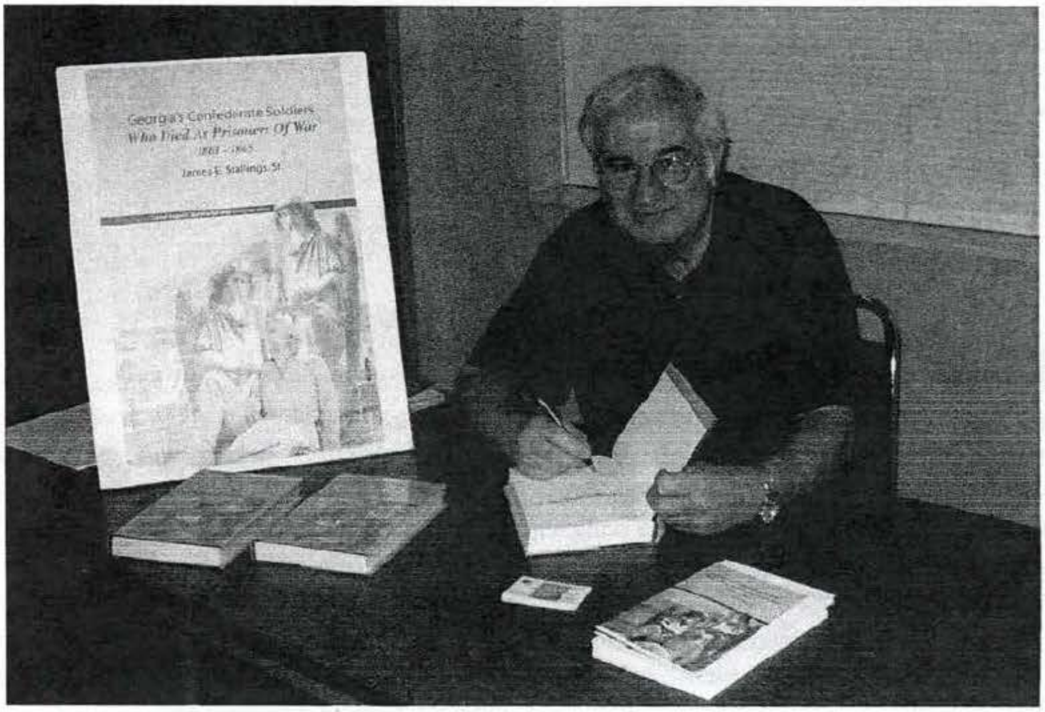
An option to researching onsite is to rent the Houston Co. deeds on microfilm from the LDS Family History Library. Search their catalog at the LDS website: www.familysearch.com by selecting the "Library" tab at the top of the page, then "Library Catalog".

Recent Houston Co. land records (from approximately 1972 to the present) are searchable by name, deed book/page, file number, date range and subdivision and link to document images at the office's web site:
www.houstoncountyga.com/government/houston-county-superior-court.aspx

The Land Records of Houston County, Vol. I – V (1822 – 1840) by Davine Campbell and William Henry are available from CGGS in both soft cover book and CD formats. See the publications pages and order form near the back of every issue of the CGGSQ.

CGGS Member James Stallings Publishes Book

By Georgette Lipford



Georgia's Confederate Soldiers Who Died As Prisoners Of War
1861 - 1865
James E. Stallings Sr.

James Stallings, Sr. signs a copy of his book at a recent CGGS meeting

After more than six years of research, writing and preparation, James Stallings's book, Georgia's Confederate Soldiers Who Died as Prisoners of War, 1861 - 1865, is finally in the hands of readers. At a recent CGGS meeting Stallings described his experience of producing the book and reflected on it as a labor of love all the way. From a 2001 visit to the grave of his Civil War ancestor in Woodlawn National Cemetery at Elmira, New York, grew a desire to honor the 26,436 Confederate soldiers who died in Northern prison camps. The focus of his book is Georgia soldiers who were among that number and died either in a United States prison camp or hospital. Each Georgia soldier who could be identified is named and the soldier's rank, unit, place of capture, date of death and cause of death are provided. The goal of paying tribute to Georgia's soldiers motivated Stallings's work through the years. He lovingly calls them "my boys".

Of the approximately 106 United States prisons used to incarcerate political and military prisoners during the war, Georgia's Confederate Soldiers Who Died as Prisoners of War, 1861 – 1865 examines nine major prisons with separate chapters devoted to each. The prisons detailed include:

- Alton Federal Military Prison – Illinois
- Camp Chase U.S. Prison – Columbus, Ohio
- Camp Chemung (Elmira) U.S. Prison – New York
- Camp Douglas – Chicago, Illinois
- Camp Hoffman (Point Lookout) U.S. Prison – Maryland
- Camp Morton U.S. Prison – Indiana
- Fort Delaware U.S. Prison – Pea Patch Island, Delaware River
- Johnson's Island Confederate Stockade – Sandusky Bay, Ohio

- Rock Island Prison Barracks – Illinois

The history and development of each site is described as well as the housing, diet, environmental conditions and diseases that contributed to prisoner deaths. Each chapter contains a list of soldiers who died and are buried at that location. Several stories of individuals who were connected with the prisons are memorable. Elmira resident, John W. Jones, a runaway slave from Virginia, contracted with the U.S. government to manage the burial of prisoners who died in captivity at the Elmira prison. It was Jones' method of accomplishing the burials that would provide the most accurate information about the men buried there. In each coffin was placed a small glass bottle containing the name, company, regiment and date of death of each man. A wooden headboard with the same data was nailed to the coffin and another was used to mark the grave.

Many captured soldiers never made it to U.S. prisons because they died in federal hospitals of battlefield injuries or disease. The organization of the Medical Departments of the Confederate and United States armies were nearly identical during the war. Both used field and general hospitals. Field hospitals were temporary locations near the battlefield used to stabilize the wounded and provide immediate care and/or surgery. After treatment wounded soldiers were soon transferred to a general hospital for recovery and long term care. General hospitals were located in more permanent buildings as compared to field hospitals for which any structure at hand would be used including barns, churches, private homes and tents. Stallings describes the medical care of wounded Confederates and Union soldiers in the aftermath of the battles at Gettysburg and Antietam. One of the greatest challenges for the two armies was the removal of the wounded from the battlefield. After Gettysburg as Lee's army retreated, some wounded Confederates lay where they had fallen for two or three days, without shelter from the hot July sun. Soldiers who died in U.S. hospitals are listed by state or region with the following information provided: name, rank, unit, where captured, date of death, cause of death, grave number (when known) and source citation.

For source material Stallings draws heavily on The Roster of the Confederate Soldiers of Georgia by Lillian Henderson, The War of the Rebellion: A Compilation of the Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies and the soldiers' Compiled Service Records, as well as multiple other historical works on individual prisons, the medical service and the war. When applicable, Stallings used quotes from original sources such as the Official Records to allow the participants to tell their own story.

This well designed book has an especially beautiful dust jacket illustration of two angels ministering to an ailing soldier. Stallings said he actually conceived the image on the cover before he began writing the book. It is a composite of statuary art found in two different locations in Macon, Ga. and represents his belief that as Georgia's sons lay dying far from home and family angels were nearby preparing to take them to their heavenly home. Faye Poss, Chair of the Advisory Committee for the R. J. Taylor, Jr. Foundation, and who in her own right is a published author of over fifteen genealogical research books, recently wrote of Stallings's book: "It's a beautiful book, very, very well done, with great information for researchers! The picture on the cover really does set the book off... [it] should be one of the 'classics' on the Civil War, and will be much utilized by researchers looking for their ancestors who fought in the Civil War."

Georgia's Confederate Soldiers Who Died as Prisoners of War, 1861-1865 is hard cover, 399 pages, and includes photographs of memorial monuments at several of the prison cemeteries, a medical glossary and index. It may be ordered from the author: James Stallings, 230 Calloway Drive, Macon, GA 31204. The cost for Georgia residents is $37.50 (includes tax and shipping). The cost for non-Georgia residents is $35.00 (no tax, includes shipping). For more information contact James by email: [redacted]

BULLINGTON FAMILY CEMETERY
Dooly County, Georgia

Surveyed by Helen Shirah Hudson and Davine Vining Campbell on March 6, 2007.

This cemetery is not listed in Watts & Nora Powell's Vol. II Cemetery listings.

Located North of Hwy 27 [Vienna to Hawkinsville Rd.] on Air Strip Rd. that joins Third Dist. Rd. It is very overgrown with several large trees. There appears to be a sod farm in the fields behind it. The graves were recorded as we could reach them and are not necessarily in row order.

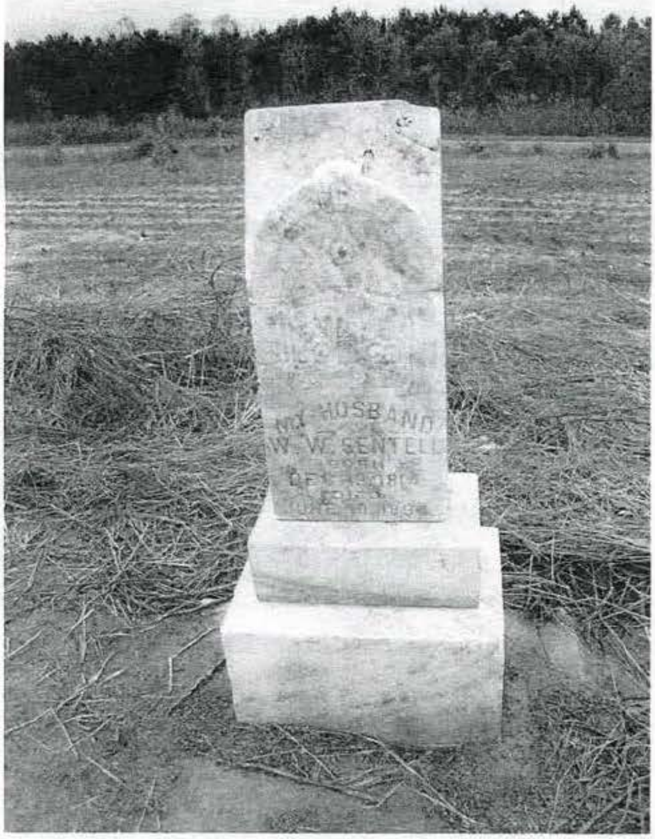
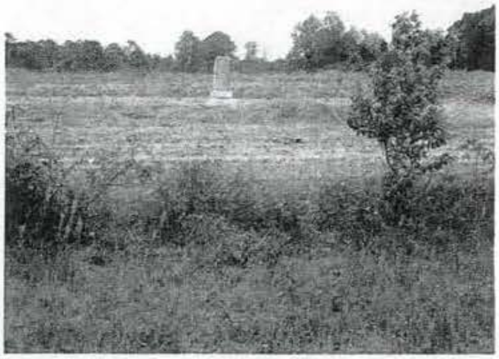
W. W. SENTELL GRAVESITE - A CEMETERY OF ONE KNOWN GRAVE.

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson April 2007

This burial is listed as #68, single grave about one mile north of Clewis Cemetery on Old Vienna-Perry Road. Not a lot of help since this Clewis Cemetery is off the road and in the woods. However it is marked on the Georgia Forestry map for Dooly county that we had. The first time we tried to find it, Rev. Childs on whose place the Clewis Cemetery is located told us approximately where it was but he thought that it had been moved. On another trip to the area, the field had been plowed and it was quite visible from the road. To get to it, you must cross a ditch and go through a barb wire fence. The slab has been damaged but the upright marker is in very good shape. The back of the marker faces the present day road.
W. W. Sentell (My Husband) Dec 19, 1814 - June 19, 1884





This marker would have been placed by his second wife Melissa F. Thompson Sentell. They married Aug. 23, 1877 in Dooly County, Georgia. They appear in the 1880 Census for District 2, Dooly County, GA (William W. Sentell age 65 and Melissa F. Sentell age 44). In this H/H also appears his youngest daughter Georgia F. Sentell Jones, age 20 and her new husband Barry Jones, age 20. Melissa's maiden name is unknown as is her burial site.

STEPHENS - STEVENS – KEEL

John William Stephens married Camilla Ann Hill and they produced twelve children, born in Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi. Jesse Milford Stephens was the youngest of these children. We know the family returned to Georgia because John enlisted into the Brown Company and died just 51 days later in Memphis, Tennessee on 24 April 1862.

The death certificate of Jesse Milford Stephens (1861-1950) states that his wife's name was Fannie Keel. Jesse Milford Stephens' had a daughter named Jessie Stephens, born 1889 in Buchanan, Carroll County, Georgia. Daughter, Jessie, moved to Bibb County Georgia about 1909 and married Onan Wesley Marshall. Onan and Jessie are buried in Macon, Bibb County, GA. Jessie's death certificate states that her mother's name was Fanny Keel and that she was born in Alabama.

Census research has revealed a female of the right age to be Miss Fannie Keel born in Rome, Georgia. This female later lived in Carroll County Georgia and it appears the family moved to Alabama by 1880. The head of household, Andrew J. Keel died in 1886 in Alabama and his widow remarried two years after his death.

A Fannie Keel married J. M. Stephens in Carroll County, Georgia in 1886. I cannot verify that this is my J.M. Stephens, but things seem to fit. Daughter, Jessie, was born there in 1889, and I have letters from Jessie, while she attended school in Bernau, Gainesville, GA as late as Feb 1904.

A marriage record in Haralson County Georgia reveals a marriage between M. C. Chandler and J. M. Stephens in 1889. There is also a marriage record in the same county between Dr. Marshall Stephens and a Miss Priestly. We have confirmed that this Marshall Stephens is the brother of our Jesse Milford Stephens.

Jesse Milford Stephens' sister, Georgia Emma Stephens, married William Stevens. William Stevens was the owner of the Stevens Plants in Bibb and Baldwin counties that produced concrete pipe for road culverts and sewers.

Jesse Milford Stephens appears in the census as follows: age 18 in 1880 in Carroll County GA living with his mother and two siblings; age 37 in 1900 in Bibb County GA living with his sister and brother-in-law William & Emma Stevens; age 48 in 1910 in Bibb County GA, and age 58 in 1920 in Bibb County GA living with his daughter, Jessie & son-in-law O. W. Marshall.

Seeking additional information on the Fannie/Fanny Keel that married Jesse Milford Stephens, including her date of death and burial place. One theory is that she died young, possibly in childbirth, but we'd like to have proof. Willing to correspond and share information on the Stephens, Stevens and Keel families.

Francis T. Tennille Slave Medical Care Account, 1859- 1860

By Georgette Lipford

Francis T. Tennille was a farmer living in Clay Co., Ga. in the 1850, 1860 and 1870 federal censuses. He had been born in Washington Co., Ga. about 1799 and resided in Georgia until his death in 1877. (1) Enumerated in Tennille's household in the 1860 federal census were; Francis T. Tennille, age 61; Carrie A. Ford, age 22; William A. Tennille, age 19 and Albert A. Tennille, age 16. The elder Tennille reported real estate valued at $29,000 and personal estate valued at $90,075. (2) A portion of that personal estate would have included the slaves Tennille owned.

In the 1860 federal slave census Tennille is listed as the owner of 14 slaves and three slave houses. (3) The slaves were enumerated on June 19th as follows:

Gender	Age	Color
Male	54	B
Male	35	B
Female	40	B
Female	20	M
Male	12	M
Male	10	B
Male	8	M
Male	6	B
Male	2	M
Male	8 mo.	M
Female	5 mo.	M
Female	3	M

Dr. Walter T. Murchison of adjoining Calhoun Co. provided medical care to the Tennille slaves. An accounts journal kept by Dr. Murchison on which he recorded each visit he made to Tennille's plantation, the treatment provided to the slaves and the associated charges has survived for the period of January 1859 through October 1860. (4) Most of the visits were for tooth extraction and childbirth. The entries from the journal pages are transcribed below. The heading on the first page, "Medical attention for slaves in Calhoun Co." is in a different handwriting as that recording the visits to the Tennille plantation. The designation of Tennille's location as Calhoun Co. suggests the heading may have been added at a later date by someone other than Dr. Murchison since Francis Tennille appears in Clay Co., Post Office Fort Gaines, in the federal censuses of 1850, 1860 and 1870. On the journal page entries "Do" appears to signify 'ditto'.

31 Jany 1861 W. T. Murchison”

In the 1860 federal census Tennille's slaves are nameless but this medical ledger helps to give them an identity. Since the medical visits occurred in the time period near to the 1860 census date the researcher may form theories of possible identities by correlating the names on the medical ledger pages to the 1860 slave census listing.

Dr. Murchison provides names for fourteen patients; Bob, Seab, Jane, Edward, Lindy, Catherine, Richard, Boston, Stephen, Antinet, Sith/Sythe, Mary, Sarah and Sue; one more than the number of slaves listed in the 1860 slave census. Dr. Murchison assisted three women in the delivery of five babies; Jane on July 2, 1959 and April 8, 1860; Catherine on August 7, 1859 and August 26, 1860 and Sarah on March 7, 1860. Only three women of child bearing age were listed as belonging to Tennille on the 1860 slave census and those three were most likely named Jane, Catherine and Sarah. The four youngest children listed in the slave census may have been four of the babies delivered by Dr. Murchison. Their ages on the date of the 1860 census, June 19th, would have been 11 months, 10 months, 3 months and 2 months (Catherine's second child delivered by Dr. Murchison was born after the June 1860 census). The reported ages of the four youngest Tennille slaves listed in the 1860 census were 3 years, 2 years, 8 months and 5 months. Either Tennille estimated the ages of these four young children incorrectly when he reported their ages to the census taker or two of the babies may have died by the June 19th census listing.

Documenting slave identity is a particular challenge for genealogists. Although Dr. Murchison's medical care account pages provide only first names for Mr. Tennille's slaves, it is a valuable resource for descendants of the Tennille slaves and other researchers of this family.

JENKINS CEMETERY DOOLY COUNTY, GEORGIA

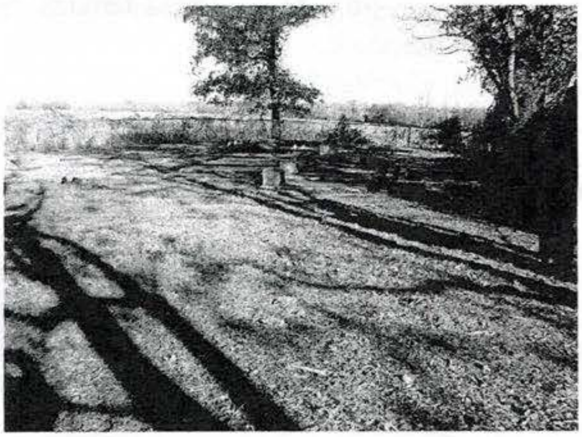
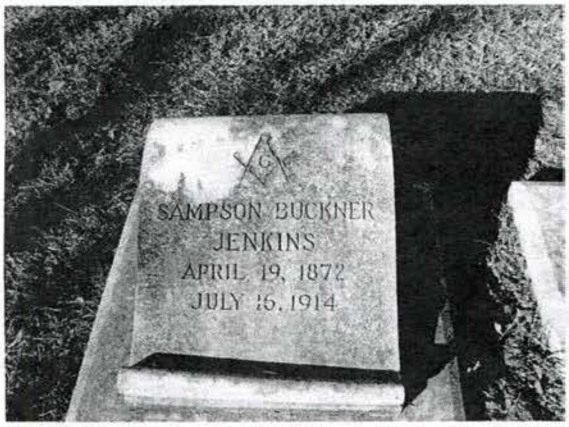
Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson January 2, 2007

Located 1 mi. East of Dooling on Popular Springs Road – Wrought Iron Fence. Recently Cleaned





Sampson Buckner Jenkins

Sarah E. w/o Jno. A. Jenkins

On our first visit to this cemetery, we decided that it was definitely a "winter" cemetery due to the overgrown condition. We were most pleasantly surprised when we returned prepared to battle the brush to find it in this beautiful condition.

Book A 1823-1831

Contributed by Sandra Morton

These marriages were transcribed from a printed copy of Book A at the Pike County Courthouse which appeared to be a photocopy of the microfilmed original. Pike County was created in December 1822 from Monroe County. Portions of Pike became Upson County in 1824, Spalding County in 1851 and Lamar County in 1920.

FAMILY TEMPERANCE PLEDGE

GOD BLESS OUR HOME

WHY SIGN THE PLEDGE BECAUSE

1. Moderate drinking tends to drunkenness, while total abstinence directly from it.

2. While no one means to become a drunkard, there is said to be over six hundred thousand confirmed drunkards in our country to-day.

3. Intoxicating drinks can do no good as a beverage, and there are always safer and surer remedies to use in case of sickness.

4. The idea of moderation is full of deceit, and our estimate of the power of our own will is usually a mistaken one.

5. The drinking habit is the cause of the larger portion of the misery, poverty and crime in our land.

6. Both science and experience prove that even moderate drinking is injurious to health.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED SOLEMNLY PROMISE

BY THE HELP OF GOD

TO ABSTAIN FROM THE USE OF ALL INTOXICATING DRINKS AS A BEVERAGE

WHY SIGN THE PLEDGE BECAUSE

7. Eternal interests are often forfeited through drink, for the Bible declares that no drunkard shall enter heaven.

8. The Bible pronounces no blessing upon drinking, but many upon total abstinence.

9. It is easier to keep a pledge publicly, solemnly given, than a simple resolution.

10. The pledge protects us from the solicitations of friends, and removes us from the temptations of the saloon.

11. Persons miscalculate their ability to drink in moderation, and become slaves to the drinking habit before they are aware of it.

12. Intemperance obstructs civilization, education, religion and every useful reform.

Genealogy Internet Research Update

By Georgette Lipford

Often we all choose for one reason or another to spend a research day at home. Maybe the cost of gasoline is too high, the weather is bad or the comfort of home is just more inviting. Regardless of the reason, when we choose to research from home rather than at the library, courthouse or state Archives, the goal is still to make progress on our current project. The options for researching online from home are more numerous and more economical than ever. Fifteen years ago genealogists daydreamed about home access to resources such as those described below. What follows are just a few of the many genealogy websites that are either free or economically priced.

1. GALILEO – http://www.galileo.usg.edu - The Georgia Library Learning Online is an initiative of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. Patrons of Georgia's public libraries can use GALILEO for free with a password (which changes quarterly) available from their local library. Many of the databases are also available to "guest" users without the current password. The highlights of this site include:
    - Macon Telegraph historic newspapers, 1826 – 1908 (available without password) - The Telegraph carried legal notices and advertisements for not only Bibb county but many surrounding central Georgia counties. On the Macon Telegraph search page follow one of the links on the right side to download the DiVu browser plug-in which is required to view the newspaper pages. Search results will be highlighted on the full page and can be easily viewed using the magnifier tool.
    - Digital Library of Georgia (available without password)
    - Georgia Historic Books (80 volumes and available without password)
    - Sanborn Fire Insurance maps for Georgia towns and cities, 1884 - 1922
    - Heritage Quest - This site requires a library issued password. It includes U.S. federal census images for 1790 – 1930, the Periodical Source Index to genealogy magazine and journal articles (PERSI), Revolutionary War pension and bounty land warrant application files, Freedman's Bank records and the U.S. Serial Set. The census images are complete but the 1830, 1840, 1850 census years are not searchable by individual name and only five states of the 1930 are indexed. Surname searches are for the exact spelling of the name only but the site is user friendly and in some respects preferable to Ancestry.com census searches.
2. Georgia Archives & Georgia Digital Vault – http://sos.georgia.gov/archives/ Some of the searchable collections (with digital images) available include:
    - Georgia's 1864 Militia Enrollment Lists
    - Marriage Books for Bryan, Bullock, Clark and Jasper counties
    - Georgia Death Certificates 1919 – 1927
    - Georgia Confederate Pension Applications 1879 – 1960
    - Tax Digests for some counties
    - Headright and Bounty Plats of Survey for Burke, Camden, Chatman, Effingham and Screven counties
3. Google Books - http://www.google.com/ - Think of Google Books as a card catalog/index for a giant library. In fact, the stated goal of Google Books is to create "a comprehensive, searchable, virtual card catalog of all books in all languages". From the main Google search page, click on "More" and select "Books" from the drop down menu. Books are available in snippet, preview or full views. Books out of copyright are shown in full view and the entire book can be read online or searched by keyword and name. If a book is in the public domain you can download, save and print a PDF version. Often the book's index or Table of Contents links to the applicable page. A few of the publications related to genealogy and local history on Google Books in full view include:

- The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography – assorted issues
- The Historical Record of Macon and Central Georgia by John C. Butler
- George White's Statistics of the State of Georgia
- History of the Doles-Cook Brigade by Henry Walter Thomas
- The Personal and Family History of Charles Hooks and Margaret Monk
- A Gazetteer of Georgia by Adiel Sherwood
- William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine – assorted issues
- The History of Butler County, Alabama: 1815 – 1885 by John B. Little
- Assorted volumes of the Georgia Reports, Southwestern Reporter and other law volumes reporting cases heard in The State Supreme Court, etc.
- Memoirs of the Fort and Fannin Families by Kate Haynes Fort
- The Scotch-Irish: Or, the Scot in North Britain, North Ireland and North America by Charles A. Hanna, pub. 1902.
- DeBow's Review – This periodical (1846 – 1884) had wide readership in the south and included articles on agricultural, industrial and commercial news. An 1853 issue reported that Mrs. F. A. Solomons of Twiggs Co. won a $5 cup for the best coil bear grass rope in the "Manufacturers Other Than Domestic" category at the 1853 State Fair held in Macon, Ga.

4. Mid Continent Public Library – http://www.mcpl.lib.mo.us/ - For $20 a year a library card from this Independence, Missouri library allows you access to several online databases, including: America's GenealogyBank, Archive Finder, Heritage Quest, Sanborn Fire Insurance maps, 1867-1970 (for 12,000 U. S. cities and towns) and ProQuest Obituaries. GenealogyBank has 1,300 historical U.S. newspapers (including the Macon, Ga. newspapers). For $20/year this is a great bargain for these databases. To obtain an out-of-district library card from MCPL write to: Assistant Director, Mid-Continent Public Library, 15616 East 24 Highway, Independence, MO 64050. Enclose a check for $20 payable to "Mid-Continent Public Library" and include your name, street address, telephone number and date of birth.

5. FamilySearch.org Pilot project – http://pilot.familysearch.org/recordsearch/start.html The LDS Pilot project can be accessed from the homepage of the LDS website by selecting "See new prototype… " under "What's New". On the pilot project page use the world map to access available records. The LDS steadily adds new content but for the United States there are already multiple state censuses, vital statistics for seven states and the 1850 federal mortality and slave censuses (both nearly complete).

One way to keep up to date with the news in genealogy is to subscribe to Eastman's Online Genealogy Newsletter. Dick Eastman produces this brief newsletter daily with three or four stories on topics such as newly released online resources, upcoming genealogy events, technology and software. The basic newsletter is free or you can subscribe to the Plus Edition for $5.95 for three months. Sign up for Eastman's free newsletter at http://www.eogn.com.

Another source of genealogy news is the Genealogy Guys pod cast produced by George Morgan and Drew Smith. Their website is www.genealogyguys.com and from there you can listen to their daily pod cast, download it to your IPod, or read it by following the links in the daily article.

The above sites are truly just a taste of what is available online today and much of it hints at the possibilities for the future. As an increasing number of original records are digitized and made available online you may have to pinch yourself to make sure you're not dreaming.

The Georgia Pioneer Program: CGGS Ancestors

By Sherrie Mixon Nelson

The primary objective of the Georgia Pioneer Program is to identify and honor the memory of the earliest pioneers in the state. The pioneer certificate documents the proved pioneer's lasting mark on the state they helped to develop, by honoring their descendents. The research and work necessary to discover the pioneers and their descendents is intended to foster and encourage increasing interest in the people who contributed in any way – great or small – to establishing Georgia, her customs, culture, genealogy and history. Completed applications are maintained at Washington Memorial Library in Macon, Georgia.

Applicants must complete a detailed application form for their Georgia ancestor(s), listing and proving their descent from the pioneer ancestor and the pioneer ancestor's settlement in the state of Georgia before 1 January 1826. Copies of proof documents must accompany the application and all proof documents must include source citation. This program is open to anyone who qualifies and is therefore not limited to CGGS members. Complete, detailed instructions are included with the application which can be requested by writing to CGGS, PO Box 2024, Warner Robins GA 31099-2024. A $10 fee for each pioneer ancestor certificate requested must be enclosed with the completed application.

Since the inception of this program in 1985, 236 ancestor certificates have been awarded. Below are the Georgia Pioneer certificates awarded by CGGS currently on file.

Pike County, Georgia Marriages

Abstracted by Sandra Morton

These marriages were transcribed from a printed copy of Book A at the Pike County Courthouse which appeared to be a photocopy of the microfilmed original. Pike County was created in December 1822 from Monroe County. Portions of Pike became Upson County in 1824, Spalding County in 1851 and Lamar County in 1920.

Editor's Note: In the Part I of this series on the Pike County marriages one marriage was performed by Henry Hooten although no official designation was given for him in the record. Ken Thomas provides the following information on Henry Hooten: he was an important Baptist minister and lived for a time in Jones Co., Ga. where he founded a church. He later moved on to Upson Co. and then on to Alabama where he died.

Located off Hwy 90, North of Vienna, turn left, traveling north, at Hudson Rd. Go to Dead End, turn Right on dirt field road, go .35 mi. and the grown up cemetery will be on your right. TAKE CLIPPERS Remember, this is a "stand on your head, dodge the snakes & take pictures" type cemetery. There is a partially intact iron fence around it. Cemetery No. 55 in Watts & Nora Powell Book. .

1. In Memory of SON HARRIS – Age 14 years. (Whose son, or is his first name Son with a surname of Harris?)
2. COLLIER, Sarah K.,w/o J.J.Collier, & d/o H. W & Elizabeth Fenn Born Aug. 27, 1813 - Died July 14, 1860
3. COLLIER, Francis A. Mch. 3, 1846 - Nov. 6, 1852
4. COLLIER, Francis M. Dec. 29, 1833 - Oct. 25, 1841

6. De GRAFFENRIED, Elizabeth Ann, wife of John C. & d/o John J. & Sarah Collier Apr. 29, 1832 - Mch. 22, 1855

NOTE: No marker was found for John J. Collier, doesn't mean that there is not one in this cemetery. HOWEVER, in the COLLIER CEMETERY # 15 near Drayton, there is a fairly new pillow marker for John Joseph Collier [1807 - 1878] next to Minerva Mason Collier [Died 1895] also a new Pillow marker. The J.J.Collier Bible says: J.J.Collier and Minerva W. Mason were married 30th January 1861.[This would have been after 1st wife, Sarah K. Fenn died] Need some HELP from Collier Family Researchers.

MALACHI Mc KENZIE CEMETERY- Dooly County, Georgia

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson October 2006

Directions: Hwy. 90, South of Byromville, immediately beyond the Byromville-Pinehurst Rd. on your left. In front of planted pines but heavily wooded & weeded. Hard to see, even though it is right on the roadside. Nice fence at one time, approximately 14 ft.X14 ft. Fallen trees and in dire need of attention.

Cemetery No. 46 in Watts & Nora Powell Book (Due to information that we have found, we think that this may be a black family cemetery. We were also told by a community member that they had seen a group of black ladies out cleaning it at one time.) If anyone has information on this cemetery, please let us know.

The cemetery is located near the power line pole. (Looking from the south.)

MIDWAY INDEPENDENT METHODIST CHURCH

Surveyed August 2006 By Helen Hudson & Davine V. Campbell

Note: This Cemetery is NOT listed in Nora & Watts Powell's Book, "Historical & Genealogical Collections of Dooly County, Georgia, Vol II". The earliest burial seems to be 1974.

At the time of the survey, the church was completely gone, there was a hole where it appeared a basement was at one time and a paved parking lot. The church sign was still standing listing the name, pastors name and a time of worship. The mail box was there but everything else was cleared off. The star symbol with Veteran U.S. was different from any we had seen before.

Confederate Soldiers and Widows Census
Houston County, Georgia

Contributed by Wayne Chapman

On August 22, 1905 the Georgia General Assembly passed Act No. 450. The stated purpose of this act was "to require a census of the Confederate soldiers and the widows of Confederate soldiers to be made of those now residing in Georgia and to provide compensation therefore, and for other purposes." Section 1 of the act required "it shall be the duty of the Comptroller-General in the preparation of the tax digest for 1906,or as soon thereafter as possible, to add thereto the proper headings for having made a census of the Confederate soldiers now residing in Georgia, who so resided on the first day of January, 1906, so as to give the name, company and regiment in which the soldier or dead husband of the widow served, also the time and place of enlistment, and when and where discharged." Section 2 further directed "it shall be the duty of the receiver of tax returns in each county, beginning 1906, to take and enter upon his tax digest the names of every ex-Confederate soldier, and the widow of every ex-Confederate soldier, now residing in their respective counties, for which he shall be paid by his county five cents per name so entered on his digest."[1]

This following list of Civil War veterans, apparently made in compliance with the Act of 1905, was transcribed from the 1908 Houston County Tax Digest book. A few adjustments were made to the transcribed list to improve formatting:
In the 2nd column where "CO" signifies the soldier's "Company" the numerals represent:
[1] – Holt's [2] – Southern Rights [3] – Gartrell's Co. Cavalry [4] – Pat's Battalion
[5] – Prudence Battalion [6] – Jackson [7] – Harris Artillery [8] - Bibb Co.

Bibb County, Georgia
Businesses and Planters of 1883

Contributed by Georgette Lipford

The following information was abstracted from the Georgia State Gazetteer, Business & Planter's Directory, 1883, Vol. III.[1] Spelling and punctuation was retained as it was printed in the Directory. All of the communities that could be identified for Bibb County are included here. A few small portions of descriptive information printed in the Directory was omitted in this article, including some geographical and elevation coordinates for Macon and the repetitive information describing the services in Macon available to residents of the smaller communities. For Macon only the farmers are listed here. The Directory contains 19 pages of businesses for Macon and those will appear in a future issue of this quarterly. The farmers in the community of Rutland are listed under Macon. "P.M." signifies Post Master. The "express" service referred to was for expedited shipping of goods and parcels (perhaps similar to the use today of UPS and FedEx).

Macon (m.o.) – Bibb County seat – C. R. R.; W. W. Ry.; E. T., V. & Ga.; Ga. R. R.
The central city of Georgia and fourth in size is on a hilly eminence, western bank of the Ocmulgee river…with population estimated at 23,000 immediately around her post office and coming within the carriers' territory. Six lines of railroad radiate from here: one to Savannah, 100 miles; one to Columbus, 100 (and to Eufaula, Ala., 143); one to Brunswick, 191; one to Atlanta, 88; one to Atlanta, 103; and one to Augusta, 125 miles, giving her excellent shipping facilities to all points, including the most direct sea points. A cotton compress will most certainly be built in the immediate future, and a canal of seven miles in length, from the Ocmulgee, above Macon, is being subscribed for now.

The annual receipts of cotton amount to 60,000 bales, of which the local mills consume 12,000 bales.

A life insurance company, with $600,000 assets, a new academy of music, two cotton factories, under one control with 16,500 spindles.

Five foundries and machine shops, two cotton gin and press shops, very extensive carriage factory, flouring mills, railroad car shops, lumber and builders' suppliers manufacturers, hosiery manufactory, marble works, a gas works, telephone exchange, water works, supplying the purest water to be had in any city in the country, an ice factory, a public library, with most progressive and enlightened officers, a beautiful public resort, Central Park, used as a fair grounds and for picnics, most admirably laid out, containing 720 acres, with a superb race track and an array of commodious and well established buildings, fountains, circling walks and drives, with flower gardens, overshadowed by majestic oaks and pines.

Rose Hill Cemetery is located on Rose Hill, on the Ocmulgee river, above the city, and is one of the most beautifully rustic spots to be found anywhere.

The city is lighted with electric lights, perched on numerous towers 150 feet high.

Macon was laid off in 1822, and named for Gen. Nathaniel Macon, it was incorporated as a town in 1826, and as a city it inaugurated its first government in 1833.

The present government is vested in a mayor and board of twelve aldermen, elected biennially in December. Last election, December 15, 1882.

The police consist of a chief, two lieutenants and 26 men, at an annual expense of $22,000. The volunteer fire department is composed of one hook and ladder company and three steamer companies, with an auxiliary force of ten reels; has a chief and two assistants, with a most enthusiastic and ambitious force. Annual expense, $12,000.

The importance and number of Macon's educational institutions gives her the name of "City of Colleges." The first female college in the world to grant diplomas to ladies, is located here – The Wesleyan Female College – rebuilt and endowed. The largest Catholic college in the southeast, Pio Nono; The Mercer University, with a fine library and superior advantages; Mount de Sales Academy, in charge of the Sisters of Mercy; Georgia State Academy for the Blind, and several schools beside, are here.

The Public Schools, nine in number, under the supervision of the Board of Education and an efficient Superintendent, afford every advantage for education to all – 1,852 students enrolled. Macon has twenty-three churches, of all denominations, and few cities of usual size can number so many handsome and well appointed public buildings, stores, warehouses, hotels, halls and beautiful residences. The Western Division, Southern District, United States Court, is held here twice a year.

The Telegraph and Messenger (daily), with full press and special dispatches, and all the State news, the Wesleyan Christian Advocate (weekly), the Southern Musical Journal (monthly), Kind Words (weekly), and the Dental Luminary (bi-monthly).

Express, Southern Express Company. Telegraph, Western Union. Macon is the important distributing centre for the mail of Middle Georgia. William W. Brown, Postmaster.

Matthew Perryman Bolton

Patriarch of the Bolton Family in Caldwell County and Lieutenant, Georgia 45th Infantry, CSA

by

Bill Bolton – Great-Grandson

Matthew P. Bolton was born to Samuel D. and Jane Bolton on February 14, 1842 in Columbia County, Georgia. The family later moved to Putman County and then to Houston County where he and his family were living when the Civil War began.

Shortly after the war began, Matthew "Enlisted as a private in Co. C, 1st Regt. Ga. Inf. (Ramsey's,) Mar. 18, 1861. Mustered out at Augusta, Ga. Mar. 18, 1862. Enlisted as a private in Co. H, 45th Regt. Ga. Inf. Mar. 1862. Appointed 5th Sergeant Jan. 1, 1865. Elected Lieutenant in 1865. Captured at Hatcher's Run, Va. Mar. 25, 1865. Released at Johnson's Island, 0. June 17, 1865."[1]

After Matthew returned from the war he met and married Margaret N. Howell in Pulaski County Georgia and later they lived near Matthew's family in Houston County. My grandfather, Howell McCormick Bolton, was born to Matthew and Margaret on September 8, 1871.

Just prior to 1880 Matthew and his family moved to Caldwell County, Texas and settled near the little community of McNeil where they lived, worked and raised a family. Matthew died November 27, 1925 and Margaret died three years later. Both are buried in what is now the Bolton family plot at the McNeil Cemetery.

For years I have sporadically researched the Bolton family history, and recently I have attempted to clarify some persistent questions I and others in the family have pondered for years. One question was an apparent inconsistency between the official records of Matthew's capture by Union forces on March 25, 1865 at Hatcher's Run and the published history of the activities of Mathew's regiment, the Georgia 45th, on the same day. The other question was when, where and how seriously Mathew was wounded. Oral family history is fairly consistent and indicates Matthew was seriously wounded during the war, but I have not found any details of his being wounded in the official records.

I recently discovered information that seems to clarify the first question. The battle of Fort Stedman occurred on March 25, 1865, marking the final decline of Lee's defense of Petersburg and Richmond. It was Lee's last offensive thrust and resulted in the loss of many Confederate soldiers who were killed or wounded and several thousand who were captured.

[1] Roster of the Confederate Soldiers of Georgia 1861 – 1865 Volume IV

Several historical accounts of Thomas' Brigade, commanded by Brig. Gen. E. L. Thomas, and the Georgia 45th Infantry, commanded by Col. T. J. Simmons, indicate that these units were involved in the Battle of Fort Stedman. Official records show that Matthew was captured on March 25, 1865 at Hatcher's Run. These accounts have confused me for some time as I attempted to learn more about Matthew's capture because Fort Stedman is southeast of Petersburg and Hatcher's Run (a creek) is southwest of Petersburg. They are several miles apart, and I wondered why Matthew was captured at Hatcher's Run on the same day that his regiment was at Fort Stedman.

In the spring of 2004 I visited Petersburg Battlefield and asked a Park Ranger if he could help clarify some of my confusion. He marched over to a bookshelf, picked up the book, Breaking the Backbone of the Rebellion, The Final Battles of the Petersburg Campaign by A. Wilson Greene and almost immediately turned to the pages that describe in detail the battles and skirmishes that occurred on March 25, 1865. The Ranger also explained that the area southwest of Petersburg is a watershed area to Hatcher's Run and people commonly referred to the whole area as Hatcher's Run. That clarified some of my confusion.

Thomas' Brigade, which included the 14th, 35th, 45th, and 49th Georgia Infantry Regiments, was assigned a position in the line of defense around Petersburg at the southwestern end of the line near the Confederate Fort Greg. Coincidentally, there was also a Union Fort Greg located a mile or so south of the Confederate's. On the evening of March 24, the Brigade was repositioned east to play a support role in the attack on Fort Stedman the next day. The battle of Fort Stedman started early (about 4:30 AM) and concluded by mid-morning. Lee had severely weakened the other sections of the defensive line in order to support the thrust at Fort Stedman. When that battle failed, Lee knew he was vulnerable to counterattack so he sent the supporting brigades back to their original defensive positions. Before Thomas' Brigade could reach their assigned position, the Union army, probing for weakness along the Confederate defensive line, had attacked and captured the skirmish lines in their area.

As the Brigade arrived at their assigned position about 3:00 PM they observed the conclusion of the Union capture of the skirmish line. Col. Simmons of the Georgia 45th formed his regiment plus the Georgia 49th (about 400 men) into formation and counterattacked the skirmish lines now occupied by Union solders. They recaptured a portion, if not all, of the lost positions, but were unable to hold them because soon the Union forces attacked again, this time with over four brigades (about 2,000 men). Even though Thomas sent the Georgia 14th and 35th regiments up, they could not repel the Union attack, partly because the 45th and 49th had used most of their ammunition in the counterattack. Gen. Thomas gave the order to pull back, but some (many?) did not hear the order and became casualties – mostly captured.

The Roster of the Confederate Soldiers of Georgia 1861 – 1865, Volume IV indicates that there were over a hundred casualties in the Georgia 45th Regiment on March 25. Most were captured at or near Petersburg and Hatcher's Run. The Roster also indicates that Lt. Col. Conn was initially Captain of Co. G of the 45th Ga., was later promoted to Lt. Col. and assigned to the Regimental Staff and that he was killed at Petersburg on March 25. Greene's account of the skirmish mentions that Conn was mortally wounded and that his dying words were, "Forward boys, forward". Therefore I believe that most (all?) of the 100+ men of the Georgia 45th identified as casualties on March 25, 1865 at or near Petersburg or Hatcher's Run occurred in the skirmish described by Greene in his book. This is when and where I think Matthew P. Bolton was captured.

Two roads that were there then are still in use and can be used to identify the skirmish area today. The Boydton Plank Road runs east and west and Church Road runs north and south. The skirmishes discussed above occurred near where the two roads join – just east of Church Road (less than a half mile) and south of Boydton Plank Road (about a half mile). The Confederate Fort Greg was (is?) less than quarter mile north of the Boydton Plank road.

We toured the Battlefield and as we drove north along Church Road to Boydton Plank Road I knew that somewhere within about a quarter of a mile to our right was probably where Mathew was captured. We continued on to where Church Road joined with Boydton Plank Road and saw what is left of Fort Greg. It is the mound behind and to the right of the trees in the picture below.

My next question is, where, when and how many times was Matthew P. Bolton wounded?

A Process of Discovery:
Disproving John Joiner as Brother of Madison Joiner

By Clark Joiner

This article is written by a beginning family researcher to issue a word of caution to other beginning family researchers. My cautionary advice is this: do not accept any one document as the final truth in regards to your family history. I will illustrate this concept with an example from my own research using a variety of resources. Any source of information may be useful to some degree even if certain aspects of it are found to be untrue.

After retirement, I became interested in my family background and genealogy. My father never talked about his family but I was fortunate to know my father's parents for the first 20 plus years of my life. As for extended family on my father's side, I grew up knowing two aunts and their nearly grown children. These family members never supplied much information about the family history and all my grandfather's brothers and sisters were deceased except one brother who I only remember seeing once or twice. So, my research began with very meager information.

My first step in research was to visit the Perry, Georgia library and search for books with my surname in the title. I found several. The next step was to trace down the family history books. I found two with information on my family. One book was located in the Dooly County library where I had grown up. It was authored by Mary Joiner Pierce and titled, Joiner, Mashburn and Allied Families. Mary's book contained extensive information on my immediate family and ancestors going back to John Joiner who was born in 1743 in Nash County (Rocky Mount), North Carolina and died March 27, 1810 in Nash County, North Carolina. In reading Mary's book and comparing details to those from my own personal knowledge, I found that it contained errors. From my own research, I discovered additional errors in Mary's book that were not at first obvious. Mary died June 30, 2005. I found her obituary on the internet at http://archgiver.rootsweb.com/th/read/JOINER/2005-10/1128289822. Additional internet searches soon turned up a website where at no cost one could enter genealogical information at http://www.cjoiner.tribalpages.com into a personal database. I decided to enter the information that Mary Joiner had compiled in her book. I made corrections from my personal knowledge and as I discovered them, I also captured these corrections in my database.

Mary Joiner Pierce had obtained her information about my family from William (Bill) Canova Fokes. Bill Fokes had been a life-long friend of my family and had grown up in Byronville, Georgia with my father. I later discovered this same incorrect information in a three volume set, History and Genealogical Collection of Dooly County, Georgia, by Nora and Watts Powell. This incorrect information also appeared in the article, "John Joiner, 1813-71, GA." in Family Puzzlers, issue 242, June 1972. In each of these publications, it was stated that "John Joiner was the brother of Madison Joiner," a statement that I now believe to be untrue. There were other pieces of incorrect information supplied by my friend and likely relative Bill Fokes but I will confine my remarks to the relationship of John and Madison Joiner.

I am the great-grandson of James Madison Joiner. Bill Fokes was the grandson of Sarah (Sally) Ann Elizabeth Joiner and great-grandson of John Joiner. I have no problem being related to Bill Fokes and his family because I have only good memories of him. However, if we are related, and I suspect we are, we are not related in the way Bill stated. Bill's ancestor, John Joiner, was not the brother of Madison Joiner and the remainder of this article will explain how I came to this conclusion.

The first slight hint that there was something wrong with the stated relationship of John Joiner and James Madison Joiner was the will of my great-great-grandfather Bennett Joiner, recorded in Sumter County, Georgia. Bennett Joiner's will listed his children in order of their birth. The first child mentioned was John Andrew Joiner along with the statement: "oldest son John Andrew Joiner is to have fifty dollars paid to him if ever he comes after it." The second child mentioned was James Madison Joiner who was later named executor of the estate. The will was dated February 13, 1852. At that point I should have asked the question; "Are John Joiner and John Andrew Joiner the same person?" I was not astute enough to ask that question until later discovery of additional information.

The second indication that there was something inconsistent with the stated relationship of John Joiner and James Madison Joiner as brothers was found in the 1850 U. S. Census of Sumter County, Georgia. John Joiner and Bennett Joiner are on the same page of the census. On the 1850 census, Bennett Joiner was 46 years old, John Joiner was 36 years old and Madison Joiner, age 23, was in the household of Bennett Joiner. Bennett's wife, Charity, was 33. I do not think it likely that Bennett Joiner was a father at 10 years of age. Obviously Charity was not the mother of John Joiner being three years younger than John Joiner. Charity is not likely the mother of James Madison Joiner only being 10 years older than he. To illustrate how "hard headed" I was, I continued to believe a Bible record that stated John Joiner was the brother of James Madison Joiner. I reasoned that there must be errors in the ages given in the census record. Indeed I have seen age inconsistencies in census records 10 years apart.

The third hint that indicated an inconsistency with the stated relationship of John Joiner and James Madison Joiner was a record I discovered in the Probate Court of Dooly County. The court appointed James Madison Joiner administrator of the estate of John A. Joiner on May 5, 1862. Now I knew John A. Joiner died prior to May 5, 1862, but who was he? Could John A. Joiner be John Andrew Joiner, the older brother of James Madison Joiner? The John Joiner from Bill Fokes' record had died August 10, 1871. Now I had evidence that this John A. Joiner had died prior to May 5, 1862.

The fourth indication that something was amiss with the stated relationship of John Joiner and James Madison Joiner was a record I discovered in the Vienna, Georgia library. This record stated J. Andrew Joiner was a Private in Company F, 12th Regiment Dooly County "Davis Guards" in the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia, that he enlisted June 11, 1861 and that he died of fever at Camp Alleghany, Virginia August 8, 1861. So, was this J. Andrew Joiner and John A. Joiner the same person? Several months pass between the death of J. Andrew Joiner and the granting of letters of administration on the estate of John A. Joiner. Could this just be explained by the slow communications that must have existed during the Civil War? The question remains, was J. Andrew Joiner, John A. Joiner and John Andrew Joiner the same person?

The fifth and final proof that John Joiner (died 1871) was not the brother of Madison Joiner was an additional discovery in the Dooly County Probate Office. As administrator of the John A. Joiner's estate, James Madison Joiner, was required to file documents on the inventory of the estate to include naming of heirs to the estate. Another trip to Dooly County was required. In the Probate Office, I asked to see the return to the court that James M. Joiner made on the estate of John A. Joiner. The clerk could not find a "Returns Record" book but suggested I look in the Court Minutes for 1862.

While reviewing Minute book "B," I discovered a document describing how James M. Joiner had made application for letters of administration to the court on the estate of John A. Joiner. In this application, James M. Joiner plainly states that John A. Joiner was his brother and had died "August 8th last." The date would be August 8, 1861, the same date that J. Andrew Joiner had died at Camp Alleghany in Virginia. James M. Joiner also stated that the estate of John A. Joiner was worth about $300.00 dollars. I concluded that John Andrew Joiner was unmarried and died intestate. I don't know how James Madison Joiner distributed the $300.00. Bennett Joiner had three sons and six daughters. Possibly only three sisters and James M. Joiner were living in May 1862. The Minute book "B" contained a couple of additional entries for James M. Joiner but they were illegible.

I have mentioned several sources of information in my research--library books, census records, bible records, and Probate Court records. I have also gained information from land records, Superior Court records, obituaries, death records, marriage records, and internet searches. I have also searched newspaper clippings, newspaper articles on microfilm, church records/histories, and the Christian Index. I have visited the Washington Memorial Library, Mercer Library in Macon and other courts and libraries in Georgia and Florida. I have found genealogy research to be like solving a puzzle. However, unlike a puzzle, all the pieces of the puzzle have not been collected for you in a box. There is much left for me to do. In conclusion, I say to other beginning researchers "have fun doing your research and good luck." I hope this example from my research has shown that you need to keep an open mind, keep looking, and do not accept any document as the final truth in regard to your family history.

An "Antique" Hospital Bill

Contributed by Georgette Lipford

My great grandmother, Fannie Lou Stephenton Long (1869-1956), lived in Hancock Co. near Sparta. A few years ago her purse was given to me. Tucked inside the purse were multiple receipts folded up in small squares. One of those is the 1927 hospital bill reproduced below. In is interesting because the hospital charges on the bill are in sharp contrast to health care costs today. Her hospital stay was for 12 days and totaled $166.50. The charge for medications was 75 cents. The Middle Georgia Sanatorium was located at 722 Spring St. in Macon. It was a private 50 bed hospital. Mrs. Long's physician was Dr. C. H. Richardson.

Georgia News of Interest to Genealogists

Two news stories in the middle Georgia media in the past few months related to genealogy and historical records. The first is about the discovery of unmarked graves in south Bibb County near the location of the former McArthur plantation and Avondale Mill Road. The graves, which are believed to be African-American burials, are located near a marked McArthur cemetery. They were discovered when the Georgia Department of Transportation made plans to extend Sardis Church Road to Ga. Hwy. 247. Additional information can be found in the following two articles:
http://www.macon.com/198/story/675070.html
http://www.macon.com/198/story/678759.html
The archeology firm involved in the project has also established a website:
http://www.newsouthassoc.com/avondale/

The second news item concerns a creative use of early Georgia maps on file in the Georgia Archives. Researchers attempting to determine where American chestnuts trees grew prior to being wiped out by an Asian fungus in the 1930s, have turned to old survey maps of land ceded to Georgia by the Creek and Muscogee Indians prepared in the years 1802 – 1830s. The surveyors marked the land lot corners with trees and blazed the lot numbers on the trees to aid in later identification. They also recorded the tree species at the lot corners. The desirability of land (hardwoods being more desirous than pine) can be judged by the documented tree species on land plats and land lot maps. Genealogists may already know this from land research but it is nice to see the records we seek and turn to for family research used in other ways. For more information on the Chestnut tree project go to: http://www.macon.com/198/story/686786.html and http://www.acf.org/.

Tucker Family Bible

Contributed by Joyce Green

At the time of transcription this Bible was in the possession of Curtis Tucker of [redacted] and was handed down to him by his father, George Tucker. The Bible is the H. & E. Phinney Sterotype Edition and was published by H. & E. Pinnney of Coppertown, New York in 1832. Spelling and punctuation have been retained as found in the Bible entries.

The two different entries given for the birth date of Sally R. N. Tucker conflict. The date provided on the first page of the record may have been a transcription error since it is recorded as the same birth date as that of Ellen Lee Tucker. A check of the T. P. and Georgeann Tucker family in the 1880 U. S. federal census of Houston Co., Georgia shows Sally Tucker's age as four years which corresponds closer to the birth date provided on the second page of the Bible record. (1) Researchers are cautioned to remember that Bible entries may or may not have been recorded at the time of the event. Transcription errors can occur when dates are copied from an older document and errors can be introduced in translating handwriting into typed text. CGGS recommends consulting additional sources of information to validate birth, marriage and death dates.

CGGS 2009 WML Donation in Memory of James Turnipseed and Glenn Heck

By Georgette Lipford

In June Willard Rocker and Christopher Stokes of Washington Memorial Library's Genealogical and Historical Room were presented with a check for $1,200 from CGGS. This year's gift was made in memory of two CGGS members who passed away recently, Glenn Heck and James Turnipseed, Jr.. Glenn Heck had served as Director, 1st Vice President and most recently handled CGGS book sales. James Turnipseed was an early member of CGGS and held several positions over the years including newsletter co-editor with his wife, Faith. These fine men and their contributions to the genealogy community will be missed.

This year's donation was possible in part due to individual donations made by CGGS members. During the fall membership renewal process members have the opportunity to make a donation through CGGS to the library. The following members contributed to the 2009 Genealogy Room gift:

Dorothy Baker, [redacted]

WML's Willard Rocker Retires

By Georgette Lipford

After 20 years service as the Department Head of WML's Genealogical and Historical Room, Willard Rocker retired in July. Willard's involvement with the library began many years ago. While a high school student in Macon, Willard's interest in his own family history lead to a connection with then Genealogy Department Head, Elizabeth Middlebrooks. A few years later, as a college student at Mercer in Macon, Willard was offered a part time position in the Genealogy Room. A full time position followed in 1973 after Willard served in the U.S. Army. He has worked in the Genealogy Room of WML all 36 years since then, assisting countless researchers to make connections to ancestors and history. Under Willard's leadership as Department Head, the Genealogical and Historical Room grew into one of the finest genealogy facilities in the south.

On Sunday, August 2, a reception hosted by the Nathaniel Macon chapter of the DAR was held to honor Willard's career at WML. Representatives of the DAR, SAR, UDC, SCV, Daughters of the War of 1812, First Families of Georgia, the Georgia APG and CGGS paid tribute to Willard's dedication and 36 years of hard work. It was noted that he often arrived to work at the library early and frequently came in on his day off. City of Macon and Bibb County officials both designated August 2nd as "Willard Rocker Day". Many of the organizations represented made monetary donations to the Genealogical and Historical Room in Willard's honor, including CGGS.

In addition to his career as a librarian Willard also authored Marriages and Obituaries of the Macon, Georgia Messenger, 1818-1865. To read more about Willard's retirement and career search by his name on www.macon.com for an article by the Telegraph columnist Ed Grisamore.

ICHABOD HILL FAMILY BIBLE

Submitted by Helen Shirah Hudson [redacted]

The Ichabod Hill Family Bible was last known to be in the possession of Josie Mae Barfield Nations who I have been told is now deceased. It was given to her by Lucille Shirah Howard, my aunt. To give a brief run down of the family, Annie Leozure Hill was my great grandmother. Loezure is spelled in many ways from Louzier (I use this one) to Elouzer. Ichabod Hill is the son of John (Jack) Hill of the Macon County, Georgia area and appears in various records as: Ichabod, Ichabad, Ike or Bud hill and his wife Louisa Catherine Aldridge Rice Hill as: Louisa, Lula, Catherine or Cassie. Louisa was married to David P. Rice prior to marrying Ichabod. There were two children from this marriage, George D. and Sybil E. Rice. These children appear in the household of their Rice grandparents (George D. & Annie E. Rice) in Lumpkin Co., GA in the 1870 census. In 1880 they are in the household of Annie E. Rice in Hall County, as George D. as apparently died. (Anyone with information on these children, please contact me.) Cassie drew a pension as David Rice's "widow" after the death of Ichabod.

When my Grandmother, Jessie Ida Mygrant Shirah died in 1974, this Bible was at Aunt Lucille's home. I hand copied the entries duplicating the writing and spelling as closely as possible. Below is the information contained in the Bible Family Pages entries.

It appears from gathered materials that John/Jack Hill, Sr. was married as many as three times. He probably married his first wife in North Carolina since the Macon Co. History states that he came to the area with his son Moses but does not mention a wife. His second wife is believed to be Mary Herring and his last wife was Malinda Barnes whom he married August 03, 1858 in Macon County, Georgia. He was born ca 1788 (?) In North Carolina and died in Macon Co., GA December 1, 1881. There is an article in The Macon Telegraph written shortly before he died referring to him as Uncle Jackie Hill and stating that he was 105 years old. Anyone having additional information other than census records please let me know.

VIENNA CITY CEMETERY - OLD BLACK SECTION

Continuing from the #1 issue for 2009. This will complete the survey for the Old Black Section of the Vienna City Cemetery.

What is the difference between Empty Lot & Empty Space? Most of the lots, we found were 10 grave lots, 5/5 in configuration. If they could not be stepped off as a probable lot, they were just recorded as a space which could be enough for several graves after a normal lot or it could be enough for many graves.

Taken from the south side of E. Woodward Street, looking north. You can see the many empty spaces which we tried to count as lots and include in our survey. There is enough space for at least twice if not three times as many graves as we have recorded.

ALPHABETICAL INDEX

To help find female family members, I have listed them under their maiden name if it is given on their marker. If her parents are on the marker, I have also listed them under their names with a reference to her grave. The same type of reference is used in the case of husband, wife, or a child's parents. There were several places where it looked like broken markers were piled up or there were crumbled markers, those are marked since we were not sure what they were. Grave numbers with a "-" between them mean that all graves withing those numbers belong in that group.

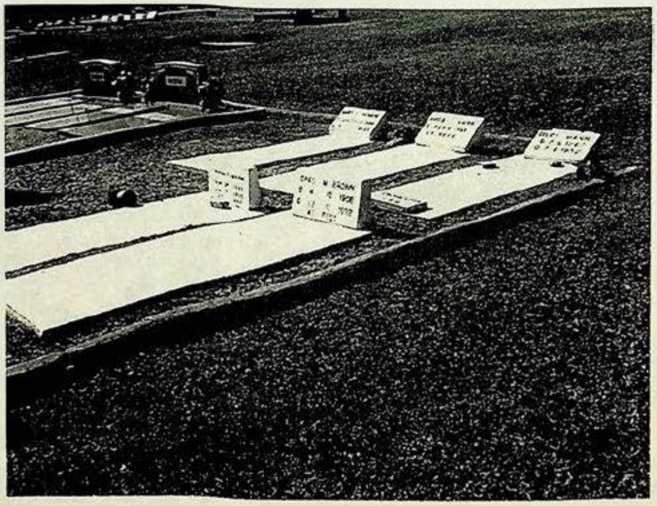
This concludes the Survey and Index of the Old Black Section of the Vienna City Cemetery.

Below is an example of a whitewashed lot, newly done. We were fortunate in that someone took the time to fill in the lettering with black making these very easy to read. Mann, Howard, Brown graves.



HARMONY BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY – DOOLY COUNTY, GEORGIA

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell & Helen S. Hudson April 2008

Located in Dooly County, Georgia on the East side of I-75 about 4 or 5 miles on the PINEHURST-HAWKINSVILLE ROAD (State Rd. 230 East) on your left as Chaney Rd. crosses it. GPS location is 32"12'57.79N 83"40'16.70W

The beautiful red brick Church is situated on well kept grounds and appears to have a very active membership. Most people consider it "Out from Unadilla" but the best way to find it is from Pinehurst.

Below: View of the church from the highway. There is also a parsonage located just right of where this photo cuts off.

Taken from the east side of the cemetery. The graves on this side are new with the older ones being in the center of the cemetery.

Marriage Book B 1832-1840

Transcribed by Sandra Morton

Anyone researching marriages in Pike County who is unable to find a record of a marriage that occurred in any year ending in "4" should check records from that decade for the year ending in "2" and vice versa. The recording clerk for the marriage records used handwriting that caused these numbers to appear identical. Thus, the person who photocopied the original record may have inadvertently mixed the years. The majority of the records are accurate as printed, but a few may be questionable as to the correct year. When in doubt, always check the original document located in the Pike County Probate Office.

Hand written page numbers are shown here in brackets at the beginning of that page. Some pages have been repaired with tape, obscuring words. Those words and other undecipherable words and names are indicated with an underscore. Spelling and punctuation (or lack of) has been retained as in the original.
The judges' names at the end of each court session appear to be their own signatures rather than the clerk's copying of their names.

Pulaski County, Georgia Deed Book E 1816 - 1818

Abstracted by Georgette Lipford

Pulaski County was created in December 1808 from Laurens Co. which had been formed a year earlier in December 1807 from Wilkinson County. Since 1808 Pulaski's borders have shifted as a result of the following changes: in 1826 the upper part of Dooly County was added to Pulaski; in 1828 a portion of Houston County was added to Pulaski; in 1857 part of Pulaski was cut away to form Wilcox County; in 1870 a large portion of Pulaski became Dodge County and in 1912 the eastern half of Pulaski became Bleckley County. In 1810 the town of Hartford in Pulaski was established as the location for the county's public buildings.

This article is a continuation of a series by Rudy Dennis which ran in the CGGSQ several years ago. Those installments were later collected and printed as Pulaski County Deed Books A, B, C & D: 7 November 1807 – 30 May 1816. (See the CGGS order form in the back of this issue to purchase)

The deeds in this article were abstracted from microfilm no. 4499 at Washington Memorial Library, "Pulaski Co. Superior Court Deeds and Mortgages Book E, 1811 – 1818". All of the deeds in this installment were recorded in the deed book by Pulaski County clerk, Edward Smith. The spelling of names has been retained as in the original record. There are two instances in which the clerk reproduced a signer's "mark" and those have been drawn similar to how they appear in the deed book.

Historical maps showing land districts in Pulaski and surrounding counties can be found on Galileo in the Historical Atlas of Georgia Counties webpage at http://georgiainfo.galileo.usg.edu/histcountymaps/index.htm. The 1839 map from David Burr's The American Atlas, which is one of those on in the Historical Atlas, shows the districts well. The Virtual Vault on the Georgia Archives site also has district plats of survey maps which can be helpful in land research.

Salem Methodist Church Cemetery

SALEM METHODIST CHURCH

Salem Methodist Church, Monroe County

Salem Methodist Church was established May 15, 1826. The cemetery was surveyed 25 August 2009 by Sandra Morton. To reach the church and cemetery from US 41 in Bolingbroke, take Pea Ridge Road across the railroad tracks and proceed east for about three miles. The church and cemetery are on the left side of the road. There are no signs for the church on the road or in the churchyard, only the sign on the church building.

Some of the inscriptions are very difficult to read, thus this survey may contain unintentional errors. The cemetery is completely fenced with a gate in the front center. This survey divides the cemetery into two parts using the gate as the half-way point. The horizontal rows begin with the graves closest to the church on the east and proceeding to the graves on the far west side of the cemetery. The left side is surveyed first, followed by the right side of the cemetery. The cemetery is well maintained and contains several graves of persons born before 1800, including one Revolutionary Soldier. Inscriptions are not included in this survey, unless they show relationship or pertinent information.

Online Research Updates

Milledgeville and Columbus Newspapers on Galileo

Two collections of historic Georgia newspapers are now available online through Galileo. The Milledgeville Historic Newspaper Archive covers the years 1808 – 1920 and consists of 49,000 images from eleven newspapers, including among others; the Federal Union, the Georgia Journal, the Union recorder and the Southern Recorder. The Columbus Enquirer Archive covers the years 1828 – 1890, consisting of 32,000 images. These databases are available on Galileo at: www.galileo.ugs.edu. A password for the site is available free to patrons of the Pines library system. To access these newspapers select the tab for databases A – Z then the titles starting with C and M. The DiVu browser is required to view the newspapers and can be downloaded from the historic newspapers page. The Macon Telegraph historic newspapers are also available from the same website.

Maryland Land Records

Land records for some Maryland counties are available at http://www.mdlandrec.net. A password is required to access the records but is available free to researchers regardless of state of residence. Request for a password must be made by email and will arrive within a few days. This website, which is a joint project of the county clerks of Maryland and the Maryland State Archives, has a user guide and FAQ for the land records.

Thanks to CGGS member Elaine Turk Nell for this information.

Georgia Archives

Georgia death certificates for the years 1928-1930 have been added to the Georgia Archives website. Death certificates were already available for 1919-1927. Using the certificates for 1928-1930 require a few more steps than the earlier database. The user must first search the index by year to obtain the deceased's certificate number. The death record can then be accessed by the certificate number. Georgia marriage records for many counties are also available on the Archives website as well as early tax digests for some counties. The Archives web address is: http://sos.georgia.gov/archives/. The marriage records and death certificates are in the Virtual Vault.

KILLEBREW

Glidwell Killebrew was born about 1791 in Edgecombe Co. NC and removed to Burke Co. GA with his uncles Robert Killebrew Jr. and Daniel Maund about 1805. He likely resided with Robert later in Putnam Co. GA. He was a resident of McIntosh Co., 271st District, when he registered for the 1832 land lottery. He sold this land in McIntosh in 1834 and was then a resident of Bibb Co. GA. Any information on Glidwell Killebrew would be greatly appreciated.

PARR

Searching for information on a Parr family that came to Georgia from Tennessee in early 1840s. This family was in Greene Co., GA in 1859 (tax digest), probably working in the Scull Shoals cotton mill. In 1859, the mother, Lucinda Parr, died of typhoid fever in Greene Co. (1860 Mortality census of Greene Co.) The children then moved to Hancock Co. GA (1862 tax digest) and at least 2 of them later moved to Muscogee Co. GA. Possible children for this family include: Winnie (b. ca. 1832), Eliza (b. ca 1835), James (b. ca 1836), Frances (b. Mar. 1843) and Zachariah (b. 1847). Frances md. David Stephenton and lived in Hancock Co. Zachariah lived in Russell Co. AL, then Macon Co., AL. Eliza (md. 1st Charles Ferrell, 2nd Wm. Healy) was in Elmore Co., AL in 1880. Winnie's fate after 1862 is unknown. This family is in nearly all instances working in or living near a cotton mill.

VIENNA CITY CEMETERY - West-West Section –North of Woodward St.

Surveyed by Davine V. Campbell and Helen S. Hudson Spring-Summer 2009

From 41 Hwy, turn east onto Woodward St., 1st paved drive on your left and this section is on your left from this drive. We started our survey At the Woodward St. end working our way north.

WW= The Far West Section. There is a paved road between the two West Sections and an 18" square brick entrance post on one side. This Section is a fairly new ADDITION to the Vienna Cemetery. The first ½ of this Section is listed as being in SECTION "K" and the 2nd ½ of this Section is listed as SECTION "L" on the Plat Map. This cemetery has spread out from the center.

We are grateful for having access to the Plat Map to help us understand the layout of the Vienna Cemetery.

DM = Double Marker [Usually for Husband & Wife]
[Brackets] around info means that I added for your convenience.
[DM] = Double Marker, usually for husband and wife but can be for other family members
[OES] = Order of the Eastern Star
FHM = Funeral Home Marker
Two Dates = Several times we have found one date on the cemetery marker and another date in the Georgia Death Index or Social Security Death Index. This was usually the Death Date.

"In Memory Of" is often found to mean the person is buried elsewhere but is to be remembered as a part of this family and neighborhood.

SS = There are two names on the same slab. Could be husband & wife.

It appears that some lots have been sold by Original Map Owner. The "new" owners have not been identified on the Plat Map.

Left: This is the slab that is in the Swearingen family lot noting family members who are buried in the Swearingen Family Cemetery. This family cemetery is still in use and is very well maintained.

Names with dates as recorded on this slab are included in the information for the Swearingen lot.

The one listed as her last name on the marker will appear in enclosed in parentheses when she is alphabetized by her maiden or prior married name. I hope that this may help in finding a female ancestor.

SMITH FAMILY CEMETERY
(AKA THOMPSON CEMETERY)
OF

Survey completed 27 Dec 2009
By Sandra Morton

LOCATION: From Bonaire, take GA 96 east to Thompson Mill Road. Turn right on Thompson Mill Road, proceed about two miles to Hiawassee Drive. Turn left and proceed into the subdivision for about ½ mile. The cemetery is on the left a few yards up from the road.

This cemetery is the family burial ground for William Smith, Jr. and his family, located on the original homeplace. William Smith, Jr. moved from Washington County, Georgia in the 1820s and established a large plantation on several hundred acres of land that he purchased near the Ocmulgee River. By the 1840s, William set aside the land for the family cemetery as his family members began dying. The cemetery was used by his family for the next century. The latest death recorded was that of his great-granddaughter Bessie Walker Owen in 1943.

The cemetery was originally surveyed by Addie P. Howell in 1977 and was included in her book, Cemeteries & Obituaries of Houston County Georgia, © 1982, as the "Thompson Cemetery." (pp 118-19.) Even as early as 1977 the cemetery was in bad shape. According to Mrs. Howell, [the gravestones are] "In very bad condition; some are not readable." (p. 118.) It is understandable that some of the graves were missed in her original survey. Because of those missed graves and the subsequent research on the Smith family, this new survey is included in this issue of the quarterly.

The cemetery became known as the Thompson Cemetery during the 1900s after the land became the property of Mattie and Charlie H. Thompson, the heirs of Garrett Smith, son of William Smith, Jr.. The land eventually passed from family ownership to the property of Mark Byrd (Byrd & Company LLC) who is developing the land into a subdivison of family homes. He discovered the overgrown cemetery during the summer of 2009 and cut the weeds and overgrowth, allowing the tombstones to once again be visible. He intends to clean up and repair the cemetery and make it a highlight of the subdivision. Currently, the cemetery is still in bad shape. Several of the gravestones are broken, some have pieces missing or buried under dirt, many of the pedestals have fallen, and many markers are illegible from age. Whenever possible, I have tried to decipher the markings as accurately as possible. But some were simply illegible. Thus, I have supplemented this survey with facts from other known sources, such as wills, marriage records and obituaries. I have also included a sketch of the cemetery showing approximately where the gravesites are situated and with the number corresponding to the individual buried there. When the relationship is known, it is included. Question marks are used whenever there is doubt about the dates.

Grave #	Individual	Birth	Death
1	SMITH, Ardella [daughter of Nancy & William Smith, Jr.; wife of Needham Smith]	11 Nov 1803	20 Jun 1852
2	SMITH, Needham [husband of Ardella Smith, unknown if further related to William Smith, Jr.]	04 Apr 1796	09 Jul 1854
3	WALKER, Franklin B. [son of Harriet (Smith) & John Duhart Walker; grandson of Ardella & Needham Smith]	07(?) Oct 1842	15 Oct 1852
4	WALKER, John Duhart [husband of Harriet (Smith) Walker]	07 Oct 1815	03 Jul 1859
5	WALKER, Harriet (Smith) [daughter of Ardella & Needham Smith; granddaughter of William Smith, Jr.]	25 _?_ 1821	[07 Feb 1854][1]

[1] The death date was obtained from her obituary in the 21 Apr 1854 issue of the Southern Christian Advocate as recorded in Holcomb's book. (Vol. 1, p. 337.)

[2] In Howell's book, she lists a "Mary A. D. WALKER, b. Dec. 15, 1815, d. Apr 30, 1817" (p. 119) that may be this child's grave. If so, the years should be 1845 and 1847 respectively. John Duhart Walker and Harriet Smith married on 19 Dec 1841 in Houston County. [Houston County Marriage Bk A, pg. 78] They had son Franklin Bryant Walker born Oct. 1842 and son George Henry Walker born about 1844, according to the 1850 federal census for Houston County, GA. The next known son, John H.D. Walker, was born Nov. 1847. That would clearly place their daughter Mary in between George and John. Since she died in 1847 she would not appear on that census.

Grave #	Individual	Birth	Death
7	WALKER, John H. D.	13 Nov 1847	02 ? 08 ? Jun 1850
	[son of Harriet (Smith) & John Duhart Walker, grandson of Ardella & Needham Smith]
8	WALKER, Harriet D.	06 May 1850	12 ? 17 ? Jul 1852
	[daughter of Harriet (Smith) & John Duhart Walker, granddaughter of Ardella & Needham Smith]
9	BURNEY, Martha Ella	08 Aug 1852	23 Jun 1856
	[daughter of Mary Ann (Smith) & Milton L. Burney, granddaughter of Ardella & Needham Smith]
10	BURNEY, Mary Ann (Smith)	25 Jul 1831	06 Dec 1852

This grave also has a foot marker with his initials, "G.W.B."

Grave #	Individual	Birth	Death
11	BURNEY, Green W.	04 Jan 1856	27 Nov 1876
	[son of Mary Ann (Smith) & Milton L. Burney, grandson of Ardella & Needham Smith]
12	BURNEY, ___?____	__?_____	? Ju_? 1883
	[possibly the husband of Mary Ann (Smith)—Milton L. Burney][3]
13	FORDHAM, Elizabeth Smith	30 Sep 1839	24 Jan 1912
	[wife of Dr. John F. Fordham, daughter of Ardella & Needham Smith, granddaughter of William Smith, Jr.][4]

The following two graves (14 & 15) are combined on a single marker:

Grave #	Individual	Birth	Death

[3] This may be Milton L. Burney, the widowed husband of Mary Ann (Smith) Burney, although, according to federal census records, he remarried about 1859 and had more children by his second wife; so, he is likely buried elsewhere. It is most likely that this is Milton & Mary Ann's son George N. Burney who was born about 1853. The gravestone is broken and several pieces may be missing or buried under the dirt. There is not enough of the marker left to positively identify the person buried.

[4] There is no marked grave for Dr. John F. Fordham in the cemetery. He died before 7 Feb 1865, the date of the Guardian Bond appointing Elizabeth A. (Smith) Fordham as guardian for Fanny A. Fordham. The bond shows the deceased parent as "John T. Fordham." (Source: Houston County Guardian Bonds, p.111.) It is possible his may be one of the unmarked concrete slabs, or possibly a grave without any marker. Or he may be buried elsewhere.

[5] The obituary "Death of Cornelius E. Brown" was reported in the 23 Feb 1893 issue of The Home Journal, Perry, GA. According to the unnamed author of the article:

> At Bonaire last Thursday night, a difficulty between Mr. Cornelius E. Brown and Jackson J. Everett, a colored preacher, resulted in the death of both parties. Mr. Brown received a gunshot wound in the lower part of the face, and died almost immediately. The negro was shot in the breast with a pistol, and he died next day. Coroner Hurst held an inquest over the body of Mr. Brown, and the jury returned a verdict to the effect that his death resulted from a wound at the hands of Everett, and that it was manslaughter.... Mr. Brown was about 43 years old, youngest son of the late David M. Brown, of this county.

[husband of Betsy "Bessie" Walker, son of David M. Brown]

15 BROWN, Hattie 07 Oct 1855 ? 01 Nov 1859 ?

16 OWEN, Bessie (Walker) 1852 1943

The following three graves are located within the fenced enclosure on the right:
17 ALLEN, Mary F. 1834 24 Jun 1858
[wife of John H. Allen, daughter of Deborah (Smith) & Josiah Hodges, granddaughter of William Smith, Jr.][7]

18 HODGES, H. A. [Harriet] 14 Mar 1836 30 Nov 1850

19 This is an unmarked sunken grave.

20 SMITH, Risdon 27 Sep 1825 15 Jul 1849
[son of Nancy & William Smith, Jr.]

20a This is a concrete square measuring about two feet by two feet. There is no visible marking and it is unclear if it is indeed a grave marker.

The next two graves appear to be those of William and Nancy, the father and mother of this family. The concrete slabs are both broken and barely legible. The name "SMITH" is barely visible, while the dates are completely obscured. One of their sons, Jesse Smith, married and moved to Louisiana in the mid-1800s where they settled and raised a family. It is one of this son's descendants who provided the maiden name for Nancy (Dean) and the birthdates and death dates for Nancy and William.[8]
21 SMITH, William, Jr. [22 Dec 1773] [12 Nov 1851]

22 SMITH, Nancy [(Dean)] [27 Jul 1784] [20 Mar 1845]

23 This is an unmarked sunken grave.

24 This is an unmarked concrete slab.

---

[6] Bessie J. Brown married J.R. Owens on 19 Dec 1894. (Source: Houston County Marriage Bk D, p.390.) The gravestone shows the last name as "OWEN" without the "s."

[7] Her obituary was recorded in the 22 Jul 1858 issue of the Southern Christian Advocate as detailed in Holcomb's book. (Vol 1, p. 512)

[8] According to Marie T. Wilkerson of Monroe, Louisiana, in her "Family Pedigree # 170" published in the C.G.G.S. Quarterly, Vol. 10, # 4, Dec. 1988, William Smith, Jr. was from Virginia. However, the 1850 federal census for Houston County, Ga., shows his place of birth as "Pa" not "Va". The census data for William's age matches the year of birth provided by Marie in her pedigree. Nancy died before the 1850 census. I could find no information in local records as to her maiden name.

25 This broken, concrete slab is unmarked and is lying at an angle to the other graves.

The rest of the graves are located inside the wrought iron fence on the left. The gate to this enclosure has the name "Garrett Smith" inscribed on the outside.

37 A small square stone with no legible markings may be a foot marker for grave # 44.

[9] Obituary in the 9 Sep 1920 issue of The Home Journal, Perry, GA.

39 This is an unmarked solid concrete slab.

Between graves 39 & 40 is a broken headstone with only symbols, no words. There is a cross and a crown within a circle, but no other markings.

40 This is an unmarked solid concrete slab.

[10] Sterling Tison's will was written 30 Mar 1831 and probated 02 May 1831. In this will, the surname "Tison" and "Tyson" are both used to identify the decedent. (Source: Houston County Will Book A, 1827-1855, pp. 60-61.) Judith's name is missing from the broken headstone. Her maiden name is unknown.

[11] This is probably Sarah Catharine (Smith) Bell whose obituary in the 17 Apr 1856 issue of the Southern Christian Advocate identifies her as the wife of Dr. Tho. W. Bell and the daughter of Alexander & Judith Smith. "Kittie" may be a nickname for Catharine. The birth and death dates are from the obituary. (Source: Marriage and Death Notices from the Southern Christian Advocate 1827-1860, © 1979, p. 417, by Brent H. Holcomb.) According to the 02 Feb 1855 issue, Sarah C. Smith married Dr. Thos. W. Bell on 23 January 1855 (Source: Ibid., p.368.)

[12] The marker did not include any year on the birth date, but it did have the death year. His obituary is in the 17 Aug 1849 issue of the Southern Christian Advocate, as recorded in Holcomb's book (Vol I, p. 184).

Jones County, Georgia

Contributed by Sherrie Nelson

The following information was abstracted from the Georgia State Gazetteer, Business & Planter's Directory, 1883, Vol. III.[1] Spelling and punctuation were retained as printed in the Directory. All the communities that could be identified for Jones County are included here. Farmers in the various communities are listed. Also included is a list of fish culturists in Jones County. "P.M." signifies Post Master. The "express" service referred to was for expedited shipping of goods and parcels (perhaps similar to the use today of UPS and FedEx). There is a lengthy list of businesses by trade at the back of this Directory; none of that information is included in this article.

Houston County, Georgia World War I Soldiers

Contributed by Joy Kimberly

This list of World War I soldiers was found placed in the "Indenture of Apprenticeship December 1866" volume at the Houston County Courthouse. The list was found with a letter, wrapped in plain brown paper and is in brittle condition. The letter is transcribed here as further introduction and is followed by the list of soldiers. Since the letter predated WWII the war is referred to in the letter only as "the World War". In the list "col" is used to designate African American soldiers. Deserters are designated by an asterisk. Following each soldier's name is a street address or "RR" designating rural route address. A large number of soldiers are shown with addresses in neighboring counties. Names of officers, Navy personnel, deceased soldiers and incomplete names appear at the end of the alphabetical listing. No effort has been made to verify soldier's names or service against other government records.

HOMER C. PARKER
THE ADJUTANT GENERAL

March 22, 1929

Mr. M. L. Cooper
Ordinary, Houston County
Perry, Georgia

My dear Sir:-

Pursuant to your request, I am mailing to you this date a list of the World War Soldiers whose service has been accredited to your County by the War Department. It is a pleasure to me to furnish your County with this information and I sincerely hope that you will see to it that these names are made of record in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of your County.

If you should find any individual or organization desirous of securing the individual record cards for these ex-service men, I can furnish them at the prices quoted in my letter of November 21st, 1928, to-wit: at $15.00 per thousand for 500 or more cards. For less than 500 cards, I can furnish them at $2.00 per hundred.

Very truly yours,

Homer C. Parker
The Adjutant General
